DECLARATION OF MICHAEL KAUFMAN

I, Michael Kaufman, hereby declare:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice before the courts of the State of California. I am one of the attorneys for Plaintiffs Xochitl Hernandez, Cesar Matias, and the certified class they represent. I work for the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California (“ACLU SoCal”). I am also admitted to practice before a number of federal courts, including the United States District Court for the Central District of California and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below and if called to testify, I could and would do so competently. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ unopposed motion for an award of attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of costs incurred in the litigation of this case.

The Parties Have Agreed to a Fair, Reasonable, and Appropriate Award of Attorneys’ Fees

3. As part of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay attorneys’ fees to Plaintiffs’ counsel in the amount of $1,600,000 and to submit Plaintiffs’ request for $148,975.72 in costs to the Bureau of the Fiscal Service for reimbursement of taxable costs. However, the agreed-upon amount represents only a partial recovery of Plaintiffs’ counsel’s out-of-pocket expenses and expended time. As explained below, Plaintiffs’ counsel’s lodestar—calculated after a significant exercise of billing discretion—was $ 1,980,118.43, exclusive of an additional $148,975.72 in recoverable costs. The parties’ agreed-upon amount for attorneys’ fees thus represents a 19 percent reduction in the overall fees and costs in this case. As reflected in that substantial reduction and the discussion below on the factors for determining an award’s reasonableness, I believe the agreed-upon award is fair, reasonable, and appropriate.

1 The Settlement Agreement Provides Complete Relief

2 4. The Settlement Agreement provides substantial relief for all current and 3 future members of the Settlement Class. Under the Agreement, Defendants will 4 adopt procedures to ensure that ICE and Immigration Judges consider Class
5 members' ability to pay a bond and non-monetary conditions of release.
6 Defendants will also provide Plaintiffs with detailed monitoring information about 7 Defendants' implementation of the Agreement. I believe that the Settlement
8 Agreement likely provides relief that is equal to or more extensive than Plaintiffs 9 could have obtained from a judgment from this Court, if the case had been litigated 10 to completion.

11 Effort Expended by Plaintiffs' Counsel

12 5. Plaintiffs' counsel worked on this case for seven years, expending 13 significant time and effort into investigation and litigation.

14 6. Plaintiffs' counsel began extensive pre-litigation factual research as early as 15 2015. Plaintiffs' counsels' research included reviewing publicly available
16 information about Defendants' custody review procedures and discovery produced
17 in related litigation. Counsel also interviewed numerous attorneys who represent 18 individuals in removal procedures and noncitizens subject to the challenged
19 policies and procedures, including by traveling to the Adelanto Detention Facility
20 and the Santa Ana City Jail on multiple occasions to meet with detained 21 noncitizens. Plaintiffs' counsel also performed extensive legal research on 22 potential legal claims and framing of the presented issues.

23 7. After extensive pre-litigation factual and legal research, Plaintiffs' counsel 24 prepared and filed the complaint on April 6, 2016. Shortly after we filed the 25 complaint, we also prepared and filed a motion for class certification and a motion
26 for a preliminary injunction. Before the motions were heard, Defendants filed a 27 motion to dismiss the case, which we opposed. Plaintiffs' counsel spent 28 considerable time researching, compiling, and drafting the briefing in support of

1 class certification and preliminary relief and the opposition to Defendants' motion
2 to dismiss. Plaintiffs' counsel also spent a significant amount of time preparing for 3 the hearing on the motions.

4 8. On November 10, 2015, this Court issued orders denying Defendants'
5 motion to dismiss and granting Plaintiffs' motions for class certification and for a 6 preliminary injunction. Defendants subsequently filed an interlocutory appeal of 7 the Court's orders to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and sought a stay pending
8 appeal. Plaintiffs' counsel expended a significant amount of time opposing 9 Defendants' motion for a stay and on Plaintiffs' merits briefing at the Ninth
10 Circuit, as well as on preparing for oral argument. On October 17, 2017, the Ninth 11 Circuit issued a published opinion affirming the Court's class-wide preliminary 12 injunction.

13 9. Following the Ninth Circuit's decision, Plaintiffs' counsel drafted materials 14 and engaged in affirmative outreach to class members to explain how the 15 preliminary injunction altered their rights. Plaintiffs' counsel also observed class
16 members' bond hearings and conducted trainings and advised immigration 17 attorneys about the impact of the preliminary injunction on their clients' case.

18 10. The parties engaged in extensive discovery in this matter. Plaintiffs'
19 counsel prepared document requests, interrogatories, and requests for admission, 20 reviewed and summarized produced documents, and conducted several 21 depositions. Plaintiffs' team also prepared the Rule 26 conference and report.
22 Plaintiffs' counsel also prepared, filed, and vigorously litigated several motions to 23 compel Defendants to conduct adequate searches and produce documents
24 responsive to Plaintiffs' discovery requests. As a result of these efforts, the Court
25 subsequently appointed a Special Master to oversee discovery at Defendants'
26 expense. Plaintiffs' counsel also responded to extensive requests for production, 27 interrogatories, and requests for admission that Defendants served on the Plaintiffs.
28 Plaintiffs' counsel also prepared for and defended depositions of the Named

1 Plaintiffs.

2 11. Although this case settled before the completion of expert discovery,
3 Plaintiffs' counsel also dedicated a significant amount of time preparing expert
4 reports. Plaintiffs retained three experts to provide their opinions in this matter.
5 Plaintiffs' counsel conducted substantial research to identify the experts, develop 6 the proposed expert reports, and provide the experts with discovery and other 7 factual materials on which the reports would be based.

8 12. Beginning in July 2019, the parties engaged in serious arms-length
9 settlement discussions under the supervision of Magistrate Judge Laurel Beeler.
10 Plaintiffs' counsel prepared a detailed settlement conference statement, engaged in 11 a series of settlement conferences in person and by phone, and reviewed and 12 provided feedback on a multitude of settlement proposals. Plaintiffs' counsel also 13 discussed and sought feedback on the proposed and final settlement terms with 14 class members.

15 13. Finally, Plaintiffs' counsel prepared lengthy settlement documents,
16 including the Settlement Agreement, preliminary and final approval motions, class
17 notices, and proposed final approval order. Counsel anticipates that future work 18 will include participating in the final approval hearing, continuing contact with 19 class members, and offering information and trainings to class members and 20 immigration attorneys.

21 Complexity and Novelty of Presented Issues

22 14. This case involves several novel and complex legal issues. Plaintiffs allege 23 that Defendants' custody review procedures fail to consider noncitizens' ability to 24 pay a bond and non-monetary conditions of release, in violation of the Due Process
25 Clause, the Equal Protection Clause, and the Eighth Amendment to the 26 Constitution. So far as counsel are aware, this is the first case in the country to 27 consider if and how the Constitution's limitations on wealth discrimination apply
28 to the immigration detention system. This is reflected in the Ninth Circuit's

1 published decision upholding the Court's class-wide preliminary injunction, which
2 has been cited as precedent in hundreds of cases and secondary sources. The case 3 also involves complex procedural and jurisdictional issues, including whether the 4 case could be maintained as a class action.

5 15. In litigating this matter, Plaintiffs' counsel engaged in complicated and 6 extensive factual research and analysis. As already detailed, Plaintiffs' counsel
7 expended significant hours to interview numerous affected individuals, review
8 extensive discovery, and conduct and defend depositions. Counsel also consulted 9 with three experts who were prepared to offer expert opinions on the legal and 10 factual issues in the case.

11 16. In my experience, there are few litigators who have the capacity, 12 knowledge, and expertise to litigate cases concerning the constitutional rights of 13 detained immigrants. To successfully litigate these matters, counsel must have 14 extensive experience and skill in litigating class actions and federal jurisdictional 15 issues, as well as understanding the merits of the case, which requires knowledge 16 of complicated constitutional and legal questions as well as an understanding the 17 ways in which the immigration court and removal systems operate. Immigration
18 law is notoriously complex and requires specialized training to understand. There 19 are few attorneys who have expertise in both immigration law and complex federal 20 court litigation. The required knowledge and expertise, combined with the 21 substantial risk of nonpayment, mean few attorneys have been willing to handle 22 cases involving the civil rights of detained immigrants.

23 17. The vast majority of immigration detainees lack an attorney in their 24 immigration cases; even fewer can find counsel for civil rights actions. This 25 unfortunate reality is the result of a confluence of factors: most detainees are 26 indigent and lack the resources to pay an attorney; detention centers, including in 27 the Central District, are located in remote regions far from most attorneys;
28 detainees' vulnerability to removal from the United States; and numerous legal

1 impediments make it challenging to bring and prevail in civil rights actions on 2 behalf detained noncitizens.

3 Plaintiffs' Counsel Assumed Risk of Non-Payment

4 18. Plaintiffs' counsel faced a significant risk of non-payment due to the 5 complexity of the case and the risk of non-recovery inherent in class actions
6 generally. Plaintiffs' counsel took this case on a fully contingent basis. If Plaintiffs 7 did not prevail, Plaintiffs' counsel would receive no compensation. Moreover, to 8 recover fees under EAJA, it is not sufficient for a party to prevail; the party must 9 also demonstrate that the government's position was not substantially justified.
10 Although Plaintiffs were not concerned about their ability to collect if they were 11 successful, the risk lay in certifying the class, establishing that the underlying 12 conduct by the Defendants was illegal and, if so, whether the Defendants' positions 13 were substantially unjustified.

14 19. As courts have acknowledged, class actions are inherently risky. Generally,
15 cases filed as a class action are not certified and those that are can still result in a 16 loss, or in only a partial success. Therefore, Plaintiffs bore the added level of risk
17 that inheres in any class action, as well as a risk of less than a full recovery on a 18 complex and still-novel constitutional theories.

19 The Class's Reaction to the Settlement Agreement

20 20. Pursuant to the Court's order preliminarily approving the Settlement
21 Agreement, Plaintiffs' counsel posted the Notice of the Proposed Settlement
22 Agreement and Settlement Agreement on the ACLU of Southern California
23 website on February 1, 2022. Plaintiffs' counsel also facilitated the distribution of 24 the Notice and Agreement through the listservs of the American Immigration
25 Lawyers' Association, the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Immigration
26 Section, and the Southern California Detention Advocates.

27 21. To date, Plaintiffs' counsel have received no objections or responses to the 28 Notice. The Named Plaintiffs in this case, Xochitl Hernandez and Cesar Matias,

1 provided feedback during settlement negotiations, and reviewed and approved the 2 final terms of the Agreement.

3 Experience and Skill of Counsel

4 22. Throughout the course of this case, ACLU SoCal has served as counsel for 5 Plaintiffs. ACLU SoCal is one of the largest regional affiliates of the American
6 Civil Liberties Union and is dedicated to defending and securing important
7 constitutional rights and extending these rights to people who have been excluded
8 from their protection. ACLU SoCal has extensive expertise in class action 9 litigation and due process litigation and has participated in numerous cases in 10 federal court related to the immigration system.

11 23. I graduated with distinction from Stanford Law School in 2007. Following 12 graduation, I served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Sidney Thomas of the 13 Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. From 2008 to 2010, I was a Skadden Fellow at the 14 Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights of the San Francisco Bay Area, where I 15 worked on immigrants' rights and workers' rights issues.

16 24. I have worked at the ACLU of Southern California since October 2010, first 17 as a fellow, then a staff attorney, and now as a senior staff attorney. I currently 18 hold the title of the Sullivan & Cromwell Access to Justice Senior Staff Attorney.
19 During the course of my tenure at the ACLU, I have also served as Deputy 20 Director of the Advocacy Department and Director of the Immigrants' Rights 21 team. In my current role, I conduct litigation and advocacy to advance the rights of 22 immigrants, supervise attorneys and advocates engaged in that work, and 23 coordinate work across the California affiliates of the ACLU.

24 25. I am a member of the Bar of the State of California, and admitted to practice 25 before several federal courts, including the Northern District of California, the 26 Central District of California, the Eastern District of California, the United States
27 Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court.

28 26. I have approximately thirteen years of experience litigating immigrants' rights cases. Most pertinent here, I have served as lead or co-lead counsel in several class actions seeking to vindicate the rights of detained noncitizens. See Aleman Gonzalez v. Barr, 955 F.3d 762 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted sub nom. Garland v. Gonzalez, 142 S. Ct. 919 (2021) (class action challenging prolonged detention without a bond hearing for certain immigrants detained in the Ninth Circuit); Torres v. United States Dep't of Homeland Sec., 411 F. Supp. 3d 1036 (C.D. Cal. 2019) (class action challenging impediments to counsel and legal assistance for noncitizens detained in the Central District of California); Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct. 830 (2018) (class action challenging the prolonged detention without a bond hearing of a class of detained noncitizens in the Central District of California); Garcia v. Johnson, No. 4:14-CV-01775-YGR, 2015 WL 13387594 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 27, 2015) (nationwide class action challenging unlawful delays in the processing of detained asylum seekers' cases). I have also authored numerous amicus briefs in Ninth Circuit cases addressing the rights of detained immigrants.

27. I have represented immigrants in a number of additional cases raising complex questions of immigration and constitutional law. For example, I currently serve as lead counsel in Kidd v. Mayorkas, No. 2:20-cv-03512-ODW (JPRx), 2021 WL 1612087 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 26, 2021) (challenging ICE's pattern and practice of impersonating of local police to gain entry to homes in violation of the Fourth Amendment) and Bello-Reyes v. Gaynor, 985 F.3d 696 (9th Cir. 2021) (challenging ICE's retaliatory arrest of an activist for engaging in First Amendment-protected speech). In the past, I served as lead counsel in Castillo v. Nielsen, No. 5:18-cv-01317-ODW-MAA, 2018 WL 6131172 (C.D. Cal. June 21, 2018) (challenging the government's incommunicado detention of immigrants at a federal prison); as co-lead counsel in Santiago v. City of Los Angeles, No. 2:15-cv-08444-BRO, 2016 WL 7176694 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 17, 2016) (challenging the seizure and destruction of street vendors' property on constitutional and statutory grounds); lead counsel in Molina-de La Villa v. Holder, No. 12-73462 (9th Cir. 2014) (seeking to establish the right to collaterally attack a removal order based on subsequent judicial decision); lead counsel in Ali, et al. v. Holder, et al., No. 2:11-cv-4503-AHM-SP (C.D. Cal. 2010) (challenging the revocation of a visa in retaliation for client's exercise of his right to counsel); and counsel in Comite de Jornaleros de Redondo Beach v. City of Redondo Beach, 657 F.3d 936 (9th Cir. 2011) (en banc) (striking down ordinance targeting day laborers on First Amendment grounds).

28. In addition to serving as counsel in these cases, I have provided guidance and assistance to numerous attorneys litigating cases involving immigration detention and the right to counsel over the past decade. I have also developed training materials and practice advisories on immigration detention and the right to counsel, and conducted trainings and presentations on these topics, some of which were certified for Continuing Legal Education credit.

29. I have received numerous awards and recognition for my work on immigration detention. In 2014, I was named California Lawyer of the Year, along with my co-counsel, for my work on the Rodriguez class action litigation. In 2016, I was named California Lawyer of the Year, along with my co-counsel, for my work on the Garcia class action litigation. In 2017, I received the National Lawyers' Guild Recognition for my work on the Santiago case.

30. Through all the experience described above, I have come to have distinctive knowledge and expertise in immigrants' rights litigation in the federal courts. In particular, I have developed distinctive knowledge about the issues at the heart of this case, including immigration detention law, the INA's jurisdictional provisions, and immigration detainees' constitutional rights. As detailed below, several courts, including this one, have recognized that I possess distinctive knowledge and expertise warranting enhanced rates under the EAJA in cases involving the constitutional rights of detained immigrants.

1 31. My co-counsel in this matter from the ACLU of Southern California, Ahilan
2 Arulanantham, also possesses distinctive knowledge and specialized skill that was 3 necessary for this litigation.

4 32. I have worked closely with Mr. Arulanantham since 2010. Mr.
5 Arulanantham graduated from Yale Law School in 1999, after which he served as 6 a law clerk to the Honorable Stephen Reinhardt of the United States Court of 7 Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. He then worked for two years as an Equal Justice
8 Works (formerly “NAPIL”) Fellow and attorney for the ACLU Immigrants’ Rights
9 Project (“ACLU IRP”) in New York, practiced as an assistant Federal Public 10 Defender in the Western District of Texas for two years, and then came to work at 11 the ACLU of Southern California in June 2004. In 2011, he became the Deputy 12 Legal Director at the ACLU of Southern California. In 2012, he also became a 13 Senior Staff Attorney at the ACLU IRP. He also has served as the Advocacy and 14 Legal Director at the ACLU of Southern California. In 2021, Mr. Arulanantham 15 move to the UCLA School of Law as a Professor from Practice and Co-Director of 16 the Center for Immigration Law.

17 33. Mr. Arulanantham has extensive experience working on cases involving the 18 civil rights of immigrants. For example, he was lead counsel in Nadarajah v.
19 Gonzales, 443 F.3d 1069 (9th Cir. 2006) (granting habeas petition and ordering 20 release of refugee detained indefinitely as a national security threat); Nadarajah v.
21 Holder, 569 F.3d 906 (9th Cir. 2009) (awarding fees at market rates for habeas 22 litigation). He has litigated a number of additional cases involving the statutory and 23 constitutional rights of non-citizens subjected to prolonged detention, which 24 involved substantial briefing on the application of the Immigration and Nationality
25 Act’s jurisdictional provisions. See, e.g., Diouf v. Mukasey (Diouf I), 542 F.3d
26 1222 (9th Cir. 2008); Diouf v. Napolitano (Diouf II), 634 F.3d 1081 (9th Cir.
27 2011); Casas-Castrillon v. DHS, 535 F.3d 942 (9th Cir. 2008) (amicus); Singh v.
28 Holder, 638 F.3d 1196 (9th Cir. 2011) (amicus); Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S.Ct.

830 (2018).

34. Of particular relevance here, Mr. Arulanantham has litigated several cases involving the rights of detained immigrants. See Castellano v. Napolitano, CV 09-2281-PA-VBK (C.D. Cal. 2009) (class action challenge to detention conditions at ICE holding facility in Los Angeles) (settled with requirements to remedy violations); NLG v. Chertoff, CV 08-1000-GW (Shx) (C.D. Cal. 2008) (mass action challenge to government policy refusing to allow workers arrested in immigration raid to consult with counsel) (settlement eliminated the policy with respect to the workers); Arroyo v. United States Dep't of Homeland Sec., SA-CV-19815-JGB-SHKX, 2020 WL 1228665 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 2, 2020) (challenge to the transfer of detained immigrants). He was co-lead counsel in the first case establishing a system for identifying detained individuals with serious mental disorders in removal proceedings and ensuring them counsel if they could not represent themselves. See Franco-Gonzales v. Holder, 767 F.Supp. 2d 1034 (C.D. Cal. 2010).

35. Mr. Arulanantham has also litigated a number of other cases raising questions concerning the statutory and constitutional rights of non-citizens. See Perez Cruz v. Barr, 926 F.3d 1128 (9th Cir. 2019) (ordering suppression of evidence illegally obtained during worksite raid); Diouf v. Chertoff, CV 07-3977-TJH (Ctx) (C.D. Cal. 2007) (successful class action challenge to government's policy of forcibly drugging non-citizens prior to removal); J.E.F.M. v. Lynch, 837 F.3d 1026 (9th Cir. 2016) (dismissing for lack of jurisdiction class action seeking appointed counsel for children); C.J.L.G. v. Sessions, 880 F.3d 1122 (9th Cir. 2018) (en banc) (reversing removal order of unrepresented child for failure to advise of relief eligibility); Cerezo v. Mukasey, 512 F.3d 1163 (9th Cir. 2008) (holding that traffic-related offense did not constitute a crime involving moral turpitude).

36. In addition to serving as counsel in these and many other cases, Mr.

1 Arulanantham has also served as a resource for other non-profit and pro bono
2 attorneys litigating cases involving immigration detention and the right to counsel
3 throughout the Ninth Circuit, and in other parts of the country as well, since 4 approximately 2010. He has provided advice and editorial assistance to dozens of 5 attorneys during this time, and shared briefing in these and other cases on many 6 occasions.

7 37. Mr. Arulanantham was named California Lawyer of the Year in 2007 in the 8 area of Immigration Law for his work in the Nadarajah case, and again in 2014 for 9 his work in Rodriguez. He has been repeatedly named by the Daily Journal as one 10 of the Top 100 most influential lawyers in California for his work in the 11 immigrants' rights area. In 2010, he received both the Daniel Levy Award for 12 Outstanding Achievement in Immigration Law from the National Immigration
13 Project of the National Lawyers' Guild, and also the Arthur C. Helton Human 14 Rights Award by the American Immigration Lawyers' Association. In 2014, he 15 and other members of the Franco litigation team were awarded the American 16 Immigration Lawyers' Association Jack Wasserman Memorial Award for 17 Excellence in Litigation in the Field of Immigration Law for their work on this 18 case.

19 38. In 2016, Mr. Arulanantham received a MacArthur Fellowship for his 20 litigation and advocacy in the immigrants' rights field.

21 39. Through all of the experience described above, Mr. Arulanantham has come 22 to have distinctive knowledge and specialized skills in immigrants' rights litigation
23 in the federal courts. The Ninth Circuit held that he was entitled to market rates
24 under EAJA for work done on issues involving the constitutional rights of detained 25 immigrants in Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 912-13 (9th Cir. 2009). The 26 Honorable Terry Hatter of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of 27 California similarly held that Mr. Arulanantham was entitled to market rates for 28 work done on a case involving the constitutional and statutory rights of a detained

1 immigrant in Martinez v. Gonzales, CV 06-07609 TH (C.D. Cal.). Recently, the 2 Ninth Circuit awarded Mr. Arulanantham market rates a case involving 3 immigration and mental health law. See Gomez-Sanchez v. Barr, No. 14-72506, 4 Dkt. 88 (9th Cir. July 11, 2019).

5 40. Plaintiffs are also seeking compensation in this matter for time spent by 6 senior paralegal Geneva Tien, paralegal Sandra Kang, and legal assistant 7 Jacqueline Delgadillo. Ms. Tien joined ACLU SoCal in 2007 and has 8 approximately 16 years of experience as a paralegal. Ms. Kang joined ACLU
9 SoCal in 2017, and had one year's prior experience as a paralegal. Ms. Kang
10 departed the ACLU in 2019 to enroll at Stanford Law School. Ms. Delgadillo 11 joined ACLU So Cal in 2018 as a legal assistant and was promoted to paralegal in

13 Timekeeping Protocols

14 41. It is the practice of the attorneys and other legal staff at ACLU SoCal to 15 keep track of their time with a contemporaneous timekeeping software. Over the 16 course of this litigation, all attorneys and other legal staff used a computer billing
17 program that maintains contemporaneous time records of all worked performed. It
18 is the policy and regular practice of ACLU SoCal for a paralegal or advocacy 19 assistant to download the billing statement that, among other things, provides the 20 hours expended on the matter, the billing rate for the person who worked those 21 hours, a total "lodestar" for each person who billed time, and a cumulative lodestar 22 for the office as a whole.

23 42. Once the billing statement has been generated, it is the regular practice of 24 ACLU SoCal senior attorneys on the case to review the entries. The senior 25 attorneys will note any duplicate, improperly assigned, or otherwise unreasonable 26 entries and work with the paralegal or advocacy assistant to delete or mark the 27 entries as "Do Not Bill" or reduce the number of hours spent as an exercise of 28 billing judgment.

Plaintiffs' Attorneys' Fees Request Reflects a Substantially Reduced Lodestar

43. Plaintiffs request an award of $1,600,000 in attorneys' fees and up to $148,975.72 in costs. The total fees incurred by all timekeepers across the three organizations that served as co-counsel in this case is $1,980,118.43, based upon the hours expended, multiplied by the reasonable hourly rates of counsel and taking into account a significant exercise of billing judgment. In addition, Plaintiffs' counsel incurred a total of $148,975.72 in costs. The agreed-upon attorneys' fee award of $1,600,000 reflects a substantial 19 percent reduction from the reduced lodestar amount, exclusive of costs.

44. Attached to this declaration as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the detailed billing records, up to December 2019, for attorneys, paralegals, and other litigation staff for whom we are seeking compensation in this case, and whose hourly time we have included in our lodestar calculation. As explained more fully below, Plaintiffs provided Defendants with the attached billing records to facilitate the parties' negotiations over fees.

45. The tables below reflect each person that has billed time across the three organizations, their position, hours worked through December 2019, and the billing rates for each individual. As explained further below, Plaintiffs seek enhanced rates for counsel from the ACLU of Southern California and the ACLU Immigrants' Rights Project with specialized knowledge and expertise related to this litigation, with the exception of travel time (which is billed at the EAJA statutory rate). All other billers seek compensation at the EAJA statutory rate.

46. The maximum EAJA statutory rates for the years at issue are: $190.28 (2015); $192.68 (2016); $196.79 (2017); $201.60 (2018); $205.25 (2019). See <https://www.ca9.uscourts.gov/attorneys/statutory-maximum-rates/>.

47. The attached records and table above conservatively reflect the hours expended by Plaintiffs' counsel and their staff on this litigation. More specifically, they reflect Plaintiffs' exercise of billing judgment, where my co-counsel and I reviewed the time entries and removed or reduced items, some of which we identified as non-compensable and many of which were legally compensable that could have been included in an attorneys' fees motion.

48. Additionally, during settlement negotiations, Plaintiffs' counsel provided Defendants these searchable files of the billing records in March 2020, allowing Defendants to scrutinize Plaintiffs' billing in detail and raise any objections to either billing practices or specific entries. The parties engaged in several rounds of negotiations over fees, which included conferring over Defendants' objections to several categories of billing records and numerous individual billing records. In attempt to reach agreement, Plaintiffs agreed to eliminate several categories of billing records and individual billing entries identified by Defendants. After several months of negotiations, the parties arrived at the final settlement amount.

1 49. Based on my knowledge of the case and in the exercise of discrete billing
2 judgment, Plaintiffs' eliminated the specific charges as follows: We attempted to 3 exclude hours spent onboarding new attorneys, factual or legal research related to 4 claims not ultimately litigated, time on some projects where we determined that it
5 was appropriate to reduce the total compensation sought for time spent on that 6 particular task, and research time by those employed as summer associates. We 7 also discounted time expended on projects where we determined that a reduction in 8 the expended time was appropriate for those particular tasks, such as drafting 9 pleadings and related motions. We also eliminated billing entries for discovery 10 motions on which Defendants prevailed, as well as the second depositions of the 11 Named Plaintiffs that the Court ordered. In attempt to reach an agreement, we also 12 discounted the lodestar for attorneys from Skadden by five percent.

13 50. Plaintiffs' lodestar also does not include hours billed after December 2019, 14 and thus does not reflect the significant hours spent negotiating, finalizing, and 15 executing the parties' Settlement Agreement or drafting pleadings including the 16 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement or Motion for Award of Attorneys'
17 Fees and Costs. Additionally, I anticipate we will engage in substantial post-
18 settlement work assisting members of the Plaintiff class with the new procedures.

19 ACLU SoCal Attorneys Rates are Reasonable

20 51. Plaintiffs seek compensation for Mr. Arulanantham and myself at enhanced 21 rates because we have specialized knowledge and expertise that was necessary to 22 litigate this case.

23 52. ACLU SoCal sets rates for attorneys each year by evaluating market rates
24 for attorneys with comparable skill and experience working on similar complex 25 federal and civil rights litigation, using a variety of sources, according to the rate 26 calculation methods of Ms. Carol Sobel (and in direct consultation with Ms.
27 Sobel), whose methods have been recognized as appropriate in many court
28 decisions. See, e.g., Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 912–13 (9th Cir. 2009)

1 (awarding market rate fees to ACLU SoCal attorneys in reliance on Ms. Sobel's
2 methods). Ms. Sobel has conducted extensive analysis of the fees charged by and 3 awarded to attorneys in the Southern California region in a variety of civil rights
4 and other contexts, as set forth in her declaration. Our rates are very reasonable in 5 light of her analysis. Indeed, the rates we have set are, in general, lower than those 6 charged by many commercial attorneys, even though most if not all of our 7 attorneys are undoubtedly qualified to work at the offices of such attorneys, and 8 many have prior to or after working at ACLU SoCal. A declaration from Ms. Sobel
9 in another case describing her method of rate calculation for ACLU SoCal is 10 attached hereto as Exhibit B. As part of this calculation, we raise rates for attorneys 11 in two ways each year: to reflect each attorneys' increased experience from an 12 additional year of practice, and to adjust for increases in market rates for attorneys 13 of a particular experience level.

14 53. The rates we seek here are also informed by prior court decisions awarding 15 fees in which Mr. Arulanantham and I served as counsel. For example, in Arroyo v.
16 United States Dep't of Homeland Sec., 2020 WL 1228665, this Court awarded 17 ACLU SoCal attorneys rates in civil rights action regarding the transfer of 18 immigration detainees as follows: $810 per hour for Ahilan Arulanantham, a 1999
19 law school graduate; $630 per hour for Sameer Ahmed, a 2009 graduate; and $480
20 per hour for Eva Bitran, a 2014 graduate. See Exhibits C (court order); B
21 (declaration of Carol Sobel setting forth rates); D (declaration of Professor Jayashri 22 Srikantiah). The Court also awarded fees to Melissa Rios, an ACLU paralegal with 23 twelve years of experience, at $200 for 2019, which is approximately $5 less than 24 the EAJA statutory rate. See Exhibit E (application).

25 54. In Castillo v. Nielsen, 2018 WL 6131172, another court in this district
26 awarded the same attorneys in Arroyo the identical rates for 2019, as well as rates 27 for 2018 work that reflected increases of $25-$30 per hour increases from 2018 to 28 2019. See Exhibit F (order). That court awarded enhanced rates to Mr.

1 Arulanantham ($785 for 2018; $810 for 2019), myself ($620 for 2018; $645 for 2 2019), and Ms. Bitran ($450 for 2018; $480 for 2019).

3 55. In Garcia v. Johnson, a class action challenging unlawful delays in the 4 asylum process for detained immigrants, the Northern District of California found
5 rates for the ACLU of Southern California were fair and reasonable in granting an 6 award of attorneys' fees of $3,237,249.00 in 2015. See Garcia v. Johnson, No.
7 4:14-CV-01775-YGR, 2015 WL 13387594 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 27, 2015); Exhibits G
8 (order); H (application). The order approved enhanced rates for Mr. Arulanantham
9 ($650 for 2013; $690 for 2014; $710 for 2015) and myself ($460 for 2013; $500
10 for 2014; $525 for 2015), and recognized that Ms. Tien's hourly market rate ($200 11 in 2015) exceeded the EAJA statutory rate for that time period. Id.

12 56. The Ninth Circuit has also twice recognized that Mr. Arulanantham was 13 entitled to enhanced rates under EAJA for work done on issues involving the 14 constitutional rights of detained immigrants. In Gomez-Sanchez v. Barr, No. 14-
15 72506, Dkt. 88 (9th Cir. July 11, 2019), the Ninth Circuit awarded Mr.
16 Arulanantham enhanced rates for 2018 ($785), 2017 ($760), 2016 ($735), and 17 2015 ($710). See Exhibit I. In the same order, the Ninth Circuit awarded Bardis
18 Vakili, an ACLU of San Diego attorney and 2006 law school graduate, at enhanced 19 rates for 2018 ($620), 2017 ($590), 2016, ($560), and 2015 ($535). Id. The 20 decision also awarded Ms. Tien at the EAJA statutory rate. Id. at 14. In 2009, the 21 Ninth Circuit had previously recognized that Mr. Arulanantham was entitled to 22 enhanced rates under EAJA due to his specialized knowledge and expertise in a 23 case concerning the constitutional and statutory rights of a detained immigrant. See 24 Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 912-13 (9th Cir. 2009).

25 57. Attached at Exhibit J is the order of this Court in McKibben v. McMahon, 26 No. EDCV 14-2171 JGB (SPx), 2019 WL 1109683, (C.D. Cal. Feb. 28, 2019). In 27 McKibben, based on 2018 rates, the Court approved $715 an hour for Melissa 28 Goodman of ACLU SoCal, a 2003 law school graduate with then-15 years of

1 experience. The court in McKibben also approved $600 per hour for Lindsay
2 Battles, then with 10 years of experience, and $480 for Brendan Hamme, with six 3 years of experience.

4 58. The rates sought for Mr. Arulanantham and myself are consistent with 5 market rates awarded in these prior cases. My rates for 2018 ($620) and 2019
6 ($645) are identical to what the Court awarded in Castillo, and my 2015 ($530)
7 rate is within $5 of the 2015 rate ($525) awarded in Garcia. My 2018 rate ($620)
8 —during which time I had 11 years of experience—is also comparable to the rate
9 awarded to Ms. Battles ($620) in McKibben, who then had 10 years of experience.
10 The $20 increase reflects that I had an additional year of experience and federal 11 court clerkship experience, for which it is the ACLU’s practice (consistent with 12 billing practices at other firms) to bill at a rate equivalent to up to one additional 13 year of experience, for attorneys with fewer than twelve years’ experience. See 14 Exh. B, Sobel Dec. at ¶¶ 25, 29, 31 (describing increased rates due to federal 15 clerkships). My 2018 rate is also identical to rate awarded to Mr. Vakili in Gomez
16 Sanchez. Mr. Vakili has an additional year of experience but lacks any federal 17 court clerkship experience.

18 59. Mr. Arulanantham’s 2015 ($710), 2016 ($735), and 2017 ($760) rates are 19 identical to the rates awarded by the Ninth Circuit in Gomez Sanchez. His 2015
20 rate is also identical to the rate awarded in Garcia. His rates are also consistent 21 with the rates awarded for 2018 ($785) and 2019 ($810) in Arroyo and Castillo.
22 The Arroyo and Castillo awards reflect an increase in Mr. Arulanantham’s billing 23 rate of $25/year, which are conservative yearly increases during this time period.
24 See Sobel Dec., Exh. B. This Court in Arroyo granted similar annual rate increases
25 for ACLU SoCal attorneys in that case.

26 60. The rates sought for ACLU So Cal’s paralegals and legal assistants are also 27 consistent with the awards in other cases. Paralegals and legal assistants are 28 routinely awarded at the statutory maximum rate in EAJA litigation. For example,

1 in Garcia, the court approved an award in which Ms. Tien sought the EAJA
2 statutory maximum in 2015. More recently, the Ninth Circuit in Gomez Sanchez
3 found that “[t]he requested cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum 4 hourly rates for paralegal Tien are in line with prevailing market rates for 5 comparable paralegals.” Exh. I at 14. Another ACLU paralegal, Ms. Rios, was 6 awarded at a rate comparable to the EAJA statutory maximum in Arroyo.

7 61. Based on the yearly reviews conducted by the ACLU SoCal, I am informed 8 and believe that the prevailing market rates for paralegals and legal assistants at the 9 experience level of Ms. Tien, Ms. Kang, and Ms. Delgadillo are in excess of the 10 EAJA statutory maximum rates in 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2018. This is consistent
11 with billing practices at Skadden, which are described in the contemporaneously
12 filed Declaration of Ashley Phillips.

13 62. ACLU SoCal rates are significantly lower than rates charged by commercial 14 law firms, at which most or all of our attorneys would be qualified to work. For 15 example, attached as Exhibits K and L are a declaration and order from a case in 16 this district in 2020 granting attorneys at Gibson Dunn & Crutcher LLP rates in an 17 anti-SLAPP motion of up to $1,350 per hour, including awarding an attorney held 18 out on Gibson Dunn’s website as a 2013 law school graduate a rate of $815 per 19 hour, and a 2004 law school graduate a rate of $915 per hour.

20 63. Based on the above, I believe the agreed-upon attorneys’ fees award of 21 $1,600,000, plus up to $148,975.72 in costs, is reasonable, fair, and appropriate.

22 Parties Have Agreed to a Fair, Reasonable, and Appropriate Award of 23 Costs

24 64. Plaintiffs’ requested award is within the normal range of costs awarded 25 under federal fee shifting statutes.

26 65. The types of costs included in the Parties’ agreed-upon award are ordinary 27 costs under fee shifting statutes, such as travel costs, deposition costs, consultants, 28 filing fees, printing, scans, messenger services, and similar costs normally

1 reimbursed by the client. The billed amount reflects costs incurred by counsel in 2 this matter and do not include any surcharges or additional fees.

3 66. Attached as Exhibit M are cost details for the ACLU of Southern California,
4 the ACLU, and Skadden. Copies of these cost records were provided to Defendants
5 during the parties' settlement negotiations.

6 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States and the 7 State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

8 Executed at Los Angeles, California on March 14, 2022.

EXHIBIT B

DECLARATION OF CAROL A. SOBEL

I, CAROL A. SOBEL, declare:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice in the State of California. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' request for an award of attorneys' fees. The declaration is based on facts of which I have personal knowledge. If I were called to testify as a witness to these facts, I could and would do so competently.

2. I graduated law school and was admitted to practice in 1978. For 20 years, I was employed by the ACLU Foundation of Southern California, including approximately 12 years as its First Amendment attorney. For the last seven years, I served as a Senior Staff Counsel. I left the ACLU to begin a private civil rights practice in April 1997. Attached at Exhibit "1" is my current resumé.

3. My billing rate for 2019 is $1000 an hour. I have not been awarded fees at this rate yet. In most of my cases, the attorney fees are resolved in a settlement process. I applied the 2018 rate of $990 an hour in settling the attorney fees in Mitchell v. City of Los Angeles, CV 16-01750 SJO (GJSx) (C.D. Cal.). In addition, I settled fees in several cases in 2017, applying a rate of $975 an hour to calculate the lodestar. These cases included Schuler v. County of Orange, 8:17-cv-00259 DOC KES (C.D. Cal. 2017). I did not file a motion for fees in 2016. In 2014 and 2015, several courts approved my rate of $875 an hour. In Desertrain v. City of Los Angeles, 754 F.3d 1147 (9th Cir. 2014), the Ninth Circuit granted the motion for fees and referred the matter to the Appellate Commissioner to determine the amount of the award. The parties then settled the trial court and appellate fees together with only an approximately 5 percent reduction of the appellate lodestar. In a second case in 2015, the Circuit panel approved the full award at $875 an hour. See CPR for Skid Row v. City of Los Angeles, 779 F.3d 1098 (9th Cir. 2015).

4. In 2012, I was paid my then full rate of $795 an hour by an insurance carrier in a non-contingency case before the Hon. Dean Pregerson of the Central District of California. Federal Deposit Insurance Company v. Larry B Faigin, 2:12-

1 cv-03448-DDP-CW (C.D. Cal. 2012). In 2010, I was awarded fees at $725 an hour
2 in Long Beach Area Peace Network v. City of Long Beach, 574 F.3d 1011 (9th Cir.
3 2009), a First Amendment case. In 2009, I was awarded fees at $710 an hour in 4 Fitzgerald v. City of Los Angeles, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 34803 (CD Cal. 2009), and 5 in Multi-Immigrant Worker Organizing Network (“MIWON”) v. City of Los Angeles,
6 cv 07-7032 AHM, both police misconduct cases. In 2008, I was awarded fees at $695
7 an hour in Jones v. City of Los Angeles, cv-03-1142 R. See 444 F.3d 1118 (2006),
8 vacatur per settlement, 505 F.3d 1006 (9th Cir. 2007), affirmed on appeal. 2014 U.S.
9 App. LEXIS 1952 (9th Cir. Jan. 31, 2014).

10 5. My practice involves complex civil rights litigation and class actions,
11 focusing primarily on the rights of homeless persons, First Amendment rights and police 12 practices. I received several awards for my legal work over the years. In 2008, I was 13 named a California Lawyer of the Year (CLAY) recipient for civil rights by California 14 Lawyer Magazine and also named in the Top 75 Women Litigators in California by the 15 Daily Journal Corporation. In 2007, I received an Angel Award from California Lawyer
16 Magazine for pro bono work and also was named by the Daily Journal as one of the 17 Top 100 Most Influential Lawyers in California. In 2013 and again in 2017, I was 18 named one of the top women lawyers in Los Angeles. I have been named as a 19 Superlawyer in the area of First Amendment and civil rights litigation for more than a 20 decade. Additional recognition of my legal work is set forth in my attached resumé.

21 6. I have been qualified twice as an expert to testify at trial on issues
22 concerning non-profit legal practice: once before the State Bar and once in Los Angeles
23 Superior Court. Recently, the Second Appellate District noted my qualification as 24 an expert on reasonable market rates for attorney fees. See Jochimsen v. County of 25 Los Angeles, B223518 (2d Dist. June 23, 2011) (unpublished) (approving expert 26 basis for opinion). My declarations and the supporting evidence of reasonable 27 market rates have been repeatedly cited favorably by federal and state courts in 28 awarding fees. For example, in Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 912-914 (9th

1 Cir. 2009), the Ninth Circuit referenced my declaration with approval in support of 2 the application of attorneys from the ACLU for fees under the Equal Access to Justice
3 Act (“EAJA”). In Torrance Unified School District v. Magee, 2008 U.S. Dist.
4 LEXIS 95074 (CD CA 2008), granting fees under the federal IDEA statute, 20
5 U.S.C. §1415(i)(3)(c), the Court cited my declaration as persuasive evidence of 6 market rates. In Atkins v. Miller, CV 01-01574 DDP (CD CA 2007), fees were 7 awarded to a 1975 graduate at $675 an hour, citing to my declaration and that of 8 Barry Litt to support the requested rates. Id. at pp.8-9 and n.4. My declarations were 9 also cited with approval in, among other cases, Orantes-Hernandez v. Holder, 713
10 F.Supp.2d 963-964 (C.D.Cal.2010); Charlebois v. Angels Baseball LP, SACV 10-11 0853 DOC (May 30, 2012); Hiken v. DOD, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 118165 (N.D.
12 Cal. Jan. 14, 2013); Vasquez v. Rackauckas, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 83696 (C.D.
13 Ca. 2011); Rauda v. City of Los Angeles, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 138837 (C.D.
14 Cal. 2010); Dugan v. County of Los Angeles, cv-11-08145 CAS (C.D. Cal.
15 March 3, 2014); Flores v. City of Westminster, SA-CV-11-0278 DOC (C.D. Cal.
16 Oct. 23, 2014); and Webb v. Officer J. Ackerman, 13-cv-01992 PLA (C.D. Cal.
17 January 4, 2018), Doc. 180, p.5.

18 7. In addition, I have litigated statutory fee issues at the appellate level in 19 several cases. I was lead counsel before the California Supreme Court in Tipton-
20 Whittingham v. City of Los Angeles, 34 Cal.4th 604 (2004), the companion case to 21 Graham v. Daimler-Chrysler, 34 Cal.4th 533 (2004), establishing the continued
22 vitality of the “catalyst” fee doctrine in California courts. I was also lead counsel
23 in Jones v. City of Los Angeles, 555 Fed. Appx. 659 (2014), holding entitlement 24 to fees as a “prevailing party” based on the Ninth Circuit’s necessary approval of 25 a settlement conditioned on vacatur of the panel decision.

26 8. I have been asked to submit this declaration to attest to the 27 reasonableness of the fee rates requested by the counsel in this case. I am not being 28 compensated for my time in this matter.

1 9. To prepare my declaration, I communicated with the attorneys at the 2 ACLU by email on several occasions. I reviewed the decision that is the basis of 3 the fee motion. Based on my long time involvement with the ACLU, I am familiar 4 with the three attorneys for whom EAJA fees are sought. I am most familiar with 5 Ahilan Arulanantham and co-counseled a case with him in 2006.

6 10. I am informed that enhanced EAJA rates for 2019 are being sought for 7 the attorneys listed below:

8	Ahilan Arulanantham	1999	$810
9	Sameer Ahmed	2009	$630
10	Eva Bitrán	2014	$480

11 11. It is my opinion that the rates sought are reasonable for these attorneys.
12 I base my opinion on past fee awards for several of these attorneys and other 13 attorneys at the ACLU of Southern California, as well as awards and supporting 14 declarations I reviewed over the course of the past few years, seeking or approving 15 fee awards in the Central District of California legal market, as described more fully 16 below and in the exhibits attached to my declaration.

17 12. I have extensive experience with the methodology applied to set 18 reasonable market rates for public interest and civil rights attorneys who do not 19 have paying clients. When I was at the ACLU, I prepared numerous fee motions
20 under federal and state fee-shifting statutes for cases in which the ACLU
21 represented the prevailing party. I was responsible for preparing these motions 22 in cases in which I was directly involved in the underlying litigation, as well as in 23 cases brought by other staff attorneys and volunteer counsel for the ACLU.

24 13. In this role, I obtained information on market rates through a variety
25 of sources that I continue to use to evaluate reasonable rates each year. I review 26 current billing rates and fees sought by, and awarded to, attorneys at large,
27 commercial law firms to establish rates for individuals of comparable experience
28 at public interest and civil rights firms. The attorneys at large commercial firms

1 handle similarly complex federal litigation and, in many instances, they are also
2 familiar with the skill and experience levels of various non-profit attorneys
3 because they serve as pro bono co-counsel in cases with the public interest bar.

4 14. It is my practice to use rates at large firms to establish market rates
5 for civil rights lawyers based on my understanding that billing rates by lawyers
6 at civil rights firms and public interest organizations at rates even marginally 7 comparable to those of attorneys who do other types of complex litigation is 8 consistent with the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in Blum v. Stenson, 465
9 U.S. 886, 895 (1984) ("The statute and legislative history establish that 'reasonable
10 fees' under [42 U.S.C.] § 1988 are to be calculated according to the prevailing 11 market rates in the relevant community, regardless of whether plaintiff is 12 represented by private or nonprofit counsel").

13 15. To analyze reasonable market rates, I apply several additional 14 principles. First, I look to rates awarded to the same attorneys in previous cases 15 because these are strong evidence of reasonable market rates. See Chaudhry v.
16 City of Los Angeles, 751 F3d 1096, 1111 (9th Cir. 2014); U.S. v. $28,000 in U.S.
17 Currency, 802 F.3d 1100, 1106 (9th Cir. 2015); Camacho v. Bridgeport Fin., Inc., 18 523 F.3d 973, 976 (9th Cir. 2008).

19 16. Next, I look to evidence of billing rates by attorneys engaged in 20 similarly complex business litigation as an approved method of establishing 21 reasonable market rates for civil rights attorneys who do not regularly bill clients
22 on an hourly basis. See Blum, 465 U.S. at 895. This approach recognizes that 23 almost all civil rights cases are taken on a contingency basis.

24 17. Third, I premise my opinion on the rule that the relative "simplicity"
25 or "complexity" of a matter is reflected in the efficiency of the requested hours, not 26 the lodestar rate of the attorney. Van Skike v Director, Office of Workers'
27 Compensation Programs, 557 F3d 1041, 1046 (9th Cir. 2009).
28

1 18. I estimate that I review more than 100 fee motions, fee awards and 2 supporting declarations each year. My practice is to obtain this information from 3 court orders awarding statutory fees or awarding fees as a discovery sanction. In 4 addition, I subscribe to several websites that report legal news. If I read a story
5 where fees were awarded, I research the case to obtain a copy of the fee award and 6 supporting documents.

7 19. In my experience, rates usually increase in two ways each year: first,
8 they rise to bring them in accord with market rates; and, second, step increases
9 apply to rates as attorneys gain more experience. Several courts recognized that 10 annual increases in rates may well be more than any increase in the cost-of-living.
11 For example, in Charlebois v. Angels Baseball, LP, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91069,
12 cv 10-0853 DOC (C.D. Cal. May 30, 2012), the Court rejected the defense 13 argument that the rate sought by plaintiff's counsel should be limited to what was 14 awarded in prior years. "[C]ourts routinely recognize that fee rates increase over 15 time based on a variety of factors." 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91069, *24.

16 20. The Court in Charlebois also cited to Parker v. Vulcan Materials Co.
17 Long Term Disability Plan, No. EDCV 07-1512 ABC (OPx), 2012 WL 843623, *7
18 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2012), approving an increase of approximately 10 percent in 19 one year because "[i]t is common practice for attorneys to periodically increase 20 their rates for various reasons, such as to account for expertise gained over time, or 21 to keep up with the increasing cost of maintaining a practice." This principle was 22 also applied in Armstrong v. Brown, 94-cv-002307 CW (N.D. Cal. Aug. 8, 2011)
23 Dkt. #1919. Responding to the State's argument that the proposed increases in rates 24 from 2008 to 2010 for plaintiffs' attorneys were too great, the Court noted that the 25 5 percent increase in rates each year "reflects only the across-the-board rise in 26 firms' overall rates, not the increase in individual attorney's hourly rates for the

1 additional experience accrued over the two-year period.” Id. at *5.

2 21. I am aware of several past fee awards to Ahilan Arulanantham and 3 Sameer Ahmed, all of which support the reasonableness of the rates now sought.
4 Mr. Arulanantham’s 2018 rate of $785 an hour was approved by the Ninth Circuit
5 just a few months ago in Gomez-Sanchez v. Barr, Case No. 14-72506 (9th Cir.
6 2019) [Dkt: 88 at pp.3, 11-12]. In Franco-Gonzalez v. Holder, Case 2:10-cv-
7 02211-DMG-DTB, Mr. Arulanantham applied the EAJA enhanced rate of $690 an 8 hour for 2015. I filed a declaration in support of the fee motion. [Doc. 838]. Based 9 on discussions with Mr. Arulanantham and review of the docket in the District
10 Court, I understand that the parties settled the fees prior to the Court’s ruling; 11 ohwever, because the case was a class-action, the Court issued an order, reviewing 12 and approving the settlement of the attorney fees.

14 22. The 2019 rate Mr. Arulanantham now seeks is less than three percent
15 above the 2018 rate approved by the Ninth Circuit in Gomez-Sanchez. The $810
16 an hour rate is a slightly more than four percent annual increase on the 2015 rate
17 of $690 an hour for him in Franco-Gonzalez.

18 23. Attached at Exhibit 2 is the order of this Court in McKibben v.
19 McMahon, 2019 WL 1109683, Case No. EDCV 14-2171 JGB (Spx) (C.D. Cal.
20 2019). In McKibben, based on 2018 rates, the Court approved $715 an hour for 21 Melissa Goodman of the ACLU of Southern California. Ex. 2, p. 15. Mr.
22 Arulanantham’s requested rate is $95 an hour higher than Ms. Goodman’s approved 23 2018 rate. With an additional seven years of experience, this averages out to an 24 increase of less than $14 an hour annually, or less than two percent a year.

25 24. The Court in McKibben also approved $600 an hour for Lindsay
26 Battles, then with 10 years of experience. Id. Mr. Ahmed’s requested rate is five 27 percent above the rate approved for Ms. Battles in 2018. Finally, the Court 28

1 approved the 2018 rate of $480 an hour for Brendan Hamme, then with six years
2 of experience. This is the same rate now requested for Ms. Bitrán.

3 25. I am very familiar with Mr. Hamme's skills and experience. He was 4 a law student in a civil rights practicum I teach at Loyola Law School. He also was 5 a summer law clerk in my office. We continue to have considerable professional 6 interaction. While he is a highly skilled lawyer, and although Ms. Bitrán is 7 practicing one year less, applying the same rate as was approved for Mr. Hamme
8 in 2018 recognizes her federal clerkship. I am aware, based on discussions with 9 former law clerks, that it is the practice of many commercial firms to advance
10 individuals on the compensation scale for federal clerkships. As previously stated, 11 base rates increase each year, so I would expect the rate for a six-year associate in 12 2019 would be higher than the rate for someone with the same experience in 2018.

14 26. Attached at Exhibit 3 is the decision of the District Court in 15 International Refugee Assistance Project, et al. v. John F. Kelly, et al., Case No.
16 2:17-cv-1761 JLS-AFMx (C.D. Cal. Jul. 27, 2017), awarding attorney fees at 2017
17 EAJA enhanced rates to Talia Inlender of Public Counsel. I provided a supporting 18 fee declaration. The Court approved $585 an hour. I provided a supporting 19 declaration and, on that basis, am aware that Ms. Inlender is a 2007 law graduate, 20 with 10 years experience in 2017. Applying a modest cost of living increase of 21 three percent to the 2017 rate of $585, the equivalent rate in 2019 would be $622
22 an hour, just slightly below the rate now requested for Mr. Ahmed.

23 27. Attached at Exhibit 4 is the recent decision in Webb v. Officer J.
24 Ackerman, a civil rights case involving police excessive force. Case No. 13-cv-
25 09112-PLA (C.D. Cal. Jan. 4, 2018), Document 180. In Webb, the Court approved
26 the 2017 rate of $650 an hour for Elliot Tiomkin, a 2006 law graduate. I
27 provided a supporting fee declaration for Mr. Tiomkin, as noted in the court's 28

1 opinion at p.5. In my view, Mr. Ahmed is considerably more skilled in complex
2 litigation, even with one year less experience.

3 28. Attached at Exhibit 5 is the Declaration of Anna Rivera in support of 4 the motion for attorney fees in Garcia v. Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department,
5 2:09-cv-08943-DMG-SH (C.D. Cal. 2017) [Doc. 443]. The Court's order approves
6 the fees but does not set out specific rates. Among the attorneys for whom fees
7 were sought in Garcia was Shawna Parks. I know Ms. Parks and have submitted
8 declarations in support of motions in which she was an attorney. I have also 9 consulted with her on disability issues. Based on that experience, I believe her to 10 be a 1999 law graduate, the same year as Mr. Arulanantham. Both have prestigious 11 backgrounds and enjoy reputations as highly skilled and experienced civil rights
12 lawyers in my experience. Ms. Park's 2017 rate was $745 an hour, just $65 below
13 the rate now sought for Mr. Arulanantham for 2019. Ex. 5, ¶66. This represents 14 an increase of slightly more than four percent a year in the base rate.

16 29. In Garcia, the 2017 rate for Andrea Oxman, listed as a 2007 law
17 graduate, was $600 an hour. Ex. 5, ¶¶ 46,47. The 2019 rate for Mr. Ahmed is only 18 five percent higher, which is an annual increase in the base rate for a ten-year 19 attorney of only two and one-half percent, less than the increase in the legal 20 component for the cost of living. Finally, in Garcia, the rate for Elliot Field, 21 identified as an attorney with eight years of experience, was $525 an hour, $45 an 22 hour above the rate now requested for Ms. Bitrán. Id., ¶¶ 48, 49. With a credit of 23 one year of clerkship experience, the differential is $22.50 an hour annually.

24 30. Attached at Exhibit 6 is the 2014 order awarding fees in Rodriguez v.
25 County of Los Angeles, cv-10-6342 CBM (C.D. Cal. 2014). The Court approved
26 a rate of $600 for Kevin LaHue and $500 for Caitlin Weisberg, both at the firm of 27 firm of Kaye, McLane, Bednarski & Litt. I am very familiar with all of the 28

1 attorneys at the firm. Mr. Litt and I have co-counseled several cases over the past
2 25 years. More recently, I worked with Mr. McLane and other attorneys at the 3 firm. In addition, I provided a declaration in support of Plaintiffs' fee motion in 4 Rodriguez. On these bases, I am aware that Mr. LaHue is a 2004 law graduate and 5 Caitlin Weisberg is a 2008 law graduate.

7 31. The 2014 award of $600 an hour to Kevin LaHue, then with 10 years
8 of experience, is $30 less than the 2019 rate requested for Sameer Ahmed, who has 9 the same years of experience now as Kevin LaHue had in 2014. Again, the annual 10 differential is a minimal increase of 2.5 percent a year. The 2014 rate of $500 an 11 hour for Ms. Weisberg, with six years of experience, is slightly above the rate now 12 sought for Ms. Bitrán, with six years of experience including the clerkship bonus.

13 32. Attached at Exhibit 7 is a copy of the order in Wagafe v. Trump, Case 14 2:17-cv-00094-RAJ (W.D. WA 2019) [Doc. 223], awarding attorney fees as 15 sanctions. I provided a supporting fee declaration in the case, including calculating 16 market rates for Seattle based on adjustments to the federal pay scale for Los 17 Angeles and Seattle. Mr. Ahmed was one of the attorneys for whom fees were 18 sought in Wagafe. I reviewed my prior declaration to prepare this one. The EAJA 19 enhanced rates requested for Mr. Ahmed, adjusted for the Seattle legal market, were 20 $600.38 for 2018 and $573.95 for 2017. The Court approved and awarded fees 21 based on the 2017 rate. Ex. 7, p. 12. In the same motion, the Court approved and 22 awarded fees for Jennifer Pasquarella, a 2006 law graduate and attorney at the the 23 ACLU of Southern California, at the 2017 rate of $646.64. Id. The Court
24 expressly relied on the declaration I provided on reasonable rates for attorneys 25 outside of the Seattle market. Ex. 7, p. 11.

27 33. Set out below is a chart that summarizes the comparative rates 28 discussed in the preceding paragraphs. NIt does not include the information in for the two past awards to Mr. Arulanantham of $785 an hour for 2018 and $690 an hour for 2015, identified in paragraphs 21 and 22, The chart lists the exhibit to my declaration, the attorney, the year used for the award, the amount of experience the attorney had at the time and the hourly rate.

Ex.	Attorney	Year	Experience	Rate
2	Melissa Goodman	2018	15	$715
2	Lindsay Battles	2018	10	$600
2	Brendan Hamme	2018	6	$480
3	Talia Inlender	2017	10	$585
4	Elliot Tiomkin	2017	11	$650
5	Shawna Parks	2017	18	$745
5	Andrea Oxman	2017	10	$600
5	Elliot Field	2017	8	$525
6	Kevin LaHue	2014	10	$600
6	Caitlin Weisberg	2014	6	$500
7	Sameer Ahmed	2017	9	$573.95
7	Jennifer Pasquerella	2017	11	$646.64

34. Based on all of the foregoing and the attached exhibits, it is my opinion that the rates sought by Plaintiff's counsel in this motion are reasonable rates of compensation for attorneys of comparable skill, experience and reputation.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Proceedings: Order (1) GRANTING Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees (Dkt. No. 50); and (2) VACATING the January 6, 2020 Hearing (IN CHAMBERS)

Before the Court is a Motion for Attorneys' Fees filed by Plaintiffs Ubaldo Arroyo, Jorge Poroj Sac, Atemnkeng Becky Njualet, Sergio Jonathan Moreno, Elieser David Blea, Santiago Guevara-Melgar, Bashir Abdi Wabare, Tanyi Ferick Awungdeu, Nguanyi Atabong Queenida, Asmerom Zemedet Enabi, Public Law Center, and Public Counsel (collectively, "Plaintiffs").¹ ("Motion," Dkt. No. 50.) The Court finds the Motion appropriate for resolution without a hearing. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 78; L.R. 7-15. After considering the papers filed in support of and in opposition to the Motion, the Court GRANTS the Motion. The Court vacates the hearing set for January 6, 2020.

I. BACKGROUND

On March 27, 2019, the Orange County Sheriff's Department ("OCSD") notified Defendant United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") that it would terminate its contract to house immigrant detainees. (Motion at 2.) Both ICE and OCSD subsequently announced that the affected detainees, including those represented by local counsel, would be moved out of the ICE Los Angeles Field Office's Area of Responsibility ("AOR") to detention facilities in San Francisco, Florida, and other states. (Id. at 2-3.)

¹ Plaintiffs Arroyo, Sac, Njualet, Moreno, Blea, Guevara-Melgar, Wabare, Awungdeu, Queenida, and Enabi will be referred to collectively as "Immigrant Plaintiffs." Public Law Center and Public Counsel will be referred to as "Organization Plaintiffs."

On May 2, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a complaint against the following Defendants: United States Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”), Kevin K. McAleenan, ICE, Ronald D. Vitello, Thomas Giles, Jennifer Herrera, Luke South, and Lisa Von Nordheim (collectively, “Defendants”). (“Complaint,” Dkt. No. 1.) Plaintiffs’ Complaint is a verified petition for writ of habeas corpus and a complaint for injunctive and declaratory relief. (Id.) The Complaint alleges that Defendants’ conduct violates the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment, the First Amendment (on behalf of Immigrant Plaintiffs), the First Amendment (on behalf of Organization Plaintiffs), and the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”).

On May 13, 2019, Plaintiffs moved to certify a class and for a preliminary injunction. (Dkt. Nos. 14, 17.) On June 20, 2019, the Court granted-in-part and denied-in-part those motions and provisionally certified a class of “[a]ll immigrants imprisoned at the James A. Musick Facility and the Theo Lacy Facility and who have attorneys within the ICE Los Angeles Field Office’s Area of Responsibility.” (“Order,” Dkt. No. 46 at 33.) The Court further enjoined Defendants from “transferring immigration detainees currently held at the Theo Lacy and James A. Musick Facilities to facilities outside the ICE Los Angeles Field Office’s Area of Responsibility if those detainees have attorneys within the ICE Los Angeles Field Office’s Area of Responsibility.” (Id.) On July 18, 2019, Federal Defendants filed a declaration stating that there were no immigration detainees housed in either facility maintained by the OCSD. (Dkt. No. 41.) Plaintiffs voluntarily dismissed their complaint on August 5, 2019. (Dkt. No. 44.)

On October 21, 2019, Plaintiffs filed this Motion. (Motion.) In support of the Motion, Plaintiffs filed the Declaration of Ahilan Arulanantham, the Declaration of Carol Sobel, and the Declaration of Jayashri Srikantiah. (“Arulanantham Declaration,” Dkt. No. 50-2, “Sobel Declaration,” Dkt. No. 50-4, “Srikantiah Declaration,” Dkt. No. 50-6.) Defendants Thomas Giles, Jennifer Herrera, Kevin K. McAleenan, United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and Ronald D. Vitiello (collectively, “Federal Defendants”) opposed the Motion on November 25, 2019. (“Opposition,” Dkt. No. 51.) Plaintiffs replied on December 16, 2019. (“Reply,” Dkt. No. 52.) In support of the Reply, Plaintiffs filed a Supplemental Declaration of Ahilan Arulanantham. (“Arulanantham Supplemental Declaration,” Dkt. No. 52-1.)

II. LEGAL STANDARD

The Equal Access to Justice Act (“EAJA”) provides that “a court shall award to a prevailing party . . . fees and other expenses . . . incurred by that party in any civil action . . . including proceedings for judicial review of agency action, brought by or against the United States . . . unless the court finds that the position of the United States was substantially justified or that special circumstances make an award unjust.” 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A). The burden of proving the substantial justification exception to the mandatory award of fees under the EAJA lies with the government. Love v. Reilly, 924 F.2d 1492, 1495 (9th Cir. 1991). The Supreme Court has defined “substantial justification” as:

justified in substance or in the main – that is, justified to a degree that could satisfy a reasonable person. [This standard] is no different from the “reasonable basis in both law and fact” formulation adopted by the Ninth Circuit and the vast majority of other Courts of Appeals that have addressed this issue.

Pierce v. Underwood, 487 U.S. 552, 565 (1988). A position does not have to be correct to be substantially justified; rather, the standard is satisfied if there is a “genuine dispute.” Id. at 565 and 566 n.2; see also Lewis v. Barnhart, 281 F.3d 1081, 1083 (9th Cir. 2002). In determining the reasonableness of the government’s position under the ‘totality of the circumstances’ test, the district court reviews both the underlying governmental action being defended in the litigation and the positions taken by the government in the litigation itself. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(B); Gutierrez v. Barnhart, 274 F.3d 1255, 1259 (9th Cir. 2001).

“The amount of attorneys’ fees awarded under EAJA must be reasonable.” Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 910 (9th Cir. 2009). Attorney’s fees for hours that are not “reasonably expended” or that are “excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary” are not compensable. See Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983); see also I.N.S. v. Jean, 496 U.S. 154, 161 (1990) (holding Hensley applies to EAJA cases). “The most useful starting point for determining the amount of a reasonable fee is the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate.” Hensley, 461 U.S. at 433–34. However, in determining what constitutes a reasonable fee award under the EAJA, “courts should generally defer to the ‘winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend on the case.’” See Costa v. Commissioner of Social Security Administration, 690 F.3d 1132, 1136 (9th Cir. 2012) (quoting Moreno v. City of Sacramento, 534 F.3d 1106, 1112 (9th Cir. 2008)).

III. DISCUSSION

Plaintiffs argue that they are entitled to $144,876.04 in attorneys’ fees and costs because (1) they are the prevailing party², (2) Defendants’ position was not substantially justified, and (3) the hours they expended and the enhanced rates they seek are reasonable considering the complexity of the issues involved. (See Motion; Reply.) Federal Defendants disagree on all three points and argue that an award of attorneys’ fees is inappropriate. (See Opposition.)

A. Prevailing Party

A party is a “prevails” for the purposes of EAJA recovery when it achieves a “material alteration of the legal relationship between the parties” that is “judicially sanctioned.”

² Plaintiffs also argue that because Organization Plaintiffs are nonprofit organizations as described by section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Individual Plaintiffs are individuals, all are eligible to recover attorneys’ fees under EAJA. (Motion at 5.) Defendants do not dispute this point.

Buckhannon Bd. & Care Home, Inc. v. W. Virginia Dep't of Health & Human Res., 532 U.S. 598, 605 (2001). Therefore, when “the plaintiff wins a preliminary injunction and the case is subsequently rendered moot by the defendant’s own actions” the plaintiff may be the prevailing party. See Higher Taste, Inc. v. City of Tacoma, 717 F.3d 712, 717 (9th Cir. 2013).

Federal Defendants argue that Plaintiffs did not prevail because Defendants never intended to do what Court ultimately enjoined them from doing. (Opposition at 1–3.) They assert that “[e]ven before Plaintiffs filed their Complaint, a pre-existing ICE policy directive prohibited Defendants from transferring any detainee with immediate family or attorney of record within the AOR” and “Defendants never intended to deviate from that policy.” (Id. at 1.) But what Defendants intended to do is irrelevant to whether the preliminary injunction altered the legal relationship between the parties. Before the preliminary injunction issued, Defendants were theoretically free to choose their position with respect to the represented detainees—they could (as they claim they were planning to do) choose to keep represented immigrants within the AOR. Alternatively, they could opt to move the represented detainees to detention facilities elsewhere. After the preliminary injunction issued, they no longer had a choice to move the represented detainees out of the AOR. The injunction thereby altered the parties’ legal relationship—even if the outcome was no different than what Defendants intended to do.

Moreover, based upon the arguments Federal Defendants asserted in the preliminary injunction briefing, the Court is skeptical that Defendants never intended to transfer the represented detainees. (See, e.g., “Preliminary Injunction Opposition,” Dkt. No. 24 at 1 (“should any transfers out of the AOR be dictated by the twin realities of Congress’s mandate that certain aliens be detained and the emergent need of loss of facility space in the AOR, those transfers would fully comport with ICE policy, the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), and the Constitution”)). As Plaintiffs point out, “if Defendants had agreed in advance to wind down operations at the Orange County facilities without transferring represented immigrants outside the Los Angeles AOR, then Plaintiffs would not have filed this suit.” (Reply at 3.) Accordingly, the Court concludes that Plaintiffs prevailed for the purposes of EAJA.

B. Substantially Justified Position

Defendants bear the burden to establish their position was substantially justified under the “totality of the circumstances.” See Gutierrez, 274 F.3d at 1259; Meinhold v. U.S. Dep’t of Defense, 123 F.3d 1275, 1277 (9th Cir. 1997). Federal Defendants’ position includes both the underlying action being defended and the arguments advanced during the litigation. See Gutierrez, 274 F.3d at 1259. The underlying act here is Defendant’s decision to move detainees out of the AOR. Throughout the preliminary injunction briefing, Federal Defendants argued they were entitled to move detainees, even when those detainees had attorneys or family members within the AOR. (See, e.g., Preliminary Injunction Opposition at 1.)

Federal Defendants first argue that their position was substantially justified because the Court accepted Defendants’ argument that it lacked jurisdiction to hear the claims of unrepresented detainees. (Opposition at 4.) While this argument does show that some of the litigation positions taken by Defendants were substantially justified, it does not show that the underlying acts, namely the decision to move the detainees, was substantially justified. By de

Next, Federal Defendants argue that because the Court determined Plaintiffs were not likely to succeed on the merits of their APA and First Amendment claims, their position was substantially justified. (Opposition at 4.) Again, this argument fails to show that the “totality of the circumstances” justify Federal Defendants’ position. While the Court did not find a likelihood of success on the APA and First Amendment claims—it did find a likelihood of success for the Due Process and INA claims. (Preliminary Injunction Order at 25.) The APA, First Amendment, INA, and Due Process claims arose from the same underlying act: Defendants’ decision to move detainees out of the AOR. The Court therefore found that the underlying act was likely unlawful. That the underlying act as alleged likely violated only two rights rather than the claimed four does not make it substantially justified.

Finally, Federal Defendants argue that their position that the Court lacked jurisdiction over the claims of represented detainees was substantially justified because it was the result reached in Alvarez. (Opposition at 5–6.) Federal Defendants are correct—their reliance on Alvarez was substantially justified. However, the Alvarez court found only that it lacked over jurisdiction to hear any claims regarding the right to representation in removal proceedings. Alvarez v. Sessions, 338 F. Supp 3d 1042, 1048 (N.D. Cal.). It made no finding about whether the government’s decision to move detained immigrants away from their attorneys violated that right. In fact, the Alvarez Court explicitly noted:

This order should not [be] interpreted as a judicial approval of ICE’s decision to transfer Petitioners. While the court’s application of the law compels it to dismiss this case, the law does not compel it to countenance an agency’s action that is contrary to the norms of this country’s justice system.

Id. at 1050–51. Alvarez, therefore, fails to provide any support for Federal Defendants’ claim that their underlying acts were substantially justified. Quite the contrary—it is further evidence that Defendants’ position contravened clearly established law and norms.

Notably, while the Opposition points to small litigation points on which Federal Defendants prevailed, it fails to explain how Federal Defendants’ underlying acts—most critically, deciding to move represented detainees out of the AOR—were substantially justified. Ninth Circuit precedent is clear: the Due Process Clause guarantees that immigrants have the right to be represented by counsel of their choosing. See Baltazar-Alcazar v. I.N.S., 386 F.3d 940, 944 (9th Cir. 2004) (citing Tawadrus v. Ashcroft, 364 F.3d 1099, 1103 (9th Cir. 2004); Colindres-Aguilar v. INS, 819 F.2d 259, 261 n.1 (9th Cir. 1987) (noting an immigrant’s right to counsel is a statutory right under 8 U.S.C. § 1362 as well as a right protected by the Due Process Clause)). And that right is “fundamental”—immigration officials must respect it “in substance as well as in name.” Orantes-Hernandez v. Thornburgh, 919 F.2d 549, 554 (9th Cir. 1990) (quoting Baires v. INS, 856 F.2d 89, 91 n.2 (9th Cir. 1988)).

Moving detainees far from their retained counsel violates immigrant detainees' right to counsel. See Orantes, 919 F.3d at 564 (affirming injunction restricting transfers because they "interfere[d] with established attorney-client relationships"). As the Court found in the Preliminary Injunction Order, the Immigrant Plaintiffs' counsel lacked the resources to represent them if they were moved out of the AOR and Immigrant Plaintiffs lacked the resources to find new counsel. (Preliminary Injunction Order at 23.) Moreover, frequent confidential in-person visits are necessary to maintain a robust attorney-client relationship in the immigration context. (Id.) Accordingly, the Court concludes that because moving detainees far from their counsel so clearly violates their Due Process right to counsel, Defendants' underlying acts were not substantially justified.

C. Reasonable Attorneys' Fees

Plaintiffs seek $144,876.04 in attorneys' fees and costs.³ (Reply at 12.) Federal Defendants argue that these numbers should be reduced (1) to reflect Plaintiffs' partial success, (2) to eliminate redundancies, and (3) to match the statutory rate rather than the enhanced rate Plaintiffs seek. (Opposition at 7-12.) None of these arguments warrant a reduction in attorneys' fees and costs.

First, Plaintiffs' counsel obtained a successful result for both represented and non-represented detainees. While the Court only enjoined the transfer of the represented detainees, Plaintiffs' counsel negotiated with Defendants to reach an agreement that Defendants would not transfer any immigrant detainees outside of the AOR. (Motion at 4.) Had Defendants declined this agreement, Plaintiffs' counsel was prepared to amend their complaint and file a discovery motion. (Reply at 8.) Federal Defendants assert that they were not planning to transfer any detainees out of the AOR, so Plaintiffs' counsel's negotiations did nothing to change the status quo. (Opposition at 2-3.) Plaintiffs however, have submitted evidence showing that Defense counsel urged Plaintiffs' counsel to delay filing the discovery motion to give Defense counsel time to obtain approval from the "East Coast" for the proposed agreement. (Reply at 9; Arulanantham Supplemental Declaration ¶ 5, Exhibit A.) This email demonstrates that it was the negotiations with Plaintiffs' counsel and the threat of continued litigation that prompted the agreement—not Defendants' alleged previous intent.

Second, Plaintiffs' hours calculation does not include any redundancies. Defendants point to one hearing and five calls where two attorneys were present and argue that "these redundant hours should be deducted." (Opposition at 9-10.) This argument is frivolous, insincere, and a waste of the Court's time. Per Ninth Circuit precedent that Federal Defendants

³ The Motion requests $137,031.87. (Motion at 16.) In response to Federal Defendants' argument that the fees calculation includes less than four hours of clerical work billed by a paralegal, Plaintiffs removed those hours and reduced the remainder of that paralegal's hours by 10%. (Reply at 10.) Plaintiffs also added the time spent drafting the Reply. (Id. at 12.)

themselves cite, two attorneys present for an important call or hearing is not redundant. Probe v. State Teachers' Ret. Sys., 780 F.2d 776, 785 (9th Cir. 1986) ("In an important class action litigation [], the participation of more than one attorney does not constitute an unnecessary duplication of effort.")⁴ Moreover, Defendants had three attorneys present at the hearing and on almost every call. (Supplemental Arulanantham Decl. ¶ 7.) Unless Defense counsel agrees it wasted taxpayer resources at the hearings and on the calls, it should not level accusations of redundancies at Plaintiffs' counsel.

Third, Plaintiffs' counsel's competent representation warrants the enhanced rate they seek. Plaintiffs have submitted the declarations of two non-parties, Professor Jayashri Srikantiah and Attorney Carol Sobel, which state that the rates Plaintiffs seek are reasonable for the work that was done no attorney would be available to do the work at the EAJA statutory rate. (See Srikantiah Declaration; Sobel Declaration.) Plaintiffs' counsel each have experience litigating complex cases involving the constitutional rights of immigrant detainees. (Arulanantham Declaration ¶¶ 7-27.) All three, therefore, have distinctive knowledge and specialized skill in this complex area of the law. The Ninth Circuit has specifically recognized that Mr. Arulanantham's knowledge and skill warrant enhanced rates under the EAJA for his work litigating the constitutional rights of detained immigrants. See e.g., Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 914 (9th Cir. 2009).

This case required Plaintiff's counsel's specialized knowledge and expertise. It involved unique issues of statutory jurisdiction. When Plaintiffs' counsel received notification about the pending transfers, they immediately identified the threat to their clients' constitutional rights and quickly moved to obtain emergency relief. (Motion at 2-3.) It is not likely that lawyers without Plaintiffs' counsel's specialized knowledge would have been able to obtain similar results. (See also Srikantiah Declaration ¶¶ 10-12.) Accordingly, the Court finds the number of hours worked on this case by Plaintiff's counsel was reasonable and the rates Plaintiffs seek are warranted.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons above, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion. Plaintiffs' counsel are awarded $144,876.04 in attorneys' fees and costs. The January 6, 2019 hearing is VACATED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ Defense counsel cites Probe to support their argument that the Court should reduce Plaintiffs' fee award because two attorneys attended a hearing and five calls. Probe holds the opposite—that multiple attorneys are not redundant in important cases. See Probe, 780 F.2d 776, 785 (9th Cir. 1986).

Attorneys for Plaintiffs-Petitioners

DECLARATION OF JAYASHRI SRIKANTIAH IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES

I, Jayashri Srikantiah, hereby declare:

1. I make this declaration based on my personal knowledge. If called to testify, I could and would do so competently as follows.

2. I am an attorney licensed to practice by the State of California. I am admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court; the United States Courts of Appeals for the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Circuits; and the United States District Courts for the Northern, Eastern, Central, and Southern Districts of California.

3. I am the founding Director of the Immigrants' Rights Clinic at Stanford Law School, where I am also a Professor of Law. My business address is Mills Legal Clinic, Stanford Law School, 559 Nathan Abbott Way, Stanford, CA 94305-8610. I practice throughout the state of California.

4. I received my Juris Doctorate from the New York University School of Law in 1996 and have been practicing law for over 20 years.

5. I am a recipient of the following awards:

- Carol Weiss King Award (National Lawyers Guild) (2017)
- Legal Advocate of the Year, Services Immigrant Rights & Education Network (2017)
- Lawyers of Color, 50 Under 50 list recognizing minority law professors making an impact in legal education (2014)
- California Lawyer Magazine, Attorney of the Year (2014)
- Advocate of the Year Award (awarded to Immigrants' Rights Clinic) (2010)
- South Asian Bar Association Community Impact Award (2010)
- New California Media Exceptional Communicator Award (2004)

- Top 40 Asian-American Lawyers Under 40 National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (2004)
- Asian Law Alliance Community Impact Award (2002)
- South Asian Bar Association and Minority Bar Coalition Award for Outstanding Service to the Legal Community (2000)

6. I am a member of the Board of Directors of the National Immigration Project for the National Lawyers Guild. I am a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association.

7. I specialize in immigration-related litigation before the federal courts and the immigration agencies. I have appeared as counsel in numerous immigration cases in the federal courts, most recently including: Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct. 830 (2018); Esquivel-Quintana v. Sessions, 137 S. Ct. 1562 (2017); Solorio-Ruiz v. Sessions, 881 F.3d 733 (9th Cir. 2018); Marinelarena v. Sessions, 869 F.3d 780 (9th Cir. 2019) (en banc); Torres v. U.S. Dep't of Homeland Sec., No. 5:18-cv-02604-JGB-SHK (C.D. Cal.). I typically maintain a docket of scores of cases before the San Francisco Immigration Court, the Board of Immigration Appeals, and the federal district and appellate courts.

8. I am familiar with Rodriguez Castillo v. Nielsen, 5:18-cv-01317, and the pleadings related to the Court's June 21, 2018, Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause. The Court's decision—as well as the relief that Plaintiffs secured through subsequent settlement negotiations—established important protections for immigrants detained at Victorville Prison, including access to counsel and “know your rights” trainings. I do not believe that this case would have been successful without the particular knowledge and specialized skill that Mr. Arulanantham, Mr. Kaufman, and Ms. Bitran brought to this litigation.

9. As the pleadings related to the Court's order reveal, the case involved several complex jurisdictional questions and constitutional issues involving the

1 rights of detained immigrants. Far from a straightforward application of the rules
2 of immigration law, this case required counsel to navigate complex limitations on 3 the federal courts' jurisdiction and advance novel arguments to protect incarcerated
4 immigrants. Unfortunately, there is no private bar for such matters. Unlike, for 5 example, the employment discrimination bar, there simply are no private attorneys 6 who consistently represent detained immigrants in cases that raise the types of 7 esoteric jurisdictional and constitutional questions that arose here, presumably 8 because there is insufficient available compensation for such work. I know of no 9 one with expertise in the specialized subject matter needed to litigate this case who 10 would have been available to do so at the statutory EAJA rate of $200.78 per hour.

11 10. This case also involved a detailed factual record concerning the 12 conditions at Victorville Prison, including approximately a dozen declarations that 13 Plaintiffs gathered from legal service providers and private immigration attorneys.
14 Because most detained immigrants are indigent, they typically cannot obtain 15 private counsel to bring litigation involving such detailed factual development.
16 That is true even where there is a pre-existing bar capable of doing such litigation
17 (as with individual removal defense litigation). However, as noted above, there is 18 no such bar for bringing litigation involving complex jurisdictional and 19 constitutional issues concerning the rights of detained immigrants. Moreover,
20 developing the factual record here was particularly challenging because Victorville
21 Prison is a remote facility and Defendants severely limited detainees' access to the 22 outside world.

23 11. Winning an extended temporary restraining order to protect 24 immigrants in detention and legal service providers requires multiple complex 25 skills, including federal litigation experience, an understanding of the intricate 26 jurisdiction-channeling provisions of the federal statutes pertaining to federal 27 jurisdiction in immigration cases, detention conditions expertise, and immigration 28

1 law expertise. The ACLU of Southern California attorneys who litigated this case
2 possess all of these attributes.

3 12. I am well qualified to comment upon the quality of Mr.
4 Arulanantham's, Mr. Kaufman's, and Ms. Bitran's work, having worked with Mr.
5 Arulanantham and other attorneys at the ACLU of Southern California since 6 approximately 2005. I have co-counseled with Mr. Arulanantham on a number of 7 cases, including Jennings v. Rodriguez, supra, and at least five other cases
8 involving detained immigrants. I have also co-counseled with Mr. Kaufman on 9 several matters, including Jennings v. Rodriguez, supra, and Torres v. U.S. Dep't
10 of Homeland Security, No. 5:18-cv-02604-JGB-SHK (C.D. Cal. filed Dec. 2018), 11 and previously supervised Mr. Kaufman as a law student enrolled in the 12 Immigrants' Rights Clinic at Stanford Law School. And Ms. Bitran is currently my 13 co-counsel in Torres v. U.S. Dep't of Homeland Security, supra, presently before 14 this Court. I have also learned about the work of Plaintiffs' counsel through 15 attendance at national litigation strategy meetings, my awareness of their many 16 speaking engagements, on advocacy projects, and discussions over the years about 17 our various cases. All three attorneys, and the ACLU of Southern California in 18 general, have a well-earned reputation for skilled work before the federal courts on 19 immigration-related cases.

20 13. In the course of my professional obligations, I stay abreast of 21 immigration-related decisions issued by the federal district courts in California as 22 well as the Ninth Circuit. Only a handful of litigators possess the expertise 23 necessary to successfully litigate this case, even if compensated at the market rate.
24 Perhaps the best evidence for that fact comes from the relevant body of caselaw at 25 issue here. Many of the same attorneys have been involved in most of the relevant 26 cases.

14. I understand that Plaintiffs' attorneys are seeking enhanced EAJA fees for their work in 2018 at the rate of $785/hr for Mr. Arulanantham, $620/hr for Mr. Kaufman, and $450/hr for Ms. Bitran. I am generally familiar with the billing rates for attorneys in Northern and Southern California. In my opinion, Plaintiffs' requested rates are well within the range of reasonable rates for attorneys of their skill, experience, and reputation.

I declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the State of California and the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 21 day of November, 2019 in Stanford, California.

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs, eleven immigrants imprisoned under color of immigration law in two Orange County jails and two legal services organizations, brought this class action lawsuit to block the imminent transfer of hundreds of detained immigrants out of the Los Angeles region and away from their family and counsel. Dkt. 1 (Complaint). After a hearing, this Court granted in part Plaintiffs' motions for a preliminary injunction and provisional class certification, barring Defendants from transferring represented immigrants incarcerated in the Orange County jails out of the Los Angeles area, but not granting the relief as to unrepresented immigrants with local family members. Dkt. 37 (Order) at 32. However, Defendants subsequently agreed to abide by a pre-litigation agreement with Plaintiffs that unrepresented immigrants with family in the region also would not be transferred away. Dkt. 44 (Notice of Voluntary Dismissal). Both this agreement and the Court's preliminary injunction remained in place as the Orange County jails wound down their contract to hold immigration detainees. Id. After the facilities closed, the parties dismissed this suit as moot. Id. As a result of Plaintiffs' efforts, every member of the original proposed class received the relief requested: either release from confinement or transfer to another facility within the Central District of California, which they had asserted was their right under the Immigration and Nationality Act and the Constitution.

Plaintiffs are entitled to their attorneys' fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), 28 U.S.C. 2412. First, Plaintiffs are the prevailing party: they won a preliminary injunction barring Defendants from transferring a class of incarcerated immigrants outside the Los Angeles region and, through a negotiated agreement with Defendants, protected all original putative class members. Second, Defendants cannot demonstrate that their litigation position was substantially justified. Their opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction ignored the controlling Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit cases on the primary jurisdictional

1 provisions on which they relied, Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct. 830, 840 (2018);
2 Rodriguez v. Marin (Rodriguez V), 909 F.3d 252, 256 (9th Cir. 2018), and their
3 position on the merits was directly contrary to established Ninth Circuit law, 4 Orantes-Hernandez v. Meese, 685 F. Supp. 1488 (C.D. Cal. 1988), aff'd sub nom.
5 Orantes-Hernandez v. Thornburgh, 919 F.2d 549 (9th Cir. 1990).

6 Finally, the fees Plaintiffs seek are reasonable. Plaintiffs devoted considerable 7 time to building the evidentiary record needed for a preliminary injunction. To 8 demonstrate the tangible effects of Defendants' threatened transfers and to show
9 they risked irreparable harm, Plaintiffs filed thirteen declarations with their original
10 motion for a preliminary injunction and two more with their reply. This litigation 11 also required mastery of the complex legal issues arising in cases involving the 12 constitutional rights of detained immigrants, including law at the intersection of 13 constitutional law, immigration law, and federal court jurisdiction. Plaintiffs'
14 counsel's specialized knowledge in these fields was therefore necessary to this 15 action, entitling them to "enhanced rates." 28. U.S.C. 2412(d)(2)(A). "[T]o deter
16 unreasonable agency conduct," Ibrahim v. U.S. Dep't of Homeland Sec., 912 F.3d
17 1147, 1167 (9th Cir. 2019) (en banc), this Court should award Plaintiffs requested 18 fees and costs.

19 BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

20 At the time Plaintiffs filed this lawsuit, Defendant Immigration and Customs 21 Enforcement (ICE) incarcerated under color of the immigration laws approximately 22 545 immigrants in two jails run by the Orange County Sheriff's Department
23 (OCSD). See Dkt. 14-3 (Ahmed Decl.). In a letter dated March 27, 2019 OCSD gave 24 ICE notice of termination of the contract permitting this arrangement. Id. The 25 contract provided that ICE must remove all immigrants from the OC jails within 120
26 days of termination. Id. Though termination itself did not require that ICE transfer 27 immigrants detained in Orange County out of the region, both OCSD and ICE made 28 clear that this was their intention. An OCSD spokesperson stated: "those individuals

1 housed on behalf of ICE [in the Orange County Jails] will most likely be transferred 2 outside of California, separating them from family members who reside within this 3 state.” Id. An ICE spokeswoman confirmed that “instead of being housed close to 4 family members or local attorneys, ICE will have to depend on its national system of 5 detention bed space to place those detainees in locations farther away, reducing the 6 opportunities for in-person family visitation and attorney coordination.” Id.

7 The day after ICE issued that statement, Plaintiffs wrote to ICE expressing 8 concern that such transfers would be unlawful, and shortly afterward communicated 9 to ICE their intent to file this lawsuit unless Defendants agreed to release all 10 immigrants with family or attorneys in the region or to transfer them to a facility
11 inside the Central District of California. Id. Because Defendants did not provide this 12 guarantee, Plaintiffs filed suit on May 2, 2019. Id. Plaintiffs’ Complaint, filed on 13 behalf of two nonprofit legal services organizations and eleven detained immigrants,
14 alleged an imminent threat of violations of immigrants’ rights under the Immigration
15 and Nationality Act (INA), the Due Process Clause, and the First Amendment.
16 Dkt. 1. It also alleged threatened violations of the organizations’ First Amendment 17 rights. Id. On May 9, following negotiations, Defendants agreed that, subject to 18 limited exceptions, Defendant would not transfer any immigrant imprisoned in the 19 OC jails outside of the ICE Los Angeles Field Office’s Area of Responsibility
20 (AOR) until June 10, so as to avoid the need for TRO litigation. The parties’
21 agreement allowed this Court time to hear Plaintiff’s motions for provisional class
22 certification and a preliminary injunction. Id.

23 The Court held a hearing on June 10, Dkt. 29 (Minutes of Hearing), after 24 which Defendants agreed to extend their pre-litigation agreement not to transfer 25 certain immigrants for fourteen further days, until June 24, to permit time for a 26 decision. Dkt. 28 (Notice). On June 20, the Court issued an order granting in part 27 and denying in part Plaintiffs’ motions for provisional class certification and a 28 preliminary injunction. Dkt. 37 (Order). The Court enjoined Defendants from

1 transferring out of the Los Angeles AOR a subclass of immigrants with local
2 counsel. Id. at 32-33. Although the Court found it lacked jurisdiction to entertain
3 Plaintiffs' claims with respect to the subclass comprising unrepresented immigrants,
4 id. 18-22, it suggested that some members of that subclass might be able to bring
5 claims that did fall within the Court's jurisdiction. See id. at 21 (acknowledging
6 "some named plaintiffs, and likely many immigrants detained [in the OC jails], face 7 proceedings that are not included within this jurisdictional bar," and listing as 8 examples immigrants with final orders of removal, upcoming bond hearings, and 9 pending habeas actions). The Court suggested it would be amenable to amendments 10 adding claims or sub-classes as well as to "granting limited discovery in order to 11 facilitate such an amendment and a second motion for a preliminary injunction."
12 Id. at 21-22.

13 After the Court's decision, Plaintiffs contacted Defendants to ask, first, 14 whether Defendants would keep in place their pre-litigation agreement barring 15 transfers of immigrants with immediate family in the region and, second, whether 16 the parties might reach a negotiated resolution to this suit in lieu of further litigation, 17 including discovery and amendments to the complaint. In the meantime, Plaintiffs 18 drafted a motion for expedited discovery, seeking evidence that would facilitate the 19 amendments the Court suggested. After further negotiations, Defendants assured 20 Plaintiffs that they would continue to abide by their original agreement barring 21 transfers outside the Los Angeles AOR as operations at the OC jails wound down.
22 Arulanantham Decl. ¶ 6. Finally, on July 18, Defendants lodged a declaration with 23 the Court stating that, as of that date, there were no more immigration detainees at 24 the OC jails and "[n]o immigration detainees will be placed in the [OC jails] for the 25 duration of the contract." Dkt. 41-1 (Notice of Lodging of Declaration) ¶¶ 7-8.
26 Plaintiffs then filed their notice of voluntary dismissal. Dkt. 44.

27 ARGUMENT

28 Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs under the Equal

1 Access to Justice Act. “The clearly stated objective of the EAJA is to eliminate
2 financial disincentives for those who would defend against unjustified
3 governmental action and thereby to deter the unreasonable exercise of Government
4 authority.” Ardestani v. I.N.S., 502 U.S. 129, 138 (1991); see also I.N.S v. Jean, 496
5 U.S. 154, 163 (1990) (“[T]he specific purpose of the EAJA is to eliminate for the 6 average person the financial disincentive to challenge unreasonable governmental 7 actions.”). Congress specifically intended the EAJA to deter unreasonable agency
8 conduct. Jean, 496 U.S. at 163 n.11 (quoting the statement of purpose for the 9 EAJA, Pub. L. No. 96-481, §§ 201-08, 94 Stat. 2321, 2325-30 (1980)).

10 To qualify for an EAJA award, a party must establish that it is eligible and a 11 prevailing party. 28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(1)(B). The burden then shifts to the 12 government, which may avoid fees only if it can show its litigation position was 13 substantially justified. See Scarborough v. Principi, 541 U.S. 401, 404 (2004); 28
14 U.S.C. 2412(d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(D). Because Plaintiffs are eligible under EAJA and 15 qualify as a prevailing party in this lawsuit, and because Defendants cannot justify 16 their litigation position, the Court should award Plaintiffs their reasonable 17 attorneys’ fees and costs.

18 I. Plaintiffs Are Eligible and Prevailing Parties

19 The Plaintiff organizations are eligible parties because they are nonprofit
20 organizations as described under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
21 See generally 28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(2)(B) (defining “party”); Dkt. 14-10 ¶ 2 (Glicker
22 Decl.) (describing Public Law Center as a nonprofit); Dkt. 14-14 ¶ 8 (Inlender Decl.)
23 (same re: Public Counsel). The individual Plaintiffs are also eligible parties. See, 24 e.g., Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906 (9th Cir. 2009) (awarding EAJA fees on 25 behalf of incarcerated immigrant).

26 Plaintiffs are prevailing parties because they achieved a “material alteration of 27 the legal relationship of the parties” that was “judicially sanctioned.” Buckhannon
28 Bd. & Care Home, Inc. v. W. Va Dep’t of Health & Human Res., 532 U.S. 598, 604

(2001) (internal quotation marks omitted). It is well established that a plaintiff can qualify as a prevailing party when “the plaintiff wins a preliminary injunction and the case is subsequently rendered moot by the defendant’s own actions.” Higher Taste, Inc. v. City of Tacoma, 717 F.3d 712, 717 (9th Cir. 2013).

In this case, the Court issued a preliminary injunction because it found that represented immigrant Plaintiffs “established a likelihood of success on the merits of, or at least a serious question as to, their Due Process and INA claims.” Dkt. 37 at 22; cf. Higher Taste, 717 F.3d at 716 (granting fees “based on a finding that the plaintiff has shown a likelihood of success on the merits”). The Court further granted provisional certification for Plaintiffs’ first sub-class, comprising represented immigrants detained in the Los Angeles AOR. Dkt. 37 at 10-15.¹ Although the Court concluded it lacked jurisdiction over claims by Plaintiffs’ second proposed sub-class (unrepresented immigrants with immediate family in the region), it suggested amendments that would cure these jurisdictional defects. Id. at 21-22. Plaintiffs ultimately won protection for this sub-class through a negotiated agreement with Defendants that obviated the need for expedited discovery, amendment, and a second motion for preliminary injunction. Arulanantham Decl. ¶ 6. Finally, following closure of the Orange County facilities, see Dkt. 41, and after all their original putative class members received protection, Plaintiffs voluntarily dismissed this action as moot. Dkt. 44.

Plaintiffs “therefore received relief that was as enduring as a permanent injunction would have been and, by virtue of the case’s mootness, that relief was no longer subject to being ‘reversed, dissolved, or otherwise undone by the final decision in the same case.’” Higher Taste, 717 F.3d at 716 (quoting Sole v. Wyner, 551 U.S. 74, 83 (2007)). They are prevailing parties entitled to EAJA fees.

¹ The Court did not consider whether Plaintiffs’ proposed subclass of detained immigrants with family in the Los Angeles region met the requirements of Rule 23 because it concluded it lacked jurisdiction over their claims. Dkt. 37 at 13.

II. Defendants' Position Was Not Substantially Justified

Defendants' litigating position was not substantially justified because they failed to consider the controlling Supreme Court opinion on jurisdiction and advanced a position on the merits that was foreclosed by clearly established Ninth Circuit law. Where a "a movant under the EAJA has established that it is a prevailing party, 'the burden is on the government to show that its litigation position was substantially justified on the law and the facts.'" Ibrahim, 912 F.3d at 1167 (quoting Cinciarelli v. Reagan, 729 F.2d 801, 806 (D.C. Cir. 1984)); Thomas v. Peterson, 841 F.2d 332, 335 (9th Cir. 1988) ("By providing that courts 'shall' award attorneys' fees to prevailing parties, EAJA creates a presumption that fees will be awarded unless the government's position was substantially justified."). See also H.R. Rep. No. 96-1418, 96th Cong., 2d Sess. 10, 13-14 (1980) ("[T]he strong deterrents to contesting government action require that the burden of proof rest with the government."). To carry this burden, Defendants must show their position had a reasonable basis both in law and in fact. Pierce v. Underwood, 487 U.S. 552, 566 n.20 (1988); Gutierrez v. Barnhart, 274 F.3d 1255, 1258 (9th Cir. 2001). "The test is an inclusive one; we consider whether the government's position 'as a whole' has 'a reasonable basis in both law and fact.'" Ibrahim, 912 F.3d at 1168 (quoting Gutierrez, 274 F.3d at 1258).

First, Defendants all but ignored the Supreme Court's most recent pronouncement on the jurisdictional issues at play in this case. The scope and reach of 8 U.S.C. 1252(a)(5) and (b)(9), the INA's jurisdiction-channeling provisions, were key legal questions in this litigation. In 2018, the Supreme Court issued Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct. 830 (2018), in which seven Justices concluded that a challenge to the procedures governing immigration detention could be raised in district court, notwithstanding Section 1252(b)(9). As this Court rightly noted, "Justice Alito instructed that the starting point for this jurisdictional analysis is to determine whether the legal questions a court must decide 'arise[] from' actions taken

1 to remove an immigrant.” Dkt. 37 at 17 (quoting Jennings, 138 S. Ct at 840). This
2 Court’s opinion issuing a preliminary injunction devoted five pages to this analysis,
3 heavily citing Jennings. Id. at 17-22.

4 But Defendants cited Jennings only once in their brief in opposition, and that 5 citation was in a section not related to Section 1252(b)(9). They never mentioned the 6 Supreme Court’s construction of the statutory provisions that, in their view, were 7 dispositive of Plaintiffs’ claims. See Dkt. 24 (Defs.’ Opp. to Mot. for Prelim.
8 Injunction) at 21. Defendants relied instead on J.E.F.M. v. Lynch, 837 F.3d 1026
9 (9th Cir. 2016), but J.E.F.M. pre-dates Jennings. And, as this Court noted, J.E.F.M.
10 is readily distinguishable: whereas here Plaintiffs include represented immigrants, in 11 that case, “the immigrant minors were unrepresented and seeking appointment of 12 counsel at the government’s expense.” Dkt. 37 at 17 (citing J.E.F.M., 837 F.3d at 13 1029-30).

14 Defendants also argued this Court lacked authority to issue a classwide 15 injunction under Section 1252(f)(1), but they ignored that Class members fit within 16 an exception in the statute for individuals “against whom removal proceedings have 17 been initiated.” The Ninth Circuit had recently read that phrase to cover individuals 18 like class members in Rodriguez v. Marin (Rodriguez V), 909 F.3d at 256, but 19 Defendants ignored that fact, even though they cited Rodriguez V’s discussion of 20 Section 1252(f) on a different point. See Dkt. 25 at 6 n.1 (citing its discussion of 21 declaratory relief). This Court relied on Rodriguez V’s discussion of Section 22 1252(b)(9)’s exception clause, among other authorities, in rejecting Defendants’
23 position. Dkt. 37 at 9.

24 Defendants’ failure to engage with the most recent controlling authority from 25 the Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit discussing key provisions on which they 26 heavily relied was not substantially justified.

27 Second, Defendants’ position on the merits ran directly contrary to established 28 Ninth Circuit case law. Nearly thirty years ago, the Ninth Circuit held that immigrants' right to representation by counsel of their choosing is "fundamental" and "must be respected in substance as well as in name." Dkt. 37 at 22 (quoting Orantes-Hernandez v. Thornburgh, 919 F.2d 549, 554 (9th Cir. 1990)). Even before Orantes, the Ninth Circuit had stated that, to protect the right to counsel, the government must ensure that immigrants are not transferred away from their attorneys, for a transfer that "interfere[s] with existing attorney-client relationships" is a constitutional deprivation. See Comm. of Cent. Am. Refugees v. INS, 795 F.2d 1434, 1440 (9th Cir. 1985), amended, 807 F.2d 769 (9th Cir. 1986). These cases established a set of minimum procedures with which the government must comply if it is to transfer detained immigrants away from their attorneys. Indeed, this Court itself had already issued an injunction—still in effect for Salvadorans—permitting transfer of represented immigrants away from their counsel only provided venue remained where counsel was located and the immigrant was transferred back to the original location with reasonable time to consult with counsel before any proceeding. Orantes-Hernandez v. Meese, 658 F. Supp 1488, 1513 (C.D. Cal. 1988), aff'd Orantes, 919 F.3d at 564.

In this case, however, Defendants' legal position disregarded even the constitutional minimum long established by Orantes. As the Court explained:

At the June 10 hearing, Defendants explained that once an immigrant is transferred outside the AOR, ICE will move to change venue accordingly. This directly contradicts the prohibition in Orantes. See 658 F. Supp 1513. Furthermore, the Court finds that even if ICE does not seek changes in venue, developments in the immigration landscape raise serious questions as to whether Orantes should be expanded to preclude transfers of detention location for represented immigrants.

Dkt. 37 at 24 (citing several of Plaintiffs' declarations). In sum, Defendants' position that their intended transfer of represented Immigrant Plaintiffs outside the Los Angeles AOR complied with the Constitution was foreclosed by Ninth Circuit caselaw and therefore not substantially justified.

1 Third, Defendants asked the Court to adopt a reading of Plaintiffs’ proposed 2 class that ran contrary to common sense. Dkt. 37 at 10. Defendants argued Plaintiffs’
3 proposed class definition—which was written in the present tense, id.—“would 4 include all individuals who are not citizens of the United States, whether or not they
5 have any plans to ever enter the united states, legally or not,” Dkt. 25 (Defs.’ Opp’n
6 to Mot. for Provisional Class Certification) at 7. In the Court’s words, “Common
7 sense quickly disposes of this argument.” Dkt. 37 at 10. Defendants’ proposed 8 reading “ask[ed] the Court to adopt an unnatural and nonsensical interpretation of 9 the proposed class definitions.” Id.

10 Although Defendants made other more reasonable arguments, some of which 11 the Court found persuasive, see Dkt. 37 at 27, Defendants’ position as a whole—that 12 the Constitution and immigration laws permit the government to transfer represented 13 immigrants away from their attorneys, without any requirement that they be 14 returned—was not substantially justified.

15 III. Plaintiffs Seek Reasonable Fees

16 To calculate an award of attorneys’ fees, the Court begins with the “lodestar,” 17 the number of hours reasonably expended multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate.
18 Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 435 (1983). The “resulting product is presumed 19 to be the reasonable fee to which counsel is entitled.” Pa. v. Del. Valley Citizens
20 Counsel for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546, 564 (1986) (internal quotation marks omitted).
21 Here, Plaintiffs have submitted a summary of the hours and rates for which 22 compensation is requested. See Arulanantham Decl. Ex. A (Summary Table). The 23 total award sought is $135,862.33 at this point, although Plaintiffs will seek 24 additional fees associated with the work for drafting a reply.

25 A. Plaintiffs Claim a Reasonable Number of Hours

26 Plaintiffs seek compensation for all hours their attorneys worked on this 27 matter. “Where a plaintiff has obtained excellent results, his attorney should recover
28 a fully compensatory fee. Normally this will encompass all hours reasonably

1 expended on the litigation, and indeed in some cases of exceptional success an
2 enhanced award may be justified.” Hensley, 461 U.S. at 435. Plaintiffs’ counsel 3 devoted a reasonable number of hours to this case, ultimately winning protection for 4 all original class members.

5 Plaintiffs’ attorneys learned of Defendants’ plan to transfer immigrants
6 detained in the Orange County jails on March 27, 2019. The following day, 7 Plaintiffs’ counsel took action, requesting that ICE release all individuals held in the 8 jails or transfer them to a facility within the Central District. Dkt. 1 at 17-18. When 9 Defendants declined, Plaintiffs filed a 119-paragraph complaint. Dkt. 1. To prepare 10 the complaint, Plaintiffs’ counsel reached out to immigration legal service providers
11 in Orange County, reviewed intakes and referrals of potential plaintiffs from 12 community partners and legal service providers, and ultimately spent the additional 13 time needed to represent eleven of those detained immigrants. Plaintiffs next 14 negotiated with Defendants, agreeing to seek a preliminary injunction rather than a 15 temporary restraining order in exchange for Defendants’ assurances that no putative
16 class members would be transferred pending resolution of Plaintiffs’ request for 17 preliminary relief. Dkt. 14-1.

18 To prepare their preliminary injunction motion, Plaintiffs’ counsel obtained 19 declarations from all eleven Named Plaintiffs (including one filed under seal) and 20 from attorneys employed by both organizational Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs ultimately filed 21 over 60 pages of declarations and over 80 pages of exhibits in support of their 22 motion for a preliminary injunction, see Dkt. 14, much of which the Court relied on 23 in reaching its conclusion, see generally Dkt. 37.

24 Plaintiffs next simultaneously briefed motions for a preliminary injunction 25 and for provisional class certification, both on a compressed timeline, in order to 26 protect their clients. After this Court’s decision granting partial relief, Plaintiffs 27 continued to negotiate with the government and prepared to seek expedited
28 discovery and amendment. Although Plaintiffs did not ultimately file their motion

1 for expedited discovery nor seek leave to amend, counsel had to pursue both options
2 in order to protect their clients to the fullest extent in accordance with this Court's
3 ruling, until Defendants closed the facilities consistent with their pre-litigation
4 agreement restricting transfer. Most important for present purposes, the final result
5 protected all original putative class members. The hours Plaintiffs' counsel devoted 6 to obtaining this result were reasonable.

7 Finally, Plaintiffs have voluntarily chosen not to seek fees for some 8 compensable time to ensure the overall fee request is reasonable. Counsel has 9 submitted records documenting reasonable time spent working on this litigation, all 10 of which is compensable. Arulanantham Decl. Ex. A-I. Plaintiffs seek compensation 11 only for the three principal attorneys and the principal paralegal who worked on this 12 case; they do not seek fees for compensable time spent by others, including in 13 particular the time of a very senior attorney with expertise in First Amendment
14 issues who consulted on that aspect of the case, and a student intern who did 15 substantial research on discovery issues. Although that time is clearly compensable, 16 Plaintiffs have not sought compensation for it here. See Arulanantham Decl. ¶ 31
17 (not seeking compensation for 26 hours spent by law student intern).

18 B. Plaintiffs' Attorneys Are Entitled to Enhanced Rates

19 Plaintiffs' lodestar amount reflects market rates for Plaintiffs' three principal
20 attorneys, Mr. Ahilan Arulanantham, Mr. Sameer Ahmed, and Ms. Eva Bitran.²
21 Although EAJA generally authorizes fees not exceeding $125 per hour adjusted for 22 inflation, higher fees may be justified by "a special factor, such as the limited 23 availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved." 28 U.S.C.
24 2412(d)(2)(A)(ii). The Supreme Court has held that market rates apply where 25 enhanced rates are appropriate under the statute, such as where there is a limited 26 availability of "attorneys having some distinctive knowledge or specialized skill
27

28 ² Plaintiff counsel's paralegal, Ms. Melissa Rios, seeks compensation at the statutory rate of $200/hr. See Arulanantham Decl. Ex. E (MRios Detailed Report).

1 needful for the litigation in question.” Pierce v. Underwood, 487 U.S. 552, 571-72
2 (1988). Therefore, a court may award market-rate fees if 1) the attorney has a
3 “distinctive knowledge or specialized skill” that was 2) necessary for the litigation
4 and that 3) could not have been obtained at the statutory rate. Pirus v. Bowen, 869
5 F.2d 536, 541-2 (9th Cir. 1989); Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 913 .

6 In this case, Plaintiffs’ three primary attorneys are specialists in federal class-
7 action litigation asserting constitutional claims on behalf of detained immigrants.
8 The Ninth Circuit has recognized that litigation concerning immigration detention 9 requires specialized skill and knowledge. See Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 914. As in 10 Nadarajah, this case “raised unique issues of statutory and constitutional 11 immigration law in the detention context.” Id. In particular, the case required
12 expertise and knowledge of the Immigration and Nationality Act’s jurisdictional
13 provisions and their application to claims by immigration detainees. See Srikantiah
14 Decl. ¶¶ 8-12; Arulanantham Decl. ¶ 4. This case could not have been litigated by 15 attorneys who lacked knowledge of such “esoteric nooks and crannies of 16 immigration law.” Gomez Sanchez v. Barr, No. 14-72506, Dkt. 88 at 7 (9th Cir.
17 July 11, 2019).

18 Attorneys Arulanantham, Ahmed, and Bitran possess specialized expertise 19 and knowledge on the law governing the constitutional rights of detained 20 immigrants. Mr. Arulanantham has worked on complex immigration cases for 19
21 years, and has served as lead counsel on several precedent-setting cases in the fields 22 of immigration detention and the right to counsel in immigration proceedings. See
23 Arulanantham Decl. ¶¶ 7-15; Srikantiah Decl. ¶ 13. Mr. Arulanantham is a 24 recognized expert in the field and has won numerous awards for his work. See id.
25 Courts have repeatedly recognized that Mr. Arulanantham qualifies for “enhanced”
26 rates under EAJA due to his distinctive knowledge and skills. See, e.g., Nadarajah, 27 569 F.3d at 914; Gomez-Sanchez, No. 14-72506, Dkt. 88 at 8.

28 Mr. Ahmed has litigated cases involving the constitutional rights of detained

1 immigrants for approximately 8 years. Arulanantham Decl. ¶¶ 18-21. He is likewise
2 a recognized expert in the field. See id. He has the same level of experience that
3 other ACLU immigrants' rights attorneys have had when the Ninth Circuit
4 recognized their expertise in this area. Cf. Gomez-Sanchez, No. 14-72506, Dkt. 88
5 (granting EAJA fees at market rates for an ACLU attorney with ten years of 6 experience).

7 Similarly, Ms. Bitran has litigated complex immigration and other federal 8 law cases for 3 years, has served as lead counsel or co-lead counsel on three cases
9 involving the constitutional rights of detained immigrants. She also regularly 10 conducts trainings on immigration law. Arulanantham Decl. ¶¶ 22-27 (citing, inter
11 alia, Torres v. U.S. Dep't of Homeland Security, No. 5:18-cv-02604-JGB-SHK
12 (C.D. Cal. filed Dec. 2018); Rodriguez-Castillo v. Nielsen, No. 5:18-cv-01317
13 (C.D. Cal. filed June 6, 2018)). She has the same level of experience that Mr.
14 Arulanantham had when the Ninth Circuit first recognized his specialized expertise
15 in this area. See Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 914; cf. Gomez-Sanchez, No. 14-72506, 16 Dkt. 88 (granting EAJA fees at market rates for an ACLU attorney with five years 17 of experience).

18 The distinctive knowledge and specialized skills possessed by Mr.
19 Arulanantham, Mr. Ahmed, and Ms. Bitran were necessary to litigate this action.
20 See Arulanantham Decl. ¶ 4; Srikantiah Decl. ¶¶ 10-12. The Ninth Circuit has 21 confirmed that litigation concerning immigration detention requires specialized skill 22 and knowledge worthy of market rates. See Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 914 (awarding 23 enhanced rates in case that "raised unique issues of statutory and immigration law 24 in the detention context"); Gomez-Sanchez, No. 14-72506, Dkt. 88 (stating that 25 Ninth Circuit has awarded enhanced rates where "knowledge of foreign cultures of 26 particular, esoteric nooks and crannies of immigration law . . . [was] needed to give 27 the [immigrant] a fair shot at prevailing") (internal quotation omitted). In this case, 28 Plaintiffs' counsel's expertise in cases involving the constitutional rights of

1 detained immigrants—such as like Rodriguez, Franco, J.E.F.M., Rodriguez-
2 Castillo, and Torres—allowed them to quickly identify the relevant constitutional
3 and statutory causes of action, understand the relevant precedent and how it applied 4 in this case, and demonstrate the imminent harm that represented immigrants would 5 face if separated from their attorneys. Indeed, at oral argument this Court noted that 6 many of the seminal cases interpreting the jurisdictional provisions at issue here had 7 been litigated by Mr. Arulanantham, Transcript of Oral Argument at 5. Counsel’s
8 expertise permitted them to craft a compelling argument in support of the Court’s 9 jurisdiction, and their familiarity with the substantive law governing the rights of 10 detained immigrants permitted them to prevail on the merits.

11 Finally, the rates Plaintiffs seek are appropriate for attorneys of their 12 experience and expertise, see generally Sobel Decl., and Plaintiffs could not have 13 obtained similarly specialized counsel at the statutory rate, see Srikantiah Decl. ¶ 15.

14 IV. Plaintiffs Are Entitled to Recover Out-Of-Pocket Costs

15 Plaintiffs seek $1,205.54 in litigation costs, which includes the filing fee, 16 money spent on service of process, and other routine litigation expenses.
17 See Arulanantham Decl. Ex. F (Cost Report). EAJA contemplates that federal 18 agencies may be responsible for expenses incurred. 28 U.S.C. 2412(d)(1)(A); 28
19 U.S.C. 1920 (costs include court fees, filing fees, fees for printing and copying, and 20 fees for transcripts); Oliveira v. United States, 827 F.2d 735, 744 (Fed. Cir. 1987).
21 The expenses Plaintiffs seek to recover are typically compensable under EAJA and 22 in other forms of federal litigation. Grove v. Wells Fargo Fin. Cal., Inc., 606 F.3d 23 577, 579-82 (9th Cir. 2010) (allowing for recovery of travel costs and other out-of-24 pocket expenses in FCRA action); Trs. of Constr. Indus. & Laborers Health & 25 Welfare Trust, 460 F.3d 1253, 1257-59 (9th Cir. 2006) (allowing for recovery of 26 reasonable charges for computerized research in ERISA case).

27 * * *

28 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court award

1 them attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $137,031.87.

United States District Court
Central District of California

GUSTAVO RODRIGUEZ CASTILLO, Plaintiffs-Petitioners,

v.

KIRSTJEN NIELSEN, Secretary,
Department of Homeland Security, et al,
Defendants-Respondents.

Case No. 5:18-cv-01317-ODW (KESx)

AMENDED ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES [49]

I. INTRODUCTION

Before the Court is a Motion for Attorneys' Fees ("Motion") filed by Plaintiffs Gustavo Rodriguez Castillo ("Castillo"), Gabriela M. Lopez ("Lopez"), and Immigrant Defenders Law Center ("IDLC") (collectively "Plaintiffs") seeking $190,718.89 in fees and costs from Defendants pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act ("EAJA"), 28 U.S.C. § 2412. (See Mot., ECF No. 49.) For the reasons discussed below, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion.

II. BACKGROUND

The Court recited this case's facts in its Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause ("TRO") and incorporates that discussion here. (See TRO, ECF No. 10.) Plaintiffs brought this action on June 19, 2018, to challenge practices concerning civil immigration detainees held at FCI Victorville Medium Security

1 Prison (“FCI Victorville”), a federal correctional facility used to house convicted
2 criminals. (See generally Compl., ECF No. 1.) On or about June 4, 2018, the Bureau
3 of Prisons (“BOP”) received hundreds of immigration detainees for temporary
4 housing in FCI Victorville. (Compl. ¶ 17; see also Decl. of Jess Pino (“Pino Decl.”)
5 ¶ 3, ECF No. 7-1.) The federal government began transferring detainees to FCI
6 Victorville on or about June 8, 2018. (Compl. ¶ 19.)

7 Detainees were incarcerated pending a screening known as a “credible fear”
8 interview and, if found to have a “credible fear,” pending immigration court 9 proceedings. (Compl. ¶ 20.) Due to the volume of detainees, medical screenings, and 10 other administrative tasks, Defendants did not finalize attorney visitation procedures
11 until June 19, 2018. (Pino Decl. ¶ 5.) Consequently, detainees at FCI Victorville
12 could not consult an attorney before June 19, 2018. (Compl. ¶ 22.)

13 Here, Castillo was held as a detainee, Lopez served as Castillo’s attorney, and 14 IDLC is a nonprofit organization that provided legal services to detained immigrants.
15 (Compl. ¶¶ 5–7.) On June 19, 2018, Plaintiffs filed their Complaint and sought a 16 TRO. Plaintiffs’ Complaint alleged that Defendants’ denial of attorney access 17 violated their due process rights and First Amendment rights, and Defendants’
18 policies regarding access to attorneys violated the Administrative Policy Act and the 19 Immigration and Nationality Act. (Compl. ¶¶ 52–69.) Plaintiffs’ TRO sought to:
20 (1) permit Lopez to meet with Castillo; (2) permit other detainees at FCI Victorville to 21 communicate with attorneys; (3) permit the IDLC to conduct “know your rights” 22 training for the detainees at FCI Victorville; and (4) stop immigration proceedings at 23 FCI Victorville, or deportation of any such detainees, until they could consult an 24 attorney and attend an IDLC training. (See Pls.’ Ex. Parte Appl. (“Ex Parte”), ECF
25 No. 4.)

26 Defendants opposed on June 20, 2018. (Opp’n to Ex Parte, ECF No. 7.)
27 Defendants affirmed that they were “acutely aware of the need to allow” attorney 28 visitation and that it had “now implemented procedures” for attorneys to visit with

1 detainees. (Pino Decl. ¶ 7.) Defendants also provided details concerning the 2 implemented procedures for attorney visitation. (Pino Decl., Ex. A (“Mem. for 3 FCI”).) Namely, Defendants’ new policies permitted attorney visitations to occur in a
4 single visitation room, Tuesday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and only 5 if the visiting attorney and individuals accompanying the attorney successfully
6 completed the necessary paperwork. (Mem. for FCI.) In their reply, Plaintiffs argued 7 these policies did not ensure sufficient visitation, provide adequate “know your rights”
8 training, or guarantee that Defendants would not proceed with detainees’ cases until 9 they had access to counsel. (Reply to Opp’n to Ex Parte, ECF No. 8.)

10 On June 21, 2018, the Court issued the TRO and an order to show cause why a 11 preliminary injunction should not issue. (TRO 7.) The TRO decided that in-person 12 communications may proceed according to the protocols Defendants provided and 13 required Defendants to:

- 14 (1) Permit Lopez to conduct an attorney-client conversation with Castillo;
15 (2) Permit other FCI Victorville detainees to communicate with attorneys;
16 (3) Permit IDLC to conduct “know your rights” trainings at FCI Victorville; and 17 (4) Refrain from immigration proceedings or deportations until detainees could 18 consult an attorney or attend “know your rights” training.
19 (TRO 6–7.)

20 In their Response and Request to Dissolve the TRO, Defendants argued “there 21 is a perfectly valid and reasonable explanation for” initially denying attorney access 22 and then allowing restricted visitation: “[n]amely, the facility only just began housing 23 immigrants immediately prior to the outset of the litigation.” (Defs.’ Resp. and Req.
24 Dissolve TRO (“Resp.”) 18, ECF No. 20.) Yet, Defendants did not address Plaintiffs’
25 allegations concerning their due process or First Amendment claims. (Resp. 18.)

26 Thereafter, the Court held a hearing on the order to show cause on July 30, 27 2018. (Min. of TRO Hr’g, ECF No. 22.) After being updated on Defendants’ lack of 28 progress, the Court told the parties “we’re going to make meaningful progress or I am

1 going to draft a preliminary injunction.” (See Decl. of Michael Kaufman (“Kaufman
2 Decl.”), Ex. F (“Hr’g Tr.”) 39, 48, ECF No. 54-1.) Defendants assured the Court that 3 they would make progress in satisfying the conditions of the TRO and not “simply 4 move people to Adelanto [to] fast track removal proceeding[s],” and thus would not
5 require a court issued preliminary injunction. (See Hr’g Tr. 40.)

6 The parties then stipulated to extend the TRO for two weeks to pursue
7 settlement, and later stipulated to extend the TRO two more times. (ECF Nos. 23, 28, 8 34.) The parties then came to an impasse and stipulated on August 27, 2018 to extend 9 the TRO pending the Court’s consideration of whether a preliminary injunction should 10 issue. (ECF No. 37.) The Court approved the parties’ stipulation and ordered them 11 to file a joint status report concerning whether a preliminary injunction should issue.
12 (ECF No. 38.) The parties filed their joint status report on August 29, 2018. (Status 13 Report, ECF No. 39.) In the report, Defendants: (1) noted that FCI Victorville had 14 decreased its detainee population to 202 and taken no new detainees since July 24,
15 2018; (2) described new visitation policies and implementation of Court-ordered 16 “know your rights” training; and (3) concluded that if “the Court is inclined to grant
17 Plaintiff a preliminary injunction based on this status report, Defendants request
18 instead that the Court set this matter for hearing in 30 days...” (See generally Status 19 Report.) After reviewing the parties’ submissions, the Court set a preliminary 20 injunction hearing for October 19, 2018. (ECF No. 40.)

21 On September 28, 2018, Defendants filed their Opposition to Plaintiffs’ Motion
22 for Preliminary Injunction, affirming that they had transferred all immigration
23 detainees out of FCI Victorville effective September 14, 2018 and would no longer
24 hold immigration detainees at the facility. (See Defs.’ Opp’n to Mot. for Prelim. Inj.
25 4, ECF No. 41.) Afterwards, on October 10, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a Notice of 26 Withdrawal of their Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. (ECF No. 42.) The Court
27 granted that request and vacated the hearing. (ECF No. 43.)
28

1 On October 30, 2019, the parties filed a Joint Stipulation to Voluntarily Dismiss
2 the Case Without Prejudice under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii).
3 (ECF No. 48.) The Court dismissed all claims without prejudice and closed the case.
4 (ECF No. 58.) Plaintiffs now seek fees incurred from June 18, 2018 through
5 December 9, 2019. (See Mot.; Pls.’ Reply, ECF No. 59.)

7 A. Attorneys’ Fees Under the EAJA.

8 Pursuant to the EAJA, federal courts are authorized to award attorneys’ fees,
9 court costs, and other expenses. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(a)(1); 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d);
10 Hardisty v. Astrue, 592 F.3d 1072, 1076 (9th Cir. 2010). For the district court to 11 award attorney’s fees and costs pursuant to the EAJA, it must be shown that (1) the 12 plaintiff is the prevailing party, (2) the government has not met its burden of showing 13 that its positions were substantially justified or that special circumstances make an 14 award unjust, and (3) the requested attorney’s fees and costs are reasonable. Murgolo
15 v. Astrue, 257 F. App’x 53, 54 (9th Cir. 2007).

16 A litigant must meet two criteria to qualify as a “prevailing party” under the 17 EAJA. Buckhannon Bd. and Care Home, Inc. v. W. Va. Dep’t of Health and Human 18 Res., 532 U.S. 598, 604 (2001). First, the litigant must achieve a “material alteration 19 of the legal relationship of the parties.” Carbonell v. I.N.S., 429 F.3d 894, 898 (9th
20 Cir. 2005). Second, that alteration must be “judicially sanctioned.” Id. (citations
21 omitted). The Ninth Circuit has “previously held that when a plaintiff wins a 22 preliminary injunction and the case is rendered moot before final judgment, either by 23 the passage of time or other circumstances beyond the parties’ control, the plaintiff is 24 a prevailing party eligible for a fee award.” Higher Taste, Inc. v. City of Tacoma, 717
25 F.3d 712, 717 (9th Cir. 2013) (citations omitted).

26 The burden of proving the substantial justification exception to the mandatory
27 award of fees under the EAJA lies with the government. Love v. Reilly, 924 F.2d 28 1492, 1495 (9th Cir. 1991). “Substantial justification” is defined as:

1 justified in substance or in the main – that is, justified to a degree that 2 could satisfy a reasonable person. [This standard] is no different from the 3 “reasonable basis in both law and fact” formulation adopted by the Ninth 4 Circuit and the vast majority of other Courts of Appeals that have addressed this issue.

5 Pierce v. Underwood, 487 U.S. 552, 565 (1988).

6 In determining the reasonableness of the government’s position under the 7 “totality of the circumstances” test, the court reviews the underlying governmental 8 action being defended and the positions taken by the government in the litigation
9 itself. Gutierrez v. Barnhart, 274 F.3d 1255, 1259 (9th Cir. 2001).

10 “The amount of attorneys’ fees awarded under EAJA must be reasonable.”
11 Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 910 (9th Cir. 2009). Attorney’s fees for hours 12 that are not “reasonably expended” or that are “excessive, redundant, or otherwise 13 unnecessary” are not compensable. Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983).
14 “[C]ourts should generally defer to the ‘winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to 15 how much time he was required to spend on the case.’” Costa v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec.
16 Admin., 690 F.3d 1132, 1136 (9th Cir. 2012) (citations omitted).

17 IV. DISCUSSION

18 Plaintiffs assert that they are entitled to $190,718.89 in fees and costs under the 19 EAJA. (See Mot.; Reply.) Defendants respond that the Court should deny Plaintiffs’
20 Motion as: (1) Plaintiffs were not prevailing parties; (2) Defendants position was 21 substantially justified; and (3) Plaintiffs’ fees are unreasonable and should be reduced.
22 (See Opp’n to Mot. (“Opp’n”), ECF No. 57.)

23 A. Prevailing Party

24 Plaintiffs argue that they are prevailing parties because the TRO and its 25 extensions, created a “material alteration in the legal relationships between the 26 parties,” which was “judicially sanctioned.” (Mot. 8–9.) Defendants oppose by 27 asserting that the remedial actions it took, after the Complaint was filed, made it “not 28 necessary for Plaintiffs to continue to seek a TRO.” (Opp’n 3.) Defendants further

1 argue that fees are improper due to the abbreviated schedule for opposing the TRO
2 and as the Court never expressly ruled that Plaintiffs were likely to succeed on the 3 merits. (Opp’n 3.) Finally, Defendants argue that without court intervention, the 4 procedures implemented at FCI Victorville and the transfer of detainees from FCI
5 Victorville would have occurred. (Opp’n 3.)

6 The Court rejects Defendants’ arguments. Foremost, the actions cited by 7 Defendants—know your rights training and communication between Lopez and 8 Castillo—occurred only after the TRO issued. (Opp’n 2–5.) In fact, they were 9 mandated by the TRO. (See TRO 6–7.) Defendants’ assertion that they immediately
10 complied with the TRO does not disprove that Plaintiffs are prevailing parties.
11 Rather, it is evidence that Plaintiffs prevailed. Shapiro v. Paradise Valley Unified 12 Sch. Dist. No. 69, 374 F.3d 857, 865 (9th Cir. 2004) (“[E]ssentially, in order to be 13 considered a ‘prevailing party’ after Buckhannon, a plaintiff must not only achieve 14 some material alteration of the legal relationship of the parties, but that change must 15 also be judicially sanctioned.”) (internal quotations and citations omitted). Here,
16 despite Defendants moving to dissolve it, the Court’s three orders extending the TRO,
17 further demonstrates that Defendants’ remedial actions were “judicially sanctioned.”
18 Accordingly, Plaintiffs are prevailing parties with regards to the TRO and any ensuing 19 litigation to enforce it. See Carbonell, 429 F.3d at 901 (“[W]hen a court incorporates
20 the terms of a voluntary agreement into an order, that order is stamped with sufficient 21 ‘judicial imprimatur’ for the litigant to qualify as a prevailing party for the purpose of 22 awarding attorney’s fees.”).

23 Defendants’ argument that the Court never expressly found that Plaintiffs were 24 likely to succeed on the merits—also fails; clearly, by granting the TRO, the Court
25 determined that Plaintiffs were likely to succeed on the merits. (See TRO 5.)
26 Likewise, the proceedings’ expedited nature is irrelevant to whether Plaintiffs were 27 prevailing parties, Plaintiffs achieving a TRO on a necessarily abbreviated timeline is 28 sufficient to create a “judicially sanctioned,” “material alteration in the legal

1 relationships between the parties.” Int’l Refugee Assistance Project v. Kelly, 2017
2 WL 3263870, at *4 (C.D. Cal. July 27, 2017) (determining plaintiffs as the prevailing
3 party even though TRO was issued on the same day that the TRO motion was made).

4 Finally, Defendants’ attempt to attribute adoption of Plaintiffs’ requested
5 changes to their uncoerced decision-making—is contrary to the record. Plainly, the 6 TRO, the Court-ordered extensions, and litigation necessitating Plaintiffs’ fees, while 7 the TRO was in effect, make clear that Court involvement, not Defendants’ discretion,
8 produced the changes that resulted in voluntary dismissal. Higher Taste, Inc., 717
9 F.3d at 717 (“The defendant’s action in rendering the case moot ensures that the 10 [preliminary] injunction’s alteration of the parties’ legal relationship will not be 11 undone by subsequent rulings in the litigation.”); see also Int’l Refugee Assistance 12 Project, 2017 WL 3263870, at *4 (“[T]hat [the government] retained discretion” to 13 implement immigration policies following temporary restraining order “does not mean 14 that Petitioners cannot be the prevailing party.”).

15 Hence, Plaintiffs were prevailing parties under the EAJA.

16 B. Substantially Justified Position

17 Defendants bear the burden to establish that their position, which includes both 18 their underlying conduct and arguments during litigation, was substantially justified 19 under the “totality of the circumstances.” Gutierrez, 274 F.3d at 1259. The 20 underlying conduct here is primarily Defendants’ decision to hold hundreds of civil 21 immigration detainees for approximately two weeks without access to counsel.
22 (TRO 6 (“[T]he parties do not dispute that many of the detainees were without access
23 to legal communication for as many as 9 to 13 days, possibly longer in Castillo’s case.
24 Defendants have made no representations regarding the status of removal proceedings 25 for those detainees who have not had access to counsel.”).)

26 Defendants do not and cannot dispute that holding civil immigration detainees 27 incommunicado for such prolonged periods implicates due process concerns.
28 Halvorsen v. Baird, 146 F.3d 680, 688 (9th Cir. 1998) (“There is a well established

1 tradition against holding prisoners incommunicado in the United States.”) Instead,
2 Defendants argue that circumstances at FCI Victorville delayed their ability to ensure 3 due process, pointing to previously discussed measures taken in response to the 4 Complaint and TRO. (Opp’n 5–7.) However, Defendants’ pre-litigation conduct
5 necessitated this lawsuit, and their lack of progress, post-TRO, required protracted 6 extension of the TRO until Defendants transferred all detainees, an action finally 7 taken on the eve of potential injunctive relief. (See Hr’g Tr. 39 (“I am going to be 8 convinced that we’re going to make meaningful progress or I am going to draft and 9 enter a preliminary injunction that, well, somebody’s not going to like.”); see also 10 Status Report 14 (“In the event that the Court is inclined to grant Plaintiff a 11 preliminary injunction based on this status report, Defendants request instead that the 12 Court set this matter for hearing in 30 days...”)).

13 Defendants’ assertion that confining detainees at a facility for convicted 14 criminals complicated access to counsel does not justify Defendants’ position.
15 Instead, it is an indictment of their decision to house them there in the first place.
16 Colindres-Aguilar v. INS, 819 F.2d 259, 261 n.1 (9th Cir. 1987) (noting an 17 immigrant’s right to counsel is a statutory right under 8 U.S.C. § 1362, as well as a 18 right protected by the due process clause). This underlying action, alone, warrants a 19 finding that Defendants’ position was not substantially justified, regardless of 20 arguments made during litigation. United States v. Marolf, 277 F.3d 1156, 1163–64
21 (9th Cir. 2002) (“A reasonable litigation position does not establish substantial 22 justification in the face of a clearly unjustified underlying action.”) (citing Wilderness
23 Soc’y v. Babbitt, 5 F.3d 383, 388–89 (9th Cir. 1993) (holding government was not 24 substantially justified despite reasonable defense in litigation); Andrew v. Bowen, 837 25 F.2d 875, 877–80 (9th Cir. 1988) (same)).

26 The Court therefore concludes that Defendants have not established their 27 position was substantially justified.
28

1 C. Reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs

2 Plaintiffs seek $190,718.89 in fees and costs incurred from June 18, 2018
3 through December 9, 2019, when Plaintiffs filed the Reply.¹ (See Reply 8–12.)
4 Plaintiffs seek enhanced rates for attorneys Arulanantham ($785 for 2018 and $810
5 for 2019); Kaufman ($620 for 2018 and $645 for 2019); and Bitran ($450 for 2018
6 and $480 for 2019) and statutory rates for the remaining attorneys. (Mot. 16 (citing
7 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A)(ii)).) Defendants argue the underlying dispute was not
8 complex and thus did not require the specialized skill necessary to justify enhanced
9 rates. (Opp'n 8–9.)

10 “The Ninth Circuit has specifically recognized that Mr. Arulanantham’s 11 knowledge and skill warrant enhanced rates under the EAJA for his work litigating the 12 constitutional rights of detained immigrants.” Arroyo v. United States Dep’t of 13 Homeland Sec., No. SACV 19-815 JGB (SHKx), 2020 WL 1228665, at *6 (C.D. Cal.
14 Jan. 2, 2020) (citing Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 914 (9th Cir. 2009)). Here, 15 as in other instances recognized by the Ninth Circuit, counsels’ undisputed expertise 16 on issues of statutory construction, detainee rights, and effective advocacy in this 17 challenging context was needed to effectively pursue the emergency relief their clients
18 obtained. Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 915 (“Nadarajah has established and the record
19 shows that... Arulanantham... possessed ‘distinctive knowledge’ and ‘specialized 20 skill’ that was ‘needful to the litigation in question.’”) (citation omitted).

21 Plaintiffs cite extensive evidence establishing the specialized expertise of 22 Arulanantham, Kaufman, and Bitran; moreover, Defendants fail to rebut this evidence.
23 Camacho v. Bridgeport Fin., Inc., 523 F.3d 973, 980 (9th Cir. 2008) (“The party 24 opposing the fee application has a burden of rebuttal that requires submission of 25 evidence ... challenging the accuracy and reasonableness of the ... facts asserted by the 26 prevailing party in its submitted affidavits.”) (citations omitted). For example,

27 ¹ Defendants do not dispute Plaintiffs’ costs of $999.38, thus, the Court finds that these costs are 28 well-documented, reasonable, and therefore shall be recovered. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A).

1 Defendants do not dispute Stanford Law Professor Jayashri Srikantiah’s evidence-
2 based opinion that “this case would [not] have been successful without the particular
3 knowledge and specialized skill that Mr. Arulanantham, Mr. Kaufman, and Ms. Bitran
4 brought to this litigation.” (Decl. of Jayashri Srikantiah, ECF No. 52 ¶ 8.) They 5 similarly do not dispute well-grounded evidence that the rates Plaintiffs seek are equal
6 to market-based rates for comparable services. (See, e.g., Kaufman Decl. ¶¶ 32–34.)
7 As such, the Court finds that Plaintiffs’ requested enhanced rates are reasonable and 8 justified considering the expertise needed to effectively litigate Plaintiffs’ case.

9 Defendants also object to Plaintiffs’ specific bills, claiming they are wasteful
10 and redundant. (Opp’n 7–9.) Defendants argue that Ms. Bitran’s discussion of case
11 issues with a Congressman is not recoverable, but Plaintiffs attest to the need for this 12 discussion, which the Ninth Circuit has held that such expenses are recoverable.
13 Gilbrook v. City of Westminster, 177 F.3d 839, 877 (9th Cir. 1999) (“Prevailing civil 14 rights counsel are entitled to fees for ‘press conferences and performance of other 15 lobbying and public relations work’ when those efforts are ‘directly and intimately
16 related to the successful representation of a client.’”). The Court also finds that hours
17 for “mass representation” and presentations that educated local immigration attorneys, 18 about post-TRO practices for visiting FCI Victorville, are likewise “directly and 19 intimately related to successful representation of” detainees. Id. These efforts were 20 necessary to facilitate access to counsel. Id.

21 Defendants further object to Ms. Bitran’s presence at the July 30, 2018 hearing, 22 arguing that the presence of two attorneys was unnecessary given the hearing’s
23 agenda. (Opp’n 9.) However, the Ninth Circuit has held that two attorneys attending 24 an important hearing, such as the July 30, 2018 hearing, is not redundant. Probe v.
25 State Teachers’ Ret. Sys., 780 F.2d 776, 785 (9th Cir. 1986) (“In an important class 26 action litigation [], the participation of more than one attorney does not constitute an 27 unnecessary duplication of effort.”). Defendants’ unfounded argument is further 28

1 undermined by the presence of its own two attorneys at the same proceeding.
2 (Reply 10.)

3 Defendants object to other various bills which Defendants perceive to be 4 excessive given the purported lack of complexity involved in the tasks. (Opp’n 8–10.)
5 For example, Defendants point to ten hours billed for the TRO, over thirty hours for a
6 twelve-page brief, and five hours for Plaintiffs’ reply in further support of the motion
7 that resulted in the TRO. (Opp’n 8–10.) There is insufficient evidence before the 8 Court to find these hours excessive or redundant. Rutti v. Lojack Corp., No. SACV
9 06-350 DOC (JCx), 2012 WL 3151077, at *2 (C.D. Cal. July 31, 2012) (“To reduce 10 the number of hours worked, “it must appear that the time claimed is obviously and 11 convincingly excessive under the circumstances.”) (citations omitted). This is 12 particularly true where, as here, the hours expended, and the proceedings’ hectic
13 nature were necessitated by Defendants. Int’l Refugee Assistance Project, 2017 WL
14 3263870, at *7 (“Petitioners’ ‘all hands on deck’ strategy was not only 15 understandable, it was likely a necessity... The Court declines to penalize Petitioners 16 for operating as they did within the rushed timetable Respondents created.”)

17 Finally, Defendants object to the hours billed by Mr. Arulanantham, claiming 18 the billing entries are ambiguous and the work unnecessary. (Opp’n 8 (citing bills for 19 “warehousing,” habeas cases, “reinstatement,” conversations with Federal Public 20 Defender and other attorneys).) In response, Mr. Arulanantham submitted a 21 declaration establishing the background of each disputed bill, and why the work was 22 necessary to prosecute Plaintiffs’ case. (See Decl. of Ahilan Arulanantham ¶¶ 5–9, 23 ECF No. 61.) Because the Ninth Circuit instructs district courts to “defer to the 24 ‘winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to 25 spend on the case,’” the Court finds that this declaration is sufficient to overrule 26 Defendants’ objection. Costa, 690 F.3d at 1136 (citations omitted). Such deference is 27 further supported by the excellent outcome that resulted from counsels’ zealous and 28

1 competent advocacy. Hensley, 461 U.S. at 435 (“Where a plaintiff has obtained
2 excellent results, his attorney should recover a fully compensatory fee.”)

3 Accordingly, the Court finds the request for $190,718.89 in fees and costs to be 4 well-documented and reasonable.

5 V. CONCLUSION

6 For the reasons discussed above, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs’ Motion for 7 Attorneys’ Fees. (ECF No. 49.) Plaintiffs’ counsels are awarded $190,718.89.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Pursuant to Rule 23(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the terms of the class Settlement Agreement entered into by the parties and the Court's Order granting preliminary approval of the class Settlement Agreement (Dkt. # 104), Plaintiffs Marco Antonio Alfaro Garcia, Credy Madrid Caldron, Gustavo Ortega, and Claudia Rodriguez de la Torre (collectively, the "Named Plaintiffs") respectfully bring this Motion for Award of Reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Named Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Settlement Class herein, brought claims against Defendants Jeh Johnson, Secretary of Homeland Security, Leon Rodriguez, Director of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and Joseph Langlois, Associate Director of Refugee, Asylum and International Operations (collectively, "Defendants"), alleging that governing regulations require Defendants to give noncitizens the opportunity to establish their claims for protection within the United States by conducting an interview and issuing a determination as to whether they have a "reasonable" basis for their claims (i.e., a "reasonable fear determination") within ten days of referral. Named Plaintiffs are and have always been represented by the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Northern California and the ACLU Foundation of Southern California (together, the "ACLU"), the National Immigrant Justice Center ("NIJC"), and Reed Smith LLP ("Reed Smith"), collectively "Class Counsel."

On April 18, 2014, Named Plaintiffs filed a motion to certify the class action. Dkt. No. 12. After the parties completed briefing on that motion, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Complaint. Dkt. No. 42. After the parties completed briefing on that motion, the Court held a hearing on both the class certification motion and motion to dismiss and thereafter issued an order on November 21, 2014 denying Defendants' motion to dismiss and granting Named Plaintiffs' motion for class certification, appointing Named Plaintiffs' counsel as class counsel and certifying a nationwide class. Dkt. No. 70.

Case No. 4:14-cv-01775-YGR

On February 11, 2015, the parties engaged in the first of a series of settlement conferences before Magistrate Judge Laurel Beeler. See Declaration of Michael Kaufman (the “Kaufman Decl.”) at ¶ 6. The parties continued those talks and ultimately entered into a settlement agreement on June 25, 2015 (the “Settlement Agreement”). See Settlement Agreement, attached as Exhibit 1 to the Kaufman Decl. The Settlement Agreement provides members of the Settlement Class with substantial relief through numerous provisions ensuring that reasonable fear determinations will be provided expeditiously, ultimately achieving a national average of ten days for Defendants to issue these determinations. At the end of the settlement discussions before Magistrate Beeler, after a resolution on the substantive claims had been reached, the parties discussed and ultimately reached an agreement as to an award of attorneys’ fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act (“EAJA”), 28 U.S.C. § 2412, in the amount of $325,000 and costs under the 28 U.S.C. § 1920 of $2,047.66. See Settlement Agreement at § IX. The Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement on August 20, 2015. Dkt. No. 104.

II. PLAINTIFFS ARE ENTITLED TO ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS.

It is well-settled that under the EAJA a plaintiff who prevails in a lawsuit against the United States government or any agency, or government officials in their official capacity, has the right to seek reasonable fees and expenses of counsel unless the Court finds that the position of the United States was substantially justified or that special circumstances make such an award unjust. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1); accord Scarborough v. Principi, 541 U.S. 401 (2004). Plaintiffs plainly are the “prevailing party” here, because they secured a substantial and important settlement agreement enforceable in and by this Court. See Barrios v. California Interscholastic Federation, 277 F.3d 1128, 1134 (9th Cir. 2002) (recognizing a party prevails by obtaining enforceable judgment, consent decree, or judicially enforceable settlement agreement). Furthermore, as evidenced by the Settlement Agreement that provides for the payment of attorneys’ fees and costs under the EAJA, Defendants were not substantially justified in failing to adhere to the ten day requirement for reasonable fear determinations, and there are no special circumstances here to make an award unjust.

1 III. THE NEGOTIATED AWARD IS REASONABLE AND PROPER.

2 The starting point for computation of attorneys’ fees in civil rights cases is the “lodestar”
3 arrived at by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by the reasonable hourly rates.
4 See Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 433 (1983). Although Hensley dealt with attorneys’ fees
5 under 42 U.S.C. §1988, the standards set forth in that opinion “are generally applicable in all cases
6 in which Congress has authorized an award of fees to a ‘prevailing party.’” Id. at 461 n. 7; accord
7 Ruckelshaus v. Sierra Club, 463 U.S. 680, 691-92 (1983). The “resulting product is presumed to be 8 the reasonable fee to which counsel is entitled.” Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizens Council
9 for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546, 564 (1986) (internal quotations omitted). Where, as here, Plaintiffs 10 obtained substantial results, the “attorney should recover a fully compensatory 11 fee . . . encompass[ing] all hours reasonably expended on the litigation. . . .” Hensley, 461 U.S. at 12 435. Under the EAJA, the hourly rate is set, subject to cost of living adjustments, except where a 13 “special factor” justifies an enhanced rate. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A).

14 The $325,000.00 figure reached in the Settlement Agreement is fair and reasonable and 15 should be approved. Plaintiffs’ lodestar in this case, which is the reasonable number of hours spent 16 multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate for each billing professional who worked on the case, is 17 $890,123.50 through early September 2015. Using EAJA statutory rates, the EAJA lodestar is 18 $329,339.85. However, several members of Class Counsel’s team are entitled to enhanced rates
19 under the EAJA and using those rates, Plaintiffs’ enhanced EAJA lodestar is $464,364.61.

20 First, as detailed below, the $325,000.00 in fees represents only 37% of Class Counsel’s
21 actual lodestar and only 70% of Class Counsel’s lodestar using enhanced EAJA rates. Second, even 22 assuming arguendo that Class Counsel could not recover enhanced rates under the EAJA, the EAJA
23 lodestar of $329,339.85 is still thousands of dollars more than the agreed upon recovery amount of 24 $325,000.00. Third, Plaintiffs’ actual costs are $8,172.01 but the cost figure amount agreed upon in 25 the Settlement Agreement is $2,047.66.

Moreover, there is no possibility of collusion or other harm to the class resulting from this agreed upon award because the parties negotiated the fee award only after reaching an agreement on the substantive provisions of the settlement through adversarial, arms-length negotiations.

A. The Number of Hours Are Reasonable.

Here, Class Counsel expended over 1,700 hours on this matter, which is documented in the declarations filed with this motion. See Kaufman Decl., at ¶ 7; Declaration of James Rolfes (“Rolfes Decl.”) ¶ 5; Declaration of Claudia Valenzuela (“Valenzuela Decl.”), at ¶ 4; Declaration of Julia Harumi Mass (“Mass Decl.”), at ¶ 4.

Plaintiffs successfully responded to a motion to dismiss and a significant challenge to their class certification motion. Plaintiffs further engaged in extensive discovery and factual investigation relating to the claims at issue in this matter. Plaintiffs issued Interrogatories and Requests for Production and received from Defendants answers to those Interrogatories and responsive documents. Plaintiffs had also issued notices for approximately twenty depositions, which were in the process of being scheduled when discovery was stayed due to the parties’ settlement discussions. In addition, Class Counsel has conducted independent fact research, including contacting various detained non-citizens who had expressed fear to government officials and consulting with experts on the relevant issues. See Kaufman Decl. at ¶ 5.

These hours were reasonable and necessary to the successful litigation of this case on behalf of Named Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class, particularly given the significance and complexity of the matters at issue, including the difficulties inherent in litigation involving detained individuals and investigation of immigration practices across the nation. The hours are also reflective of the comprehensive settlement agreement achieved.

B. The Hourly Rates And Costs Are Reasonable and Appropriate.

The applicable statutory hourly rates under the EAJA, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A), adjusted for increases in the cost of living are $187.02 for 2013, $190.06 for 2014, and $189.68 for the first half of 2015. See Thangaraja v. Gonazales, 428 F.3d 870, 876-77 (9th Cir. 2005); accord Ninth Cir. Rule 39-1.6. Using those EAJA rates, the fee totals $329,339.85. However, the Ninth Circuit recently held that members of Class Counsel’s team were entitled to enhanced rates under EAJA. See Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 912 (9th Cir. 2009) (awarding market rates to the ACLU of Southern California in an immigration detention case). Similarly, here, this matter involves specialized issues of immigration and administrative law in which Class Counsel are widely considered to be leading experts. The complexity and distinctiveness of this case is compounded by the fact that it is a class action involving a transitory class of detained immigrants. Class Counsel thus needed to draw upon several fields of specialized expertise – class action, administrative, and immigration detention law and procedure– to bring and prevail in this action. In light of these considerations, several members of Class Counsel’s team would be eligible for an award of enhanced rates under the EAJA. Specifically, Mr. Arulanantham, Ms. Harumi Mass, Mr. Kaufman, and Ms. Valenzuela all have multiple years of experience litigating complex class action and administrative cases, including on behalf of detained immigrants. These members of Class Counsel’s team would be entitled to enhanced rates under the EAJA in light of their expertise and knowledge, which would bring the total amount of fees to which Plaintiffs are entitled to $464,364.61. However, Class Counsel is not seeking enhanced rates here and the agreed-upon $325,000 is in fact less than the $329,339.85 fee to which Class Counsel would be entitled using normal statutory EAJA rates. The $325,000.00 figure reached in the Settlement Agreement is thus fair and reasonable, and should be approved.

2013
ACLU – Northern	0	$0	$0	$0
ACLU - Southern	159.3	$38,232.00	$29,792.29	$29,792.29

Reed Smith	46.1	$28,542.00	$8,621.62	$8,621.62
2013 Totals:	222.2	$74,502.00	$46,141.62	$41,555.85
2014

ACLU – Northern	42.2	$21,715.50	$17,369.41	$8,020.53
ACLU - Southern	293.6	$133,187.95	$100,839.33	$55,799.72
	Hours	Fees at Market Rates	Fees at Enhanced Rates	Fees at EAJA Rates
NIJC	77	$38,804.00	$38,004.10	$14,634.62
Reed Smith	584.5	$316,657.05	$111,093.87	$111,093.87
2014 Totals	997.3	$510,364.50	$267,306.71	$189,548.74
2015
ACLU – Northern	16.4	$11,644.00	$11,644.00	$3,110.75
ACLU - Southern	85.8	$44,413.50	$42,214.43	$16,274.54
NIJC	54.3	$28,507.50	$28,507.50	$10,299.62
Reed Smith	361.4	$220,692.00	$68,550.35	$68,550.35
2015 Totals	517.9	$305,257.00	$150,916.28	$98,235.26
Grand Totals:	1737.4	$890,123.50	$464,364.61	$329,339.85

See Kaufman Decl. at ¶¶ 7-8; Rolfes Decl. at ¶¶ 5-6; Valenzuela Decl. at ¶¶ 4-5; Mass Decl. at ¶¶ 4-5. Thus, there can be no question that the requested and agreed-upon $325,000 fee award is reasonable, as it is less than the fee to which Class Counsel would be entitled under (i) the market rate lodestar analysis, (ii) the EAJA enhanced rate analysis, and (iii) the normal EAJA rate analysis.

Class Counsel’s claimed hours are also reasonable in light of the size and scope of this case, the billing judgment that Class Counsel have exercised, and the significant relief they were able to achieve on behalf of the class. The certified class is a nationwide class of immigrants detained in detention centers scattered across the country, and which numbered over 9,000 individuals in 2014. Class counsel therefore necessarily needed to expend a significant amount of resources to investigate the class claims, find named representatives, and successfully secure class certification.

Most importantly, there is no possibility of collusion or other harm to the class resulting from this fee award. For the reasons explained at length in Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Settlement provides substantial relief to class members, demonstrating the lack of any collusion between the parties. See Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 963 (9th Cir. 2003) (looking to substantive terms of settlement in assessing risk of collusiveness). Moreover, fees were negotiated

1 only after a settlement was reached on the substantive claims in the case.¹ “Attorneys fees are 2 subsidiary to the issue of settlement and should be considered subsequent to reaching a tentative
3 settlement by the parties.” Acosta v. Trans Union, LLC, 240 F.R.D. 564, 584 (C.D. Cal. 2007)
4 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). There is also no conflict between Class Counsel and 5 the Settlement Class, as Class Counsel is not seeking fees for themselves out of a class-wide 6 monetary recovery, nor did the Settlement Class seek any monetary relief. Cf. In re Wash. Pub.
7 Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 19 F.3d 1291, 1302 (9th Cir. 1994) (noting that relationship between 8 Class and Class Counsel may turn “adversarial” in common fund situations).

9 A judgment for costs may also be awarded to the prevailing party. See 28 U.S.C.
10 § 2412(d)(1)(A); accord 28 U.S.C. § 1920. Recoverable expenses include all “costs that are 11 ordinarily billed to a client,” including “telephone calls, postage, air courier and attorney travel
12 expenses.” Int’l Woodworkers of Am., AFL-CIO, Local 3-98 v. Donovan, 792 F.2d 762, 767 (9th 13 Cir. 1985). Here, Class Counsel combined has incurred over $8,000 in costs, made up largely of 14 travel expenses, filing fees, copying and printing charges, and other expenses directly related to the 15 prosecution of the lawsuit. See Rolfes Decl. at ¶ 7. As set forth in the Settlement Agreement,
16 however, Class Counsel respectfully request reimbursement of only $2,047.66 for expenses incurred
17 in prosecuting this lawsuit. Accordingly, Class Counsel should be awarded $2,047.66 for its costs 18 incurred in prosecuting this action.

19 In light of the above, and as set forth below and in the supporting declarations, Class 20 Counsel’s requested fee award of $325,000 and requested costs of $2,047.66 are reasonable and 21 well-justified.

22 IV. CONCLUSION.

23 For the above reasons, Named Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant their 24 motion for an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

26 ¹ As set forth in detail in the motion for preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement, the 27 Settlement Agreement was the product of arms-length, non-collusive, informed negotiation between the parties. See Dkt No. 102; see also Kaufman Decl. ¶ 6.

EXHIBIT I

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

JUL 17 2019

MOLLY C. DWYER, CLERK

GUILLERMO GOMEZ-SANCHEZ,

Petitioner,

v.

WILLIAM P. BARR, Attorney General,

Respondent.

No. 14-72506

Agency No. A092-924-179

ORDER

Before: Peter L. Shaw, Appellate Commissioner.

Background

Guillermo Gomez-Sanchez, a Mexican citizen, was charged with removability and applied for withholding of removal and relief under the Convention Against Torture (“CAT”). See Gomez-Sanchez v. Sessions, 892 F.3d 985, 988 (9th Cir. 2018). Gomez-Sanchez, who has schizophrenia and speaks poor English, was detained for two-and-one-half years while his case was administratively closed to obtain a competency evaluation. After a pro bono attorney learned about Gomez-Sanchez’s case and began representing him, an Immigration Judge (“IJ”) determined that Gomez-Sanchez was statutorily ineligible for withholding of removal because he had been convicted of a particularly serious crime, and that an applicant's mental health as a factor in a criminal act falls within the criminal court's province and is not a factor to be considered in the particularly serious crime analysis. Id. The IJ also determined that Gomez-Sanchez was entitled to deferral of removal under the CAT. Id. at 989 n.2.

Gomez-Sanchez appealed the IJ's denial of withholding of removal. Id. at 988, 989. The Board of Immigration Appeals ("BIA") issued a published decision dismissing the appeal, and remanded for background checks needed for CAT relief. Id. at 988.

Gomez-Sanchez filed a petition for review of the denial of withholding of removal. Id. at 989. This court granted the petition, vacated the BIA's decision, and remanded to the BIA for further proceedings consistent with its amended opinion. Id. at 988, 989, 996-97. The court held that the agency must take all relevant information into consideration when making the particularly serious crime determination, including the individual's mental condition at the time of the crime, whether it was considered during the criminal proceedings or not, and that the BIA's interpretation of the Immigration and Nationality Act was not entitled to deference. Id. at 996-97. Gomez-Sanchez filed a petition for panel rehearing requesting to change part of the court’s opinion that cited a BIA decision then under review. The court amended the opinion and denied rehearing. Id. at 987.

Gomez-Sanchez filed a motion for attorneys’ fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act (“EAJA”), 28 U.S.C. § 2412. The government filed an opposition, and Gomez-Sanchez filed a reply. The court granted the motion and referred the fee amount determination to the Appellate Commissioner. See 9th Cir. R. 39-1.9.

II Discussion

A. Attorneys’ Fees

“The most useful starting point for determining the amount of a reasonable fee is the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate.” Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 433 (1983).

Gomez-Sanchez requests $109,960.42 in attorneys’ fees for 232.93 hours of work by five attorneys and one paralegal from the ACLU Foundation of Southern California and the ACLU Foundation of San Diego and Imperial Counties.¹

Gomez-Sanchez requests enhanced, prevailing market hourly rates of $710 to $785 for attorney Ahilan T. Arulanantham, $510 to $620 for attorney Bardis Vakili, and $450 to $475 for attorney Carmen Iguina. Gomez-Sanchez requests cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates of $190.06 for 2014, $190.28 for 2015, $192.68 for 2016, and $200.78 for 2018 for attorney Lorie Alexander, attorney Jonathan Markovitz, and paralegal Geneva Tien.

1. Enhanced Hourly Rates

The government objects to awarding enhanced hourly rates for Arulanantham, Vakili, and Iguina. EAJA provides that fees may be awarded based upon prevailing market rates for the kind and quality of the services furnished, except that attorneys' fees shall not be awarded in excess of $125 per hour unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved, justifies a higher fee. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A).

a. Special Factor Enhancement

Gomez-Sanchez requests enhanced hourly rates based on the special factor of the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved. Id. In support of the request, Gomez-Sanchez provides declarations by Arulanantham, Iguina, and experienced Los Angeles immigration attorney Stacy Tolchin and Los Angeles civil rights attorney Carol Sobel.

Enhanced hourly rates based on the special factor of the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved may be awarded where the attorneys “hav[e] some distinctive knowledge or specialized skill needful to the litigation in question [that] can be obtained only at rates in excess of the [statutory] cap.” Pierce v. Underwood, 487 U.S. 552, 572 (1988).

i. Distinctive Knowledge Or Specialized Skill

Gomez-Sanchez shows, and the government does not dispute, that Arulanantham has distinctive knowledge and specialized skill “in constitutional immigration law and litigation involving the rights of detained immigrants,” as this court determined in awarding enhanced hourly rates in Nadarajah v. Holder, 569 F.3d 906, 912 (9th Cir. 2009), as well as at the intersection of criminal, immigration, mental health, and disability law, and that Vakili and Iguina have distinctive knowledge and specialized skill at the intersection of immigration and mental health law.

Arulanantham has 15 years of experience as an ACLU attorney litigating numerous cases involving the intersection of criminal and immigration law, as well as the statutory and constitutional rights of non-citizens. Vakili has 11 years of experience as an ACLU attorney representing individuals with mental disabilities and individuals subject to removal for criminal convictions in immigration proceedings. Iguina spent five years as an ACLU attorney working on many cases at the intersection of mental health and immigration issues.

Arulanantham was lead counsel in Nadarajah, where the court concluded that Nadarajah's indefinite detention was unreasonable, unjustified, and illegal; reversed the district court's denial of Nadarajah's habeas corpus petition; and ordered Nadarajah's immediate release. See Nadarajah v. Gonzales, 443 F.3d 1069, 1084 (9th Cir. 2006). Arulanantham was co-lead counsel, and Vakili and Iguina were co-counsel, in Franco-Gonzales v. Holder, 2013 WL 3674492, at *20 (C.D. Cal. 2013), where the court held as a matter of first impression under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act that detained mentally ill immigrants have a right to counsel. Franco resulted in an injunction requiring the government to identify and provide counsel to mentally ill immigrants in detention. See Franco-Gonzalez v. Holder, 2018 WL 8115423, at *1-2 (C.D. Cal. 2013). Later, the government voluntarily chose to apply the Franco injunction nationwide.

Arulanantham, Vakili, and Iguina were awarded the American Immigration Lawyers' Association Jack Wasserman Memorial Award for Excellence in the Field of Immigration Law for their Franco-Gonzales work. Arulanantham has received many other awards for his immigration work, including a MacArthur Fellowship, and he serves as a resource for immigration attorneys nationwide. Tolchin states that Arulanantham is "unquestionably one of the most skilled [immigration] litigators in the country," and that Arulanantham, Vakili, and Iguina all have particular knowledge and specialized skill in immigration cases involving people with serious mental disorders.

ii. Needful To The Litigation In Question

The government argues that Gomez-Sanchez has not shown that Arulanantham's, Vakili's, and Iguina's distinctive knowledge or specialized skill was needful to the litigation in question, or that "knowledge of foreign cultures or of particular, esoteric nooks and crannies of immigration law . . . [was] needed to give the alien a fair shot at prevailing." Thangaraja v. Gonzales, 428 F.3d 870, 876 (9th Cir. 2005). The government argues that Gomez-Sanchez's case was dictated by existing Ninth Circuit precedent and was not as novel or complex as Nadarajah, where Arulanantham's prevailing market hourly rates were awarded, and that Gomez-Sanchez's case did not involve Arulanantham's distinctive knowledge or specialized skill in constitutional immigration law and litigation involving detained immigrants' rights, as Nadarajah did. See Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 913-15. The government argues that the court did not address Gomez-Sanchez's argument that the BIA's categorical bar against considering mental health in the particularly serious crime analysis discriminates against the mentally disabled in violation of the Rehabilitation Act, see Gomez-Sanchez, 892 F.3d at 997 n.11, and that only the Rehabilitation Act argument required the attorneys' distinctive knowledge or specialized skill at the intersection of criminal, immigration, mental health, and disability law. The government's arguments lack merit.

Like Nadarajah, Gomez-Sanchez's case involved more than established principles of law with which the majority of attorneys are familiar, and more than a straightforward application of the rules of immigration law and appellate practice. See Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 914; Ramon-Sepulveda v. INS, 863 F.2d 1458, 1462-63 (9th Cir. 1988). Gomez-Sanchez's case was novel and complex, as evidenced by the court's lengthy amended opinion holding that the BIA's published decision interpreting the Immigration and Nationality Act to establish the categorical bar was contrary to congressional intent, unreasonable, based on a flawed assumption, inconsistent with earlier BIA decisions, and not entitled to deference. See Gomez-Sanchez, 892 F.3d at 990-97. Indeed, the government argues elsewhere in its opposition that its position was substantially justified because the BIA decision was "a novel but credible extension or interpretation of the law."

Arulanantham's distinctive knowledge or specialized skill in constitutional immigration law and litigation involving detained immigrants' rights was necessary to this litigation, as it was in Nadarajah. Moreover, Arulanantham's distinctive knowledge or specialized skill at the intersection of criminal, immigration, mental health, and disability law, and Vakili's and Iguina's distinctive knowledge or specialized skill at the intersection of immigration and mental health law were needed to give Gomez-Sanchez a fair shot at prevailing here. Although the court determined in light of its disposition not to address the Rehabilitation Act argument, see Gomez-Sanchez, 892 F.3d at 997 n.11, Gomez-Sanchez's attorneys' distinctive knowledge or specialized skill was necessary to every argument presented, not only the Rehabilitation Act argument.

As Tolchin states, even though the court decided Gomez-Sanchez's case under existing law, the preparation and presentation of Gomez-Sanchez's briefs and oral argument, which effectively demonstrated to the court that the BIA's decision was not entitled to deference, required the attorneys' distinctive knowledge or specialized skill regarding particular, esoteric nooks and crannies of federal immigration and state criminal law. See Thangaraja, 428 F.3d at 876. Specifically, Gomez-Sanchez's case involved an interplay of the laws governing the consideration in removal proceedings of whether an individual has been convicted of a particularly serious crime and is a danger to the community, the question whether reliable, relevant evidence of mental health at the time of a crime must be considered in removal proceedings, the mens rea element of criminal offenses, and the insanity defense in criminal cases. See Gomez-Sanchez, 892 F.3d at 990-97.

iii. Not Available Elsewhere At Statutory Rate

The government argues that Gomez-Sanchez has not shown, and Tolchin's declaration does not state, that Arulanantham's, Vakili's, and Iguina's distinctive knowledge or specialized skill was not available elsewhere at cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates, citing United States v. Real Prop. Known As 22249 Dolorosa St., 190 F.3d 977, 985 (9th Cir. 1999) and Ramon-Sepulveda, 863 F.2d at 1463. In the government's cases, however, courts had determined that distinctive knowledge or specialized skills were not needed for the litigation. Id.

Also, Gomez-Sanchez submits in reply a second declaration by Tolchin, stating that "I know of no one with expertise in the specialized subject matter needed to litigate this case who would have been available to do so at the statutory EAJA rate of $200.78 an hour. I am confident that no such person exists." Tolchin's second declaration satisfies Gomez-Sanchez's burden to show that qualified counsel is not available elsewhere at the cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates. See Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 915 (citing Atl. Fish Spotters Ass'n v. Daley, 205 F.3d 488, 493 (1st Cir. 2000)); Pirus v. Bowen, 869 F.2d 536, 542 (9th Cir. 1989).

iv. Prevailing Market Hourly Rates

The government argues that Gomez-Sanchez has not shown that the requested enhanced hourly rates of $710 to $785 for Arulanantham, a 1999 law school graduate; $510 to $620 for Vakili, a 2006 law school graduate; and $450 to $475 for Iguina, a 2010 law school graduate, are “in line with those prevailing in the community for similar services by lawyers of reasonably comparable skill, experience and reputation.” Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 895 n.11 (1984). The government argues that Sobel’s declaration is not probative of prevailing market hourly rates for immigration litigation, because her expertise is in complex civil rights and class action litigation and her opinion relies on hourly rates for large commercial law firms engaged in complex business litigation. The government argues that Tolchin’s declaration does not state the prevailing market hourly rate for immigration practitioners in the relevant community, or her own hourly rate. The government’s arguments lack merit.

The market for Gomez-Sanchez’s attorneys’ services is defined more broadly than immigration cases. See Blum, 465 U.S. at 893; Prison Legal News v. Schwarzenegger, 608 F.3d 446, 455 (9th Cir. 2010); Van Skike v. Dir., OWCP, 557 F.3d 1041, 1046-47 (9th Cir. 2009). “[T]he proper scope of comparison is not so limited, but rather extends to all attorneys in the relevant community engaged in

Gomez-Sanchez has satisfied his burden to show that the requested hourly rates are in line with prevailing market hourly rates in the community for similar services by comparable attorneys. See Blum, 465 U.S. at 895 n.11. Arulanantham states that the ACLU polls Los Angeles attorneys and then sets its attorneys' hourly rates "at or near the low end of the spectrum." Sobel states that she has analyzed the fees charged by and awarded to Southern California attorneys in a variety of civil rights and other contexts. In Sobel's opinion, Gomez-Sanchez's requested enhanced hourly rates are reasonable. In Tolchin's opinion, the requested enhanced hourly rates are "well within the range of reasonable rates for attorneys of their skill, experience, and reputation in Southern California."

these examples with the fee requests and awards accompanying her declaration.

This court relied in part on a declaration by Sobel to award $300 to $335 enhanced hourly rates for Arulanantham's 2004 to 2006 work in Nadarajah, 569 F.3d at 916-918.

The government submits nothing to refute Arulanantham's, Sobel's, and Tolchin's declarations, and fails to meet its own "burden of rebuttal that requires submission of evidence . . . challenging the accuracy and reasonableness of the . . . facts asserted by the prevailing party in its submitted affidavits." Gates v. Deukmejian, 987 F.2d 1392, 1397-98 (9th Cir. 1992). Gomez-Sanchez's requested enhanced hourly rates are reasonable, and they are awarded. See Blum, 465 U.S. at 895 n.11; see also Ingram v. Oroudjian, 647 F.3d 925, 928 (9th Cir. 2011) (court also may rely on its own knowledge of prevailing market hourly rates).

b. Cost-Of-Living-Adjusted EAJA Statutory Maximum Hourly Rates

The government does not object to the requested cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates for attorneys Alexander and Markovitz, and they are awarded. But the government objects to the requested cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates for paralegal Tien, arguing that Gomez-Sanchez has not provided evidence of prevailing market hourly rates for paralegals and that a paralegal should not be compensated at the same hourly rates as attorneys. This objection lacks merit.

The requested cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates for paralegal Tien are in line with prevailing market rates for comparable paralegals, and they are awarded. See Blum, 465 U.S. at 895 & n.11. According to their website, after serving as a legal assistant at the Federal Public Defender's office, Tien joined the ACLU of Southern California as a paralegal in 2007, and she is now the director of advocacy support.

Arulanantham states that the requested cost-of-living-adjusted EAJA statutory maximum hourly rates for paralegal Tien are comparable to hourly rates awarded for paralegals in other EAJA litigation. The court may also rely on its own knowledge of prevailing market hourly rates for paralegals. See Ingram, 647 F.3d at 928. Moreover, EAJA caps paralegal and attorney fees at the same rate; Congress was not troubled that paralegals' fees could be recovered at a greater percentage of their full market value than attorneys fees' could be recovered under EAJA. See Richlin Sec. Serv. v. Chertoff, 553 U.S. 571, 587-88 (2008).

2. Reasonably Expended Hours

Gomez-Sanchez requests 232.93 hours for the attorneys' and paralegal's preparation of a petition for review, a motion to proceed in forma pauperis, a motion to stay proceedings pending completion of the remand, two status reports, four notices regarding counsel, six motions for extensions of time or supplements to such motions, a 10,367-word opening brief, a 6,952-word reply brief, a hearing acknowledgment notice, a supplemental authorities citation, a letter to the court, a petition for panel rehearing, a fee motion, and a fee reply, as well as for Vakili's appearance at oral argument in San Francisco.

Arulanantham states that he analyzed the time records and eliminated duplicative or unnecessary hours, including some of Alexander's time for researching issues not critical to the fee motion. The government objects to the requested 232.93 hours, arguing that they are excessive and should be substantially reduced. (Gomez Sanchez originally requested more hours but, in reply to certain objections by the government, Gomez-Sanchez submitted corrected time records and reduced the requested hours.)

a. Level Of Success

The government argues that Gomez-Sanchez's requested hours should be reduced, because the court did not address Gomez-Sanchez's argument that the agency's determination that mental health can never be considered as a factor in the particularly serious crime determination violates the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. § 794. See Gomez-Sanchez, 892 F.3d at 997 n.11. The government argues

Gomez-Sanchez's prevailing arguments and the unaddressed Rehabilitation Act argument were related because they involved a common core of facts or were based on related legal theories. See Hensley, 461 U.S. at 435; Ibrahim, 912 F.3d at achievement. See Ibrahim, 912 F.3d at 1178. Courts have uniformly declined to apportion fees where full relief was granted on some claims, rendering it unnecessary to reach related claims. See Ibrahim, 912 F.3d at 1173. Also, the Rehabilitation Act argument was not lost or unsuccessful; the court decided it was unnecessary to address it. Id. Because Gomez-Sanchez obtained excellent results on review, his attorneys should recover a fully compensable fee. See Hensley, 461 U.S. at 435. Gomez-Sanchez's level of success makes his attorneys' hours reasonably expended on the litigation as a whole a satisfactory basis for the fee award. See Hensley, 461 U.S. at 434; Ibrahim, 912 F.3d at 1178.

b. Correspondence Regarding Gathering Fee Records

The government objects to a portion of 1.33 hours block billed by Arulanantham in part for correspondence regarding gathering fee records, arguing that the government should not have to pay for time spent seeking to reconstruct Iguina's lost records and that the work was clerical in nature. See Missouri v. Jenkins, 491 U.S. 274, 288 n.10 (1989). Gomez-Sanchez replies that most of the record-gathering time was billed by an administrative assistant and not included in the fee request. Gomez-Sanchez contends that it was most efficient for Arulanantham to perform this particular work, because of his unique awareness of who worked on the case and when they did so.

Nevertheless, the record-gathering work was not legal in nature, and it may not be billed at an attorney's hourly rate, regardless of who performed it. Id.

Arulanantham block billed the work with other tasks, so the court cannot determine what portion of time he spent on it. See Welch v. Metro. Life Ins. Co., 480 F.3d 942, 948 (9th Cir. 2007). The entire 1.33 hours ($1,044.05 in fees) are disallowed.

c. Moot And Oral Argument Travel

Gomez-Sanchez objects to 11.5 hours billed by Vakili for moot and oral argument travel, arguing that the time should be disallowed or awarded at half of the EAJA statutory maximum hourly rate. Gomez-Sanchez argues that it is not clear whether Vakili worked on this matter or worked at all during the travel, citing Furtado v. Bishop, 635 F.2d 915, 922 (1st Cir. 1980). In reply, Gomez-Sanchez submits Vakili's declaration stating that he worked on this case during 4.83 hours of train travel to and from San Diego to Los Angeles for the moot, preparing for the moot and following up on matters arising from the moot. Vakili also states that he worked on the case during 3.67 hours of plane travel from San Diego to San Francisco for the oral argument, finalizing his preparations for oral argument.

Vakili's 8.5 hours of travel while working on this matter were reasonably expended, and these hours are awarded at Vakili's enhanced hourly rate. See Davis v. City & Cnty. of San Francisco, 976 F.2d 1536, 1543 (9th Cir. 1992); Henry v.

Webermeier, 738 F.2d 188, 194 (7th Cir. 1984). Because Vakili does not state if he worked on another case during his 3 hours of return travel from the oral argument, these hours ($1,770 in fees) are disallowed. See Henry, 738 F.2d at 194.

d. Other Objections

The government's objection to Iguina's billing of 3.17 hours and 3.83 hours for the same work on the same date lacks merit. Iguina reasonably expended 7 hours in one day reviewing the administrative record and relevant case law and drafting a litigation memorandum for approval of the litigation. See Hensley, 461 U.S. at 433-34; Moreno v. City of Sacramento, 534 F.3d 1106, 1112 (9th Cir. 2008). The government's objection to discrepancies in the hours that Arulanantham and Vikili billed for the same activities also lacks merit. In reply, Vakili states that Arulanantham left moots or co-counsel calls earlier than he did.

The government argues that Iguina's reconstruction of 40 hours based on the other attorneys' time records, after her post-August 2015 time records were lost, makes it difficult to determine the hours' accuracy or reasonableness. The government also questions the reliability of the recordkeeping, and requests reduction of the fee award on this ground. These arguments lack merit.

Although the court prefers contemporaneous records, they are not absolutely necessary. See Fischer v. SJB-P.D. Inc., 214 F.3d 1115, 1121 (9th Cir. 2000).

A review of the time records, the docket, the briefs and other pleadings, and the oral argument reveals no excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary hours. See Hensley, 461 U.S. at 434. No other clerical work was billed at attorney or paralegal hourly rates. See Jenkins, 491 U.S. at 288 n.10. Gomez-Sanchez's attorneys and paralegal reasonably expended the remaining 228.6 hours, and these hours are awarded. See Hensley, 461 U.S. at 433-34; Moreno, 534 F.3d at 1112.

Gomez-Sanchez is awarded $107,146.37 in attorneys' fees.

Gomez-Sanchez requests $57.52 in costs for a FedEx delivery to the court and for Pacer research. The government argues that these costs should be denied because Gomez-Sanchez did not file a timely bill of costs, citing Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 39(d)(1) and Haselwander v. McHugh, 797 F.3d 1, 2 (D.C. 2015). This argument lacks merit. Only certain limited costs for copying the briefs and excerpts of record are taxable in a cost bill. See Fed. R. App. P. 39(c); 9th Cir. R. 39-1.1 - 1.3. Gomez-Sanchez's requested costs are non-taxable, and they may be included in an EAJA fee award. See Grove v. Wells Fargo Fin. Cal., Inc., 606 F.3d 577, 579-82 (9th Cir. 2010); Trs. of Constr. Indus. & Laborers Health & Welfare Trust, 460 F.3d 1253, 1257-59 (9th Cir. 2006). Gomez-Sanchez's requested non-taxable costs are reasonable, and they are awarded.

III Conclusion

Pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, attorneys' fees and non-taxable costs in the amount of $107,203.89 are awarded in favor of Guillermo Gomez-Sanchez and against William P. Barr, Attorney General.

This order amends the court's mandate.

("MFACS," Dkt. No. 90.) On November 7, 2018, Plaintiffs moved for attorneys' fees and costs. ("MAF," Dkt. No. 86.) These matters are unopposed. The Court held a hearing on these matters on February 11, 2019. Upon consideration of the papers filed in support of these motions, as well as oral arguments presented by the parties, the Court GRANTS Plaintiff's MFACS and GRANTS Plaintiffs' MAF.

I. BACKGROUND

On May 20, 2015 Plaintiffs filed a Second Amended Complaint against Defendants Sheriff John McMahon, Greg Garland, Jeff Rose, Sergeant James Mahan, Corporal Armando Castillo, the County of San Bernardino ("the County"), and San Bernardino Sheriff's Department ("SBCSD") (collectively "Defendants"). ("SAC," Dkt. 37.) Plaintiffs sue each individual defendant in both his individual and official capacity. (Id.) Plaintiffs allege three causes of action: (1) violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for depriving Plaintiffs of equal protection afforded by the 14th Amendment based on sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender; (2) violation of [Cal. Civ. Govt. Code § 1135(A) by the County, SBCSD, and McMahon. (Id.)

On August 15, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement. On September 10, 2018, the Court granted the preliminary approval of this class action settlement and granted conditional certification of the proposed settlement classes. ("Preliminary Approval Order," Dkt. No. 84.) In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court ordered:

1. The Settlement Agreement is preliminarily approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate for members of the settlement class.
2. The following settlement classes are certified for settlement purpose only:

Damages Class: Individuals who, between October 22, 2012 (two years prior to the filing of the original complaint, which is the statute of limitations period under 42 U.S.C. § 1983) and March 31, 2018 (the end of the month in which the settlement was reached in principle) were gay, bisexual, and/or transgender inmates housed in the Alternative Lifestyle Tank of the San Bernardino County Jail facility known as West Valley Detention Center.
 - *2 b. Injunctive Relief Class: Individuals who currently are, or in the future will be, gay, bisexual, and/or transgender inmates housed in the San Bernardino County jails, including but not limited to those housed in the Alternative Lifestyle Tank.

3. Barrett S. Litt, David McLane, and Lindsay Battles of Kaye, McLane, Bednarski & Litt, and Melissa Goodman, Amanda Goad, Brendan Hamme, and Aditi Fruitwala of the ACLU Foundation of Southern California are appointed as class counsel for purposes of settlement only.
 4. Named Plaintiffs Pedro Guzman, Nick Ou, Sean Lint, Anthony Oliver, Timothy Walker, Ilich Vargas, William Kennedy, Jonathan Robertson, Steve Aka Lynn Price, Bryan Bagwell, Christopher Crawford, Frederick Crockan, Taheash White, Michael Aka Madison Hatfield, and Kevin Aka Veronica Pratt are qualified to act as representatives of the settlement classes and are preliminarily appointed as class representatives.
 5. JND Legal Administration is appointed as the settlement administrator.
 6. The settlement notice, as set forth in Exhibit B to the Settlement Motion, is approved in form and substance for use in the administration of the Settlement Agreement. The Court grants the parties the authority to finalize the contact information, website address, response dates, and fairness hearing dates in accordance with this Order.
 7. JND Legal Administration is directed to mail the notice and claim form to all individuals entitled to receive notice within two weeks of this Order.
 8. Settlement class members will have until January 7, 2019 to file a claim, opt-out, or file an objection to the Settlement Agreement.
 9. The final approval hearing will be scheduled for February 11, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 1 of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, Eastern Division located at 3470 12th Street, Riverside, California 92501.

II. THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Plaintiffs filed a Settlement Agreement on August 15, 2018. (“Settlement Agreement,” Dkt. No. 78.) The Court preliminarily approved the Settlement Agreement on September 10, 2018. (Preliminary Approval Order.) The terms of the Settlement Agreement are discussed below.

A. Settlement Classes

The settlement classes for the purposes of the settlement of this case include both a Damages Class and an Injunctive Relief Class.

The Damages Class includes “individuals who, between October 22, 2012 (two years prior to the filing of the original complaint, which is the statute of limitations period under 42 U.S.C. § 1983) and March 31, 2018 (the end of the month in which the settlement was reached in principle) self-identified as gay, bisexual and/or transgender inmates (“GBT inmates”) housed in the Alternative Lifestyle Tank (“ALT”) of the San Bernardino County Jail facility known as West Valley Detention Center (“WVDC”).” (Settlement Agreement § 1, ¶ 10.)

The Injunctive Relief Class includes “individuals who currently are, or in the future will be, GBT inmates housed in the San Bernardino County jails, including but not limited to those housed in the ALT.” (Id. § 1, ¶ 18.) The finalized class list consisted of 660 individuals. (“Keough Declaration,” Dkt. No. 92 ¶ 4.)

B. Release

All settlement class members agree to release their claims as follows:

*3 The Settlement Agreement, as of the Effective Date, resolves in full all claims against the Released Persons³ by all of the SCMs,⁴ including the Named Plaintiffs, involving violations of law or constitutional rights, including, without limitation, their equal protection rights under federal and California law, their rights under California Civil Code § 52.1, any other rights under any other federal, state or local law, regulation, duty, or obligation, or any other legal theory, action or cause of action, which arise from the class-wide factual allegations alleged in the complaint, as well as any claim regarding the bus transportation of transgender inmates (hereafter “Covered Claims”).

When the Settlement Agreement is final, as of the Effective Date, all SCMs, including the Named Plaintiffs, waive all rights to any and all claims relating to damages or reimbursement of any kind for the Covered Claims. This waiver and release shall include a full release and waiver of unknown rights regarding the Covered Claims that may exist as of the Effective Date.

As of the Effective Date, the SCMs, including the Named Plaintiffs, hereby waive any and all rights to pursue, initiate, prosecute, or commence any action or proceeding before any court, administrative agency or other tribunal, or to file any complaint regarding acts or omissions by the Released Persons with respect to the Covered Claims during the Class Period that fit within the definition of the Damages Class; and further, as it relates to this waiver or Release, expressly waive the provisions of California Civil Code § 1542, which provides that “a general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.”

Any Class Member who does not Opt-Out as set forth in this Settlement Agreement, shall be deemed conclusively to have become an SCM and to be bound by the Settlement Agreement and all subsequent proceedings, orders and judgments herein, regardless of whether s/he files a claim form.

(Settlement Agreement § VI, ¶¶ 21-23, 45.)

C. Financial Terms

Below is an overview of the financial terms of the Settlement Agreement:

- Gross settlement amount (“Class Fund”): $950,000.00
- Expert, consulting, mediation costs $36,304.49
- Settlement administration costs: $37,500.00⁵
- Service award to class representatives: $55,500.00⁶
- Net settlement amount: $818,195.51
- Attorneys' fees and costs: $1,100,000.00⁷

(MFACS at 3.)

*4 The Class Fund is non-reversionary. (Settlement Agreement § IV, ¶ 11.) However, if 11 to 24 Damages Class members opt-out of the class, Defendants will receive a credit against the Class Fund based on the amount each individual opt-out was due under the initial formula. (Settlement Agreement § XI, ¶ 48.) The credit is not available if 10 or fewer Damages Class Members opt-out. (Id.) If 25 or more

Damages Class members or any Named Plaintiffs opt-out, Defendants have the option to use the same credit formula or rescind the Settlement Agreement. (Id. § XI, ¶ 49.) No damages class members opted out of the settlement. (Keough Decl. ¶17.)

1. Damages Class Members

Each Damages Class member is eligible to receive payment. Individual settlement amounts to class participants are paid from the net settlement amount. The portion of the net settlement amount payable to each Damages Class participant will be calculated through a points-based formula. (Settlement Agreement § IV, ¶¶ 8-9.) The total points for each participant will be added together, and each participant's recovery will be a percentage of the net settlement amount based on that class member's percentage of the total points for participants making timely claims. (Id. § IV, ¶ 9.) In addition to this formula, there is a recovery floor of $40 per participant and a recovery ceiling of $10,000 per participant. (Id. § IV, ¶ 10.) This recovery ceiling “is to ensure that outliers who have outsized claims do not distort the meaningfulness of the recovery to the remaining class members. (Such outliers would be entitled to opt out and pursue their own claims if they so chose.)” (Id.)

The formula to calculate the points each Damages Class member receives is designed to account for the fact that the severity of the challenged conditions varied over time and depended on an inmate's sentencing status, security classification, and work eligibility. (MFACS at 5-6.) Those Damages Class members who were low security risks were more adversely affected by the challenged conditions because they would have received more out-of-cell time than inmates deemed a higher security risk. (Id.) Additionally, all Damages Class members were denied access to certain programs whose availability varied based on sentencing status and work eligibility. (Id.) Finally, the challenged conditions before October 14, 2014 were more restrictive and receive higher point values than conditions after October 14, 2014. (Id.) Based on these considerations and others addressed in the Settlement Motion, Plaintiffs divide these confinement conditions into nine categories and assign point values depending on their relative severity. (Settlement Agreement § IV, ¶ 8.) Points are assigned for each day a Damages Class member was incarcerated in a given category and aggregated. (Id.) Below are the nine per diem categories and corresponding point values:

- Category 1: Sentenced, work-eligible (Pre-October 2014) 100
 - Category 2: Sentenced, not work-eligible (Pre-October 2014) 60
 - Category 3: Pre-sentenced, lower security risk (Pre-October 2014) 55
 - Category 4: Pre-sentenced, higher security risk (Pre-October 2014) 45
 - Category 5: Pre-sentenced, unknown security risk (Pre-October 2014) 45
 - Category 6: Sentenced, work-eligible, no job (Post-October 2014) 65
 - Category 7: Sentenced, work-eligible, inferior job (Post-October 2014) 50
 - Category 8: Sentenced, not work-eligible (Post-October 2014) 35
 - Category 9: Pre-sentenced (Post-October 2014) 20
- (Id. § IV, ¶ 8.)

As of the time of the MFACS, Claim Forms from 165 class members have been approved. (MFACS at 3.) This represents approximately 25% of the total 655 class members. (Id. at 11) Based on this number, the mean recovery is $4,000-$5,000. (Id.) On February 7, 2019 Plaintiffs filed a notice of additional late claims. (“Late Claims Notice,” Dkt. No. 94.) Counsel has been made aware that two claims were filed after the January 7, 2019 cut-off date and that additional class members were incarcerated and did not receive the Class Notice. (Id.) As of February 4, 2019, the Claim Administrator has received ten additional claims. (Id.) Plaintiffs request this Court approve the payment of these ten late claims and any claims postmarked as of February 11, 2019. (Id.) Additionally, class representative Frederick Crockan has attempted to file his claim on multiple occasions, but his claim forms have not been received by the Class Administrator. (Id.) Plaintiffs request the Court deem Crockan to have filed a timely claim. (Id.) Further, Mr. Joe Raymond Fierro, a verified class member, never received a claim form. (“Additional Late Claim Notice,” Dkt. No. 95.) Plaintiffs request the court deem Mr. Fierro to have timely filed a claim. (Id.) At the February 11, 2019 hearing Defendants represented they do not oppose this request. Finally, on February 22, 2019, Counsel filed an ex parte application regarding the late filing of Andrew Afoa, who, due to no fault of his own, never received a claim form prior to the cut-off date. (Dkt. No. 98.) Counsel notes Defendant's counsel has no objection to the ex parte application. (Id.) The Court APPROVES these requests.

2. Class Representatives

*5 The Settlement Agreement provides a total of $55,500 of the gross settlement amount to the Named Plaintiffs. (Settlement Agreement § IV, ¶ 3.) There are 14 Named Plaintiffs, and each would receive between $2,000 to $5,500 depending on counsel's assessment of their contributions to the litigation. (Id.) The Settlement Agreement proposes exact amounts for each of the Named Plaintiffs in paragraph 3.

3. Settlement Administration Costs

The settlement administrator, JND Legal Administration (“JND” or “Administrator”), will be paid from the gross settlement amount. (Id. § IV, ¶ 2.) Class counsel requested bids and selected the most reasonable bid based on price, scope of services, and capabilities of the administrator. (Id. § IX, ¶ 31.) In its bid JND estimated the administration to have a maximum of $40,000. (Id. § IV, ¶ 2.) The cost of administration totaled the $40,000 indicated in the Settlement Agreement. (MFACS at 3; Keough Decl. ¶ 22.) At the February 11, 2019, Defendants counsel informed the Court that the County has already paid $2,500 of the total Claims Administration cost as a deposit, making the outstanding total $37,500.

4. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

Class counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees separate from the gross settlement amount. (Settlement Agreement § IV, ¶ 12.) Class counsel seeks $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees and costs in a separate motion under 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and Cal. Civ. Code § 52.1(h), which provide attorneys' fees for prevailing plaintiffs. (See MAF at 2.) This amount was independently negotiated with the assistance of a professional mediator and, in order to effectuate the settlement, substantially discounted below the amounts Plaintiffs would have sought in an attorneys' fees motion. (Id. at 12; Settlement Agreement § IV ¶ 13.)

D. Injunctive Relief

The Settlement Agreement also provides for injunctive relief over a three-year period. (MFACS at 16, “Injunctive Relief Agreement,” Dkt. No 90-2 at 15.) The terms of the injunctive relief are detailed in Exhibit 2 and include the development of policies not yet drafted. (Id. at 16.) Defendants estimate the resources associated with these Injunctive Terms will be approximately $500,000 per year. (Id.)

There are nine parts to the proposed Injunctive Terms: (1) create the PREA-GBTI Committee (“the Committee”)⁸; (2) establish policies for Housing and Classification Issues; (3) establish inmate worker options for GTBI inmates; (4) require access to programming; (5) require equal tier time for GTBI inmates; (6) require training on GTBI, PREA, and sexual harassment issues for staff, contractors, volunteers, and other inmates; (7) require specific policies for transgender inmates; (8) establish a zero-tolerance policy for harassment and ensuring PREA compliance; and (9) establish procedures to enforce the Settlement Agreement. (See generally “Injunctive Terms,” Dkt. No 78-3.)

Importantly, these terms include provisions to ensure that GTBI inmates have comparable access as their peers in general population to programming, education, religious services, tier time, and work. Additionally, the terms provide for housing that considers an inmate's sexual orientation and gender identity when making assignments, and considers a GTBI inmate's preferences. Finally, the terms provide specific policies needed to address the needs of transgender inmates, including housing assignment, choice as to the gender of deputies performing searches, and access to hormonal medication to treat gender dysphoria. (See generally Injunctive Terms; see also MFACS at 14.)

*6 The complete text of the Injunctive Terms is available at Dkt. No. 78-3.

E. Notice

The Settlement Agreement proposed the following procedure to notify the settlement class members of the Settlement Agreement. The Administrator will be responsible for mailing class notice and the claim form to class members at their last known address. (Settlement Agreement § IX, ¶ 32.) The Administrator will use customary means to search for the last known address and do “whatever else is reasonably appropriate in order to reasonably notify Class Members” (Id.) Additionally, Defendants will post a summary notice in the ALT for the duration of the class notice period with a statement that the full notice will be provided on request. (Id.)

The class notice describes the particulars of this case, provides the class definition, provides information for claimants to contact the Administrator, notifies the Damages Class members of the case website, and contains a series of questions and answers to help explain the Settlement Agreement. (Id. ¶ 34; see also “Class Notice,” Dkt. No. 81-2.) The Administrator will mail the class notice as soon as practicable after preliminary approval. (Settlement Agreement § IX, ¶ 35.) The Administrator will include in the physical mailing a claim form. (Id. § X, ¶ 37.) In addition to physical mail, the Administrator will also gather, to the extent reasonably possible and cost effective, email addresses of class members. (Id. § IX, ¶ 36.) A claim form will be timely submitted if it is received before the cutoff date, which Plaintiffs propose should be January 7, 2019. (Proposed Order at 3.) If a class member submits a deficient claim form the Administrator will provide mail notice of the deficiency and give the class member 30 days to provide a proper form. (Settlement Agreement § X, ¶ 39.) If the original form is received before the cutoff date, the corrected claim will still be considered timely. (Id.)

A class member who wishes to opt-out of the Damages Class must submit a request to be excluded to the Administrator before the cutoff date. (Id. § XI, ¶ 43.) Class members who do not timely opt-out of the Damages Class are deemed to have participated in the settlement and will be bound by the Settlement Agreement and all subsequent proceedings, even if s/he did not file a claim form. (Id. ¶ 45.)

F. Performance of the Settlement Agreement

JND Legal Administration is serving as the settlement administrator. (Settlement Agreement IX, ¶ 31.) The Administrator received 165 approved Claim Forms from individuals identified as Settlement Class Members. (Keough Decl. ¶ 21.) Four Claim Forms have been denied as duplicative. (Id.) 382 Claim Forms were submitted by individuals who do not appear on the Class List. (Id.) Two Claim Forms were missing signatures or other required information and were deemed deficient. (Id.) An additional two Claim Forms were received as of January 14, 2019 with postmarks dated after the January 7, 2019 deadline. (Id.) The claims administrator has received a total of 555 claims to date. (Id.) On February 7, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a Late Claim Notice informing the Court that 10 late claims were filed. (Late Claims Notice.) The Court granted Plaintiffs' request to approve the payment of these late claims. See supra Part II.C.1.

III. Legal Standard

A. Class Action Settlement

*7 Class action settlements must be approved by the Court. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). Whether to approve a class action settlement is “committed to the sound discretion of the trial judge.” Class Plaintiffs v. Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992). A strong judicial policy favors settlement of class actions. See id.

Nevertheless, the Court must examine the settlement as a whole for overall fairness. See Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Neither district courts nor appellate courts have the power to delete, modify, or substitute provisions in the negotiated settlement agreement. See id. “The settlement must stand or fall in its entirety.” Id.

In order to approve the class action settlement herein, the Court must conduct a three-step inquiry. See Adoma v. Univ. of Phoenix, Inc., 913 F. Supp. 2d 964, 972 (E.D. Cal. 2012). First, it assesses whether the parties have met notice requirements under the Class Action Fairness Act. Id. Next, it determines whether the notice requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) have been satisfied. Id. Finally, the Court must find that the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate under Rule 23(e)(3). Id.

B. Attorneys' Fees

Class Counsel also requests approval of its request for attorneys' fees. In the Ninth Circuit, the court has discretion to use either a percentage of the fund or a lodestar approach in compensating class counsel. See, e.g., Paul, Johnson, Alston & Hunt v. Graulity, 886 F.2d 268, 272 (9th Cir. 1989); In re Washington Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Lit., 19 F.3d 1291, 1295 (9th Cir. 1994). When a statutory fee is available, such a statutory fee award is appropriate independent of the class damages fund. See Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 972 (9th Cir. 2003) (“in a class action involving both a statutory fee-shifting provision and an actual or putative common fund, the parties may negotiate and settle the amount of statutory fees along with the merits of the case, ...[and] the amount of such attorneys' fees can be approved if they meet the reasonableness standard when measured against statutory fee principles”). Here, a statutory fee is available under both 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and Cal. Civ. Code § 52.1(h). “The ‘lodestar method’ is appropriate in class actions brought under fee-shifting statutes (such as federal civil rights, securities, antitrust, copyright, and patent acts), where the relief sought—and obtained—is often primarily injunctive in nature and thus not easily monetized...” In re Bluetooth Headset Prod. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 941 (9th Cir. 2011).

The lodestar figure is calculated by multiplying the number of hours the prevailing party reasonably expended on the litigation (supported by adequate documentation) by a reasonable hourly rate for the region and for the experience of the lawyer. Staton 325 F.3d at 965. Statutory attorneys' fees are not correlated to the size of recovery but instead look to the attorneys' reasonable hours and rates, as well as the public benefit conferred by the litigation. See City of Riverside v. Rivera, 477 U.S. 561, 575 (1986).

IV. Rule 23 Requirements

A. Rule 23(a) and (b)

In its Preliminary Approval Order, the Court certified the Settlement Classes in this matter under Rules 23(a) and 23(b)(2) and (3). (Preliminary Approval Order at 3–8.) Accordingly, the Court “need not find anew that the settlement class[es] meet[] the certification requirements of Rule 23(a) and (b).” Adoma, 913 F. Supp. 2d at 974; see also Harris v. Vector Marketing, No. C–08–5198, 2012 WL 381202 at *3 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2012) (“As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that it previously certified ... a Rule 23(b)(3) class ... [and thus] need not analyze whether the requirements for certification have been met and may focus instead on whether the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.”); In re Apollo Group Inc. Securities Litigation, Nos. CV 04–2147–PHX–JAT, CV 04–2204–PHX–JAT, CV 04–2334–PHX–JAT, 2012 WL 1378677 at *4 (D. Ariz. Apr. 20, 2012). Here, the Settlement Classes have not changed since they were conditionally certified. All the criteria for class certification remain satisfied, and the Court hereby confirms its order certifying the Settlement Classes.

B. Rule 23(c)(2) Notice Requirements

*8 Rule 23(c)(2)(B) requires the Court “direct to class members the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). Similarly, Rule 23(e)(1) requires a proposed settlement may only be approved after notice is directed in a reasonable manner to all class members who would be bound by the agreement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1). In its Preliminary Approval Order, the Court approved the notice sent to Settlement Class members. The claims administrator timely mailed the Notice Packet, provided e-mail notice, established a toll-free number to provide information on the settlement, created a settlement website, and advertised the settlement on the internet through Facebook. (Keough Declaration ¶¶ 7–15.) The Court therefore finds that notice to the Settlement Class was adequate.

C. Rule 23(e)

Under Rule 23(e), “the claims, issues, or defenses of a certified class may be settled ... only with the court’s approval.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). “The primary concern of [Rule 23(e)] is the protection of those class members, including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating parties.” Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n of City & Cnty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 624 (9th Cir. 1982). The Court’s inquiry is procedural in nature. Id. Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(2), “[i]f the proposal would bind class members, the court may approve it only after a hearing and on finding that it is fair, reasonable, and adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The Court held a final approval hearing on February 11, 2019. In determining whether a settlement agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to all concerned, the Court may consider some or all of the following factors:

- (1) the strength of the plaintiff’s case;
- (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation;
- (3) the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial;
- (4) the amount offered in settlement;
- (5) the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of the proceedings;
- (6) the experience and views of counsel;
- (7) the presence of a governmental participant; and
- (8) any opposition by class members.

Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir. 1998). This list of factors is not exclusive and a court may balance and weigh different factors depending on the circumstances of each case. See Torrisi v. Tucson Elec. Power Co., 8 F.3d 1370, 1376 (9th Cir. 1993).

1. Strength of Plaintiffs’ Case

The initial fairness factor addresses Plaintiffs’ likelihood of success on the merits. See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 964–65 (9th Cir. 2009). In determining the probability of Plaintiffs’ success on the merits, there is no “particular formula by which that outcome must be tested.” Id. at 965.

Plaintiffs considered their liability case to be strong, especially since California expressly applies strict scrutiny to claims of sexual orientation discrimination. (MFACS at 9.) However, Defendants similarly believe they have a strong defense in asserting that Plaintiffs made voluntary and informed decisions to be housed in the ALT. (Id.) Additionally, Defendants contest that a proper comparison for GBT inmates are general population inmates, and instead assert that protective custody inmates are the proper comparison group. (Id.)

Given the challenges Plaintiffs would face in continued litigation over such issues, the Court finds this factor weighs in favor of approval.

2. Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

Plaintiffs’ counsel acknowledges the risk, expense, and likely duration of litigation. (MFACS at 10-11.) Plaintiffs anticipate that even with what they perceive to be strong claims, litigation would take several years. (Id.) This would also greatly increase the costs of litigation. At this stage, Plaintiffs’ counsel already seek $1,100,000 in attorneys’ fees and costs, and at a substantially discounted rate. (Id. at 7.) Stretched over years of potential litigation, this sum would be substantially larger.

*9 The risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation weigh in favor of final approval. Without the Settlement Agreement, the parties would be required to litigate class certification, as well as the ultimate merits of the case—a process which the Court acknowledges is long, complex, and expensive. Settlement of this matter will conserve the resources of this Court and the parties, thus weighing heavily in favor of final approval.

3. Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Throughout the Trial

Because the Court is not aware of any risks to maintaining class-action status throughout trial, this factor is neutral. Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Sols. Corp., 297 F.R.D. 431, 445 (E.D. Cal. 2013); see also In re Veritas Software Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 03–0283, 2005 WL 3096079, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 15, 2005) (vacated in part on other grounds, 496 F.3d 962 (9th Cir. 2007)) (favoring neither approval nor disapproval of settlement where the court was “unaware of any risk involved in maintaining class action status”); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc., 266 F.R.D. 482, 489 (E.D. Cal. 2010) (finding that there were no facts that would defeat class treatment, the factor was considered “neutral” for purposes of final approval of class settlement).

4. Amount Offered in Settlement

In determining whether the amount offered in settlement is fair, a court compares the settlement amount to the parties' estimates of the maximum amount of damages recoverable in a successful litigation. In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000), as amended (June 19, 2000).

In valuing this litigation, Plaintiffs' Counsel estimated each class members would recover a few thousand dollars. (MFACS at 9.) Under this Settlement, the average recovery for claiming class members is $4,000-5,000. (Id.) Additionally, Plaintiffs' Counsel considers the monetary recovery highly favorable when compare to other class actions for damages in the jail context involving over-detentions and strip searches. (Id. at 10.)

Plaintiffs also believe that the Injunctive Terms contribute significant additional value. (Id.) Plaintiffs' counsel, who are experienced in class action litigation regarding civil rights issues, believe the Injunctive Terms are “groundbreaking” and a “model in many respects.” (Id. at 10-11.) Plaintiffs' counsel determined that the benefit to the class of this injunctive relief was of such value that they agreed to a significantly reduced fee in return. (Id.)

The Court finds this factor weighs in favor of final approval.

5. Extent of Discovery Completed and Stage of the Proceedings

This factor requires the Court evaluate whether “the parties have sufficient information to make an informed decision about settlement.” Linney, 151 F.3d at 1239.

Plaintiffs assert they negotiated with Defendants at arms' length and without collusion, which is evidenced by the extensive discovery and mediation process. (MFACS at 14.) Plaintiffs conducted extensive document discovery. (Id. at 12.) Although Plaintiffs did not conduct depositions, there were several meetings with Defendants' counsel to address issues regarding jail operations. (Id.) SBCSD provided both formal and informal discovery concerning the operation and conditions of general population inmates as well as ALT inmates. (Id.) Additionally, Plaintiffs' counsel inspected with an expert consultant WVDC premises where GBT and non-GBT inmates are housed, as well as the Glen Helen Rehabilitation Center. (Id.) The parties further held several in-person settlement conferences through private mediation before the Hon. Carla Woehrl (Ret.). (Id. at 2.)

*10 The Court finds the parties have engaged in substantial investigation of the facts and the applicable law. This factor weighs in favor of granting final approval of the Settlement Agreement.

6. Experience and Views of Counsel

“Great weight is accorded to the recommendation of counsel, who are most closely acquainted with the facts of the underlying litigation.” Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (internal citation and quotation marks omitted). Plaintiffs' counsel has extensive experience serving as counsel in civil rights class actions. (MFACS at 13.) Litt is a well-known civil rights lawyer with decades of experience. (MAF at 10). McClane has worked on civil rights and criminal defense cases for the last fifteen years. (Id.) Battles has been practicing civil rights cases for ten years. (Id.) Goodman, Goad, Hamme, Hill, and Fruitwala of ACLU SoCal have 15, 13, 6, 4 and 4 years of experience respectively. (Id.) Counsel further submits that the proposal is fair. (MFACS at 11.) This weighs in favor of final approval.

7. Presence of a Governmental Participant

“The participation of a government agency serves to protect the interests of the class members, particularly absentees, and approval by the agency is an important factor for the court's consideration.” Marshall v. Holiday Magic, Inc., 550 F.2d 1173, 1178 (9th Cir. 1977). Here, the County and SBCSD are government agencies, and as such, their participation and consent to the terms of injunctive relief weigh in favor of approving the settlement.

8. Opposition of Class Members

The existence of overwhelming support for a settlement agreement by the class lends weight to a finding that the settlement agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. at 529 (“It is established that the absence of a large number of objections to a proposed class action settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of a proposed class settlement action are favorable to the class members.”).

Here, the record supports that class members have a positive reaction to the proposed settlement. JND has approved and received 165 Claim Forms. (Keough Decl. ¶ 21.) As of the date of the declaration, the settlement administrator had not received any opt-out requests nor any objections to the settlement. (Id. ¶¶ 17-19.) Assuming this trend continues, this indicates that the classes approve of the settlement. Accordingly, this factor weighs in favor of final approval.

D. Settlement Administration Costs

Plaintiffs seek $40,000 in settlement administration costs, the same amount that this Court preliminarily approved as part of the Settlement Agreement. (MFA at 4; Preliminary Approval Order at 6.) The Court approves $40,000 in administration costs.

E. Incentive Awards

The trial court has discretion to award incentives to the class representatives. See In re Mego, 213 F.3d at 463 (9th Cir. 2000); Pelletz, 592 F. Supp. 2d at 1329. The criteria courts have used in considering the propriety and amount of an incentive award include: (1) the risk to the class representative in commencing a class action, both financial and otherwise; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the class representative; (3) the amount of time and effort invested by the class representative; (4) the duration of the litigation; and (5) the personal benefit, or lack thereof, enjoyed by the class representative. Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co., 901 F. Supp. 294, 299 (N.D. Cal. 1995).

*11 The settlement provides a slight benefit to the 15 Named Plaintiffs (ranging from $2000 to $5,500 in addition to their class member formula award, depending on the role and contribution of the class representative). (MFACS at 17.) Although there is a larger than normal number of class representatives, it is because Class Counsel determined there were several categories of class representatives necessary to represent class members in custody with standing to seek injunctive relief and class members not in custody who were not subject to PLRA restrictions. (Id.) Class Counsel also determined that they needed a larger than usual number of class representatives due to the variety of deprivations at which the Complaint was aimed (e.g., drug treatment, mental health treatment, education, work opportunities), for each of which it was important to have a class representative who personally experienced the deprivation. (Id.)

Here, the class representatives were (either at the time of the filing of the complaint or previously) in SBCSD custody. (Id. at 19.) Those who were in custody exposed themselves to risk of retaliation, and those not in custody were still at risk of re-arrest and retaliation. (Id.) All Named Plaintiffs put their names in the public arena. (Id.) Plaintiffs' counsel spent dozens of hours interviewing class representatives while they were in custody, increasing their potential risk and demonstrating their personal participation in the litigation. (Id.)

Class Counsel asserts the requested amounts are well within the range of court approved incentive payments in recognition of work done on behalf of the class and in consideration of the risk undertaken in bringing the action. (Id.) “An incentive award of $5,000 per class representative is in line with other awards approved in this circuit.” Weeks v. Kellogg Co., No. CV 09-08102 MMM RZX, 2013 WL 6531177, at *37 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 23, 2013). see also In re Online DVD-Rental Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d 934, 943 (9th Cir. 2015) (affirming $5,000 incentive award even though the average class member received only $12); In re Mego, 213 F.3d at 463 (approving a $5,000 incentive award for each class representative).

Given these Named Plaintiffs' involvement in the case and their assumption of significant risk, the Court AWARDS the following incentive awards:

NAME	INCENTIVE AWARD
Bryan Bagwell	$5,000
Frederick Crockan	$5,000

Pedro Guzman	$3,000
Michael Aka Madison Hatfield	$5,000
William Kennedy	$3,000

Kevin Aka Veronica Pratt	$5,500
Steven Aka Lynn Price	$3,000

V. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

Class counsel seeks $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees and costs in a separate motion under 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and Cal. Civ. Code § 52.1\(h\), which provide reasonable attorneys' fees for prevailing plaintiffs. (MFACS at 7.) This amount was independently negotiated with the assistance of a professional mediator and, in order to effectuate the settlement, substantially discounted below the amounts Plaintiffs would have sought in an attorneys' fees motion. (Id.)

A. The Lodestar Approach is Appropriate

The lodestar approach is appropriate because this is a class action brought under fee-shifting statutes where the primary relief sought is injunctive relief. See In re Bluetooth Headset Prod. Liab. Litig., at 941. The Ninth Circuit noted it has “repeatedly made it clear that the level of success achieved by a civil rights plaintiff should be measured by more than the amount of damages awarded.” Morales v. City of San Rafael, 96 F.3d 359, 365 (9th Cir. 1996), opinion amended on denial of reh'g, 108 F.3d 981 (9th Cir. 1997). In Morales, the damages verdict was itself “significant... [and] established a *12 Here, Plaintiffs request $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees, which exceeds the class damages fund. In a case without an available statutory fee, this disparity would be inappropriate. However, in a case like this, it is common for statutory fees to exceed recovered damages, particularly where Plaintiffs obtained significant injunctive relief. Plaintiffs secured injunctive relief on a groundbreaking issue. The parties agree these statutory fees are appropriate. Like in Morales, the relief obtained through this settlement creates a deterrent for state agents has an effect on official policies. The value of this relief is difficult to measure but should not be underestimated given the critical implications for the injunctive class members and the potential for use as a model for other correctional facilities.

Given the nature of this case and the relief granted, this Court finds the lodestar method appropriate in this case.

B. The Requested Fees are Reasonable

Class counsel seeks $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees. (MFACS at 7.) This number was negotiated by the parties with the assistance of a professional mediator and represents a significantly discounted lodestar. (Id.)

District courts using the lodestar method to determine reasonable fees under § 1988 engage in a two-step process. First, courts “apply ... the ‘lodestar’ method to determine what constitutes a reasonable attorney’s fee.” Costa v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec. Admin., 690 F.3d 1132, 1135 (9th Cir. 2012); Morales 96 F.3d at 363; Ballen v. City of Redmond, 466 F.3d 736, 746 (9th Cir. 2006). Second, “[t]he district court may then adjust [the lodestar] upward or downward based on a variety of factors.” Moreno v. City of Sacramento, 534 F.3d 1106, 1111 (9th Cir. 2008). Statutory attorneys’ fees are not correlated to the size of recovery but instead look to the attorney’s reasonable hours and rates, as well as the public benefit conferred by the litigation. See City of Riverside v. Rivera, 477 U.S. 561, 575 (1986).

1. Computation of the Lodestar

Under the lodestar method, the district court “multiplies the number of hours the prevailing party reasonably expended on the litigation by a reasonable hourly rate.” Ballen, 466 F.3d at 746 (internal quotation marks omitted); Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 433 (1983). The product of this computation—the “lodestar figure”—is a “presumptively reasonable” fee under 42 U.S.C. § 1988. See Ballen, 466 F.3d at 746.

a. Reasonable Number of Hours

To calculate attorneys’ fees using the lodestar method, a court must determine the reasonable number of hours for which the prevailing party should be compensated. See, e.g., Fischer v. SJB–P.D. Inc., 214 F.3d 1115, 1119 (9th Cir. 2000). Ultimately, a “reasonable” number of hours equals “[t]he number of hours ... [which] could reasonably have been billed to a private client.” Moreno, 534 F.3d at 1111. The prevailing party has the burden of submitting billing records to establish that the number of hours it has requested is reasonable. See In re Wash. Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 19 F.3d 1291, 1305 (9th Cir. 1994). Thus, to determine whether attorneys for the prevailing party could have reasonably billed the hours they claim to their private clients, a district court should begin with the billing records the prevailing party has submitted. Gonzalez v. City of Maywood, 729 F.3d 1196, 1202 (9th Cir. 2013)

Here, Class Counsel provides billing records that were contemporaneously maintained which detail the time spent working on this case. (“Ex. C,” Dkt. No 87-3; “Ex. E,” Dkt. No. 88-1.) In their MFACS, Plaintiffs provide tables that include each timekeeper who worked on the case and the number of hours they worked. (MFACS at 13.) Billed hours were spent on activities such as extensive document review and analysis, interviewing class representatives and class members, and settlement negotiations. (Id. at 12). Plaintiffs note that negotiating the terms of injunctive relief was particularly time consuming and took several meetings with both the mediator and counsel. (Id.)

*13 The Court has no reason to doubt the number of hours provided by Class Counsel. This is especially true given the substantial discount from Class Counsel’s lodestar total, as negotiated in the settlement. Further, the hours provided by Class Counsel do not account for work done for the MFACS and MAF, ongoing work with the Class Administrator and class members, and an appearance at the final approval hearing. (Id. at 14.) Given these reasons and the time-intensive nature of a settlement involving injunctive relief, this Court finds that Class Counsel billed a reasonable number of hours.

b. Reasonable Hourly Rate

Class Counsel asserts their requested hourly rates are reasonable for attorneys of their skill, experience, and reputation. California law entitles plaintiff attorneys to their requested rates if those rates are “within the range of reasonable rates charged by and judicially awarded comparable attorneys for comparable work.” Children’s Hosp. & Med. Ctr. V. Bonta, 97 Cal. App. 4th, 740, 783 (Cal. Ct. App. 2002). Federal law similarly instructs that “requested rates [should be] in line with those prevailing in the community for similar services of lawyers of reasonably comparable skill and reputation.” Jordan v. Multnomah Cty., 815 F.2d 1258, 1263 (9th Cir. 1987). In making this showing, “affidavits of the plaintiffs’ attorney[s] and other attorneys regarding prevailing fees in the community, and rate determinations in other cases are satisfactory evidence of the prevailing market rate.” Camacho v. Bridgeport Fin., Inc., 523 F.3d 973, 980 (9th Cir. 2008)(internal citations and marks omitted).

In calculating the lodestar, Plaintiffs may adjust for delay in payment. See, e.g., Missouri v. Jenkins, 491 U.S. 274, 282 (1989) (“an appropriate adjustment for delay in payment—whether by the application of current rather than historic hourly rates or otherwise—is within the contemplation of the statute [42 U.S.C. § 1988]”); Barjon v. Dalton, 132 F.3d 496, 502–03 (9th Cir. 1997) (“the district court may choose to apply either the attorney's current rates to all hours billed or the attorney's historic rates plus interest”). Generally, for a “fee award to be reasonable, it must be based on current, rather than historic, hourly rates.” Charlebois v. Angels Baseball LP, 993 F. Supp. 2d 1109, 1119 (C.D. Cal.2012) (citing Jenkins, 491 U.S. at 282) (lodestar award in settled class action).

To demonstrate the reasonableness of Class Counsel's rates, Plaintiffs' attorneys Barrett S. Litt (“Litt”) of Kaye, McClane, Bednarski and Litt (“KMBL”) and Amanda Goad of the ACLU Foundation of Southern California (“ACLU SoCal”) have submitted declarations attesting to their experience litigating federal civil rights class actions and detailing their work on this case. (“Litt Declaration,” Dkt. No. 87; “Goad Declaration,” Dkt. No. 88.) Litt is licensed to practice law in the State of California, the U.S. District Courts in the Central, Eastern, and Northern Districts of California, in the Ninth, Fourth, Fifth, Eleventh, and D.C. Courts of Appeal, and in the United States Supreme Court. (“Ex. B,” Dkt. No. 87-2.) Litt has been practicing for 45 years and has litigated an extensive list of complex civil rights cases, many of which have involved fee-shifting provisions. (Litt Decl. at 30) Litt asserts he bills an hourly rate of $1,150.00. (Id.)

In addition, Litt's declaration provides information as to the experience and billing rates of Plaintiffs' counsel David S. McLane (“McLane”), Lindsay Battles (“Battles”), and Ron Kaye (“Kaye”) of KMBL and Melissa Goodman (“Goodman”), Brendan M. Hamme (“Hamme”), Goad, Tasha Hill (“Hill”) and Aditi Fruitwala (“Fruitwala”) of ACLU SoCal. (Litt Decl. at 30-45.) Litt further provides information regarding the rates of senior paralegal Julia White and junior paralegals Esteban Gil and Rene Arriaza of KMBL, as well as senior paralegal Duaba Gonzalez of ACLU SoCal. (Id.) Litt provides tables supporting the proposition that each member of Plaintiffs' counsel's rates fall within the range of rates for attorneys and paralegals of comparable experience by comparing Plaintiffs' counsels' rates with others working at prominent civil rights firms and organizations in the Central District of California within a close range of experience. (Id.)

attorneys in the forum. The relevant portions of this table state that: attorneys practicing civil rights litigation with 26-49 years of experience bill adjusted lodestar rates of $887-$1230 per hour; attorneys practicing civil rights litigation with 23-33 years of experience bill adjusted lodestar rates of $738-$1220 per hour; attorneys practicing civil rights litigation with 9-15 years of experience bill adjusted lodestar rates of $603-$855 per hour; and attorneys practicing civil rights litigation with 1-6 years of experience billed adjusted lodestar rates of $336-$671 per hour (Id. at 31-43). Litt further notes that fee-paying litigants bringing similar action would pay much higher commercial rates for attorneys of similar or less experience practicing civil rights litigation. (Id.)

Plaintiffs request the hourly rates for attorneys: $875 for McLane, who has 32 years of experience; $600 for Battle, who has 10 years of experience; $875 for Kaye, who has 30 years of experience; $715 for Goodman, who has 15 years of experience; $640 for Goad, who has 13 years of experience; $480 for Hamme, who has six years of experience; $390 for Hill, who has four years of experience; and $390 for Fruitwala, who has four years of experience. (Litt Decl. at 29.) Plaintiffs request the following rates for non-attorney timekeepers: $335 for Julia White, a senior paralegal; $195 for Diana Gonzalez, a senior paralegal; $175 for Rene Arriaza, a junior paralegal; $225 for Sujata Awasthi, a law clerk; $225 for Evan Ettinghoff, a law clerk. (Id.)

The provided tables reflect that the hourly rates of Plaintiffs' attorneys fall within the reasonable range for attorneys of their experience in this district. Further, the fact that counsel seeks a significantly discounted lodestar weighs in favor of finding that the provided rates are reasonable. Plaintiffs' calculated lodestar total is $2,647,267.35. (Id.) They seek only the discounted amount of $1,100,000. (MFACS at 7.) Accordingly, this Court finds the rates, as reflected in Plaintiffs' motion for attorney's fees and costs are reasonable.

2. Adjustments to the Lodestar

After computing the lodestar figure, district courts may adjust that figure pursuant to a “variety of factors.” See Moreno, 534 F.3d at 1111. “[T]he district court accounts for the following factors in the lodestar computation: ‘(1) the novelty and complexity of the issues, (2) the special skill and experience of counsel, (3) the quality of representation, (4) the results obtained, and (5) the contingent nature of the fee agreement.’” Gonzalez v. City of Maywood, 729 F.3d 1196, 1209 (9th Cir. 2013)(citing Kerr v. Screen Guild Extras, Inc., 526 F.2d 67, 70 (9th Cir. 1975)).

The Court has already provided an analysis for many of these factors above, including: (1) the novelty and complexity of the issues; (2) counsel's skill and experience; (4) the results obtained; and (5) the contingent nature of the fee arrangement. In those analyses, the Court found that all these factors weighed in favor of approving the settlement. The Court need not repeat this analysis and finds that these factors weigh in favor of approving Plaintiffs' motion for award of attorney's fees and costs. The Court turns to the remaining factor.

Management of this case involved working with a large number of class representatives, working with two different subclasses, and managing both federal and state law claims. Counsel also compiled and analyzed data over four years. Plaintiffs conducted extensive document discovery. (MAF at 12.) Although Plaintiffs did not conduct depositions, there were several meetings with Defendants' counsel to address issues regarding jail operations. (Id.) Additionally, Plaintiffs' counsel inspected with an expert consultant WVDC premises where GBT and non-GBT inmates are housed, as well as the Glen Helen Rehabilitation Center. (Id.) The parties further held several in-person settlement conferences through private mediation before the Hon. Carla Woehrle (Ret.). (Id. at 2.) The Court finds this factor weighs in favor of approval.

*15 The aforementioned factors weigh in favor of approval. Notably, counsel achieved positive results and already stipulated to a substantially discounted lodestar during settlement. For the reasons stated above, the Court APPROVES Plaintiff's request for $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees.

C. Costs

Federal and state fee shifting statutes allow for reimbursement of litigation expenses that "are normally charged to a fee-paying client, in the course of providing legal services. Reasonable photocopying, paralegal expenses, and travel and telephone costs are thus recoverable pursuant to § 1988." Thornberry v. Delta Air Lines, Inc., 676 F.2d 1240, 1244 (9th Cir. 1982), cert. granted, judgment vacated on other grounds, 461 U.S. 952 (1983).

NAME

Bryan Bagwell

Pedro Guzman

Here, Plaintiffs request costs for travel, investigators, consultants, filing fees, photocopies, printing, scans, messenger services, telephone calls, postage, computerized legal research, and similar costs normally reimbursed by the client. See, e.g., In re Immune Responses Sec Litig., 497 F. Supp. 2d 1166, 1177-78 (S.D. Cal. 2007). Opinions of federal courts are applicable to determining allowable costs under California law. See, e.g., Bussey v. Affleck, 225 Cal. App. 3d, 1162, 1165 (Cal. Ct. App. 1990), abrogated on other grounds by Robert L. Cloud and Associates, Inc. v. Mikesell, 69 Cal. App.4th 1141 (1999).

The Settlement Agreement provides for payments of costs up to $37,000, payable from the Class Fund. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 30.) Counsel now requests $36,304.49 in costs. (MAF at 21.) This Court has reviewed the provided itemized list of costs and finds they are appropriate. The Court therefore APPROVES the requested amount for costs.

VI. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, the Court:

1. GRANTS final approval of the Settlement Agreement and Injunctive Terms;
2. APPROVES payment of the ten late claims and any claims postmarked on or before February 11, 2019;
3. APPROVES Plaintiffs' requests to deem Frederick Crockan, Joe Raymond Fierro, and Andrew Afoa to have filed a timely claim;
4. AWARDS Class Counsel attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,100,000.00;
5. AWARDS Class Counsel costs in the amounts of $36,304.49 as provided in the Settlement Agreement;
6. AWARDS the following amounts to the Named Plaintiffs:

DECLARATION OF JAMES P. FOGELMAN

I, James P. Fogelman, declare:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice before this Court. I am partner with the law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP (“Gibson Dunn”), and I am one of the attorneys of record for USC Keck School of Medicine (“USC”) in this action. I am submitting this declaration in support of USC’s Motion Attorneys’ Fees and Costs. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify hereto.

2. I graduated from the Wharton School of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania in 1989 and from the UCLA School of Law in 1992. I was admitted to practice in the state and federal courts in California in 1992. I am also admitted to practice law in Nevada, Washington, D.C., and New York. I have been an attorney with Gibson Dunn since 1992, and have been a partner with the firm since 2002. I am also Co-Chair of Gibson Dunn’s Law Firm Defense Practice Group. Over my quarter-century of practice, I have developed expertise in representing clients in sports litigation, fantasy sports litigation, gaming and casino litigation, entertainment litigation, real estate litigation, and law firm defense litigation. My 2019 standard hourly billing rate was $1,265/hour. My 2020 standard hourly billing rate is $1,350/hour.

3. Gibson Dunn is an international law firm with over 1,200 attorneys in 20 offices worldwide. The firm was named Litigation Department of the Year by The American Lawyer in 2010, 2012, 2016, and 2019.

4. I reviewed all of Gibson Dunn bills related to this matter. In recording their time, attorneys at Gibson Dunn are required to specify the client and matter number, the nature of the work performed, and the amount of time expended on that task, and the bills reflect this information. I am, therefore, familiar with the work performed and the amounts charged. A chart detailing contemporaneous time entries is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Exhibit A includes descriptions of the work performed by the attorneys. It also reflects their regular billing rates.

1 5. The work that Gibson Dunn attorneys have performed in connection with 2 this matter has included, but is not limited to: reviewing Plaintiff's voluminous filings;
3 researching and analyzing Plaintiff's claims; researching and reviewing Plaintiff's
4 litigation history; researching and drafting three motions to dismiss and an anti-SLAPP
5 motion; researching and drafting oppositions to Plaintiff's preliminary injunction 6 motions, motion for leave to amend, and motion for reconsideration; and meeting and 7 conferring with Plaintiff and his attorneys.

8 6. I personally have spent over 8.3 hours in connection with the matter.
9 Shannon Mader spent over 48 hours on the matter, and Katarzyna Ryzewska spent over 10 167 hours on the matter. The total number of hours spent by all attorneys was 223.3. All 11 told, USC incurred well over $182,925.97 in attorneys' fees to date, with approximately 12 $142,384.95 incurred in the Prior Action and $40,541.02 in the present action, with 13 approximately $5,092.64 attributable to the anti-SLAPP Motion to Strike (entries 14 highlighted in blue in Exhibit A). Additionally USC incurred $1,009.32 in costs, with 15 $371.34 in costs from the Prior Action ($168.80 of which is recoverable under L.R. 54-16 3.10 – entries highlighted in green in Exhibit A), and $637.98 from the present action 17 ($104.53 of which is recoverable under L.R. 54-3.10 – entries highlighted in green in 18 Exhibit A). USC is seeking a total of $182,925.97 in attorneys' fees plus $1,009.32 in 19 costs by way of this Motion. This total represents the total amount charged to the client, 20 but not the significant amount of time and resources expended by Gibson Dunn in 21 defending themselves in the present action. Based on my experience, I believe these fees 22 were reasonably and necessarily incurred.

23 7. Based on my experience, including bringing and defending against various 24 motions to dismiss, anti-SLAPP motions, and motions for preliminary injunctions, I 25 believe that the attorneys' fees incurred by USC in this matter were both necessary and 26 reasonable, particularly given the successful outcome of USC's Motion to Dismiss and 27 anti-SLAPP Motion. I also believe that USC staffed and litigated this case in a 28 reasonable, efficient, and appropriate manner. The work has been performed primarily

1 by three attorneys, one partner, one of counsel, and one associate, with the associate 2 performing the largest share of the work for efficiency purposes.

3 8. This amount does not reflect the significant amount of time and resources
4 expended by Gibson Dunn, USC's counsel of record, in defending themselves in the 5 present action.

6 9. It is my belief that the fees charged by Gibson Dunn are reasonable. I have 7 attached hereto as Exhibit B a true and correct copy of the Public Rates report, published
8 by Thomson Reuters, showing the prevailing rates for California attorneys. The Public
9 Rates report shows that the rates charged by Gibson Dunn are within the range of rates
10 charged generally by similar firms engaged in similar work. For instance, the rates
11 charged by Pachulski Stang Ziehl Young Jones & Weintraub in the 2019 Sedgwick LLP
12 matter in the Northern District are roughly equivalent to the rates charged by Gibson
13 Dunn here. Moreover, the hourly rates charged by Gibson Dunn for this matter are lower 14 than the rates charged by the firm generally. The fact that thousands of sophisticated
15 clients are willing to, and do, pay these rates on an ongoing basis is, in itself, evidence 16 that the rates reflect the reasonable value of the services rendered by Gibson Dunn.

17 I declare under penalty of perjury and under the laws of the United States of 18 America that the foregoing is true and correct. I have executed this declaration in Los 19 Angeles, California on February 18, 2020.

DR. JEFFREY ISAACS, Plaintiff,

v.

USC KECK SCHOOL OF MEDICINE, et al.,
Defendants.

CV 19-8000 DSF (RAOx)

Order GRANTING Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs (Dkt.
No. 99)

Defendant USC Keck School of Medicine (USC) has moved for attorney's fees and costs incurred in this action and a previous related action. The Court deems this matter appropriate for decision without oral argument. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 78; Local Rule 7-15.

USC's request for fees and costs incurred in this action is based on (1) the 2008 settlement agreement between the parties and (2) its successful motion to strike under California Code of Civil Procedure § 425.16. Its request for fees and costs incurred in the previous case is based on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(d).

USC is entitled to reasonable fees incurred in filing the anti-SLAPP motion under § 425.16. USC represents that those fees are $5,092.64 for 6.2 hours of work. The number of hours billed and the total fees for the motion are eminently reasonable.

The Court will also award fees and costs pursuant to the 2008 settlement agreement. The fees provision in that contract is not a typical fees provision that applies to enforcement of the contract itself. The provision at issue instead reflects an agreement by Plaintiff to pay fees and costs associated with cases he might bring in the future “based on any events, acts or omission through and including the date [of the contract].” Dkt. 1-2 at 35 of 53. This provides fee shifting for Plaintiff’s attempts to litigate (or re-litigate) matters that happened before the settlement agreement but does not provide fee shifting for disputes over interpretation or enforcement of the 2008 settlement agreement itself.

While some of the claims and issues raised by this case involve USC’s alleged failure to comply with the settlement agreement, a large proportion of the case involves matters that occurred before the 2008 settlement. Most obviously, the “constructive fraud” and “fraud” claims, which allege that USC never intended to comply with the settlement agreement and thereby fraudulently induced Plaintiff to enter into that agreement through its false promises, are entirely based on actions prior to the consummation of the settlement. And while the other claims technically are based on actions subsequent to the 2008 settlement, references to and claims about acts prior to the 2008 settlement are pervasive throughout the complaint. See, e.g., Compl. ¶¶ 9, 22, 56, 61, 62, 184, 249, 254, 256, 276, 277, 314, 326.

Rule 41(d) states that a court “may order the plaintiff to pay all or part of the costs of [a] previous action” “based on or including the same claim against the same defendant.” The Court finds that Rule 41(d) “costs” can include attorney’s fees under appropriate circumstances, including the circumstances of this case. For the same reasons discussed above, USC would have been entitled to fees in the prior case except that it was unable to prevail in that case due to Plaintiff’s voluntary dismissal. But that dismissal was illusory. This case is a direct continuation of the prior case. Plaintiff could have – and should have – simply filed an amended complaint in the prior case rather than filing a new case. In this context, it is reasonable to treat the later case as a continuation of the earlier one, and Rule 41(d) allows costs, including attorney’s fees, to be awarded for the earlier case given that fees and costs are available under the 2008 settlement agreement.

The requested amount of fees and costs is reasonable.¹ USC's counsel's hourly rate is on the higher side, but within the range charged in the local market for attorneys of comparable quality and size. Plaintiff provides no evidence or argument to support a different rate. The hours billed – 226.2 total hours for both cases – are quite reasonable given the need to oppose a motion for a preliminary injunction and to file three motions to dismiss involving a lengthy complaint with numerous claims. As counsel notes, Plaintiff had sufficient time to challenge specific entries, but did not do so. The Court has reviewed the billing and finds that it is sufficiently detailed to allow the Court to evaluate the reasonableness of the work performed. There was no “block billing,” and counsel billed in tenths of an hour, in accord with the Court's requirements. The matter was very efficiently staffed, with the work being performed primarily by a single associate.

The motion for fees and costs is GRANTED. Plaintiff is ordered to pay $182,925.97 in fees and $1,009.32 in costs to Defendant University of Southern California, Keck School of Medicine.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: May 15, 2020

Dale S. Fischer
United States District Judge

¹ James P. Fogelman, the Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP partner in charge of the litigation, declared that no fees were sought for defending the firm itself.
